

TOOZE TO TALK ON EMPLOYMENT FOR PRISONERS

Should prisoners at the state penitentiary put in their time loafing with no benefit to themselves or the community, or should they be given work and thereby help in making the penitentiary self supporting to some extent?

This problem will be taken up in an address to be delivered by Senator F. J. Tooze of Oregon City, before members of the chamber of commerce at the next Monday noon luncheon.

Last summer Senator Tooze visited several penal institutions including those in California just to inform himself as to what other states were doing with their convicts relative to giving them employment.

Senator Tooze also has some strong ideas as to how our state institutions should be maintained. As chairman of the senate ways and means committee, he will have a voice in determining whether appropriations shall be sufficient to maintain the institutions according to their present growing needs.

Senator Tooze served for a number of years as superintendent of the Oregon City public schools and later as owner and editor of the Banner-Courier, Oregon City.

He is a rapid fire talker and not afraid to say just exactly what he thinks should be done with the state prisoners as well as inmates of our other institutions.

The two senators and four representatives from Marion county will attend the luncheon to get the viewpoint of the senator on these questions that are attracting considerable attention this session of the legislature.

OPPOSE CHANGE IN TAX PAYING

Sheriff Bower stated today he believed there would be opposition generally among sheriffs to the legislative proposal of Senator Johnson to change dates for tax paying time, and that personally he was strongly opposed to the proposal. The bill would advance the last date for payment on each half of the taxes just one month.

"There is no demand or necessity for such a change," states Sheriff Bower. "Taxpayers are accustomed to the existing date and a change would simply cause confusion and while it might be convenient for a few people to change the dates, just as many or more would be inconvenienced. There is so much money to be paid in taxes, that has to be paid at one time or another and no particularly good turn would be accomplished in a change in the law, while much confusion would result."

ORDER AMERICAN MISSIONARY OUT

Bucharest, Roumania, Jan. 31.—(By Associated Press.)—The Roumanian authorities have ordered the Rev. Daniel Hurley, an American citizen, to leave the country within 15 days. No charges are preferred against him. The order is based on a recent law granting the authorities power to order foreigners considered undesirable to quit the country.

The law ostensibly was intended to counteract the spread of communist propaganda. Mr. Hurley was sent here from the United States about a year ago by the Southern Baptist mission board as a teacher in the seminary organized in Bucharest by the American board. It is thought possible the orthodox church may have objected to his teachings as likely to create religious differences and threaten the dominance of the orthodox faith.

Mr. Hurley appealed to the American consul, who requested the authorities to revoke the order against him.

INCREASES IN PRICE OF BREAD FORECAST

Chicago, Jan. 31.—A loaf of bread may cost from one to three cents more here as a result of increased flour prices brought about by the advance in wheat, according to Dr. H. E. Barnard, director of the American Baking Institute. Other cities may have the same tendency, he said. The advance of $3 a barrel in the price of flour adds one cent a pound to the cost of bread which retails here at 7, 8 and 10 cents a pound loaf, according to quality and the district in which it is bought.

The small baker, whose low priced loaves are exhausted must buy at the higher prices, Dr. Barnard said.

Editor Sent to Prison New York, Jan. 31.—Stephen G. Clow, editor of Broadway Devils, convicted of using the mails to defraud, was sentenced today to serve six years and one day in the Atlanta penitentiary. He was fined $7,000.

END OF THE JAZZ TRAIL
Dorothy Ellingson's heedless career of jazz, drinking and late hours brought her behind bars facing a charge of murder for the confessed slaying of her mother. Here is Dorothy pictured in her cell at the county jail shortly after her arrest. Her flippancy is gone, but there seems to be little of regret or sorrow in her attitude—scarcely a realization of the enormity of her crime. "Sorry? Of course I'm sorry. But what good does that do?" That was her comment on the murder. But not a tear, not even a break in her voice for the mother whom she sent to death with a bullet.—Photo by International News Service.

WOULD ABOLISH COUNTY JUDGES

The office of county judges in all counties except those having a population of more than 100,000 persons and embracing only one judicial district would be abolished by house bill 252 introduced by the judiciary committee. Their duties would be transferred to the circuit judges of the state. Bill 252, a companion measure, would provide for the naming of county commissioners for all except Multnomah county to fill vacancies caused by the abolishment of the county judges.

A bill to weaken the present marriage license law as it pertains to medical certificates was introduced by Representative Tucker, Linn county. The bill would abolish the medical certificate now required and permit use of a personal affidavit of applicants in its stead. The latter would have to swear that the applicant had been free from disease for a year preceding date of application.

BOOKLET TELLS ABOUT POINTS OF USED CARS

A unique booklet, telling all about the different points to be looked into by the prospective buyer when examining a used car has just been issued by the Certified Public Motor Car market and is offered free to the used car buying public. It is entitled "How to Buy a Used Car Safely."

FUELIZER TAKES CARE OF UNBURNED GASOLINE

This is the time of the year when the average motor car owner appreciates fully the talk of automobile engineers about viscosity of lubricating oils and low grade gasoline. Frequent and long intervals of choking while starting motors and exasperation which comes from balky motors in excessively cold weather come from low grade gasoline. One of the reasons is that unburned gasoline gets down past the pistons and dilutes the lubricating oil and from this come repair bills. In both the Packard six and the Packard eight cars both of these conditions are cared for with the Packard fuelizer, a device which preheats the gasoline, making it explode more readily during starting and while the motor is warming up.

Hospital Bill Passes.
The senate yesterday passed Senator Clark's bill which legalizes agreements entered into between the Multnomah county commissioners and the board of regents of the University of Oregon for the care of patients in the Multnomah county hospital. The patients are taken care of by the physicians and students of the university medical school which is on premises adjacent to the hospital grounds. The measure will also help in making available resistance for the school from the Rockefeller foundation.

VOTE ON PORT BILL NO TEST BUT POINTED

Many representatives voted to sustain the governor.

Across the hall in the senate the fight was bitter and lasted through three long hours of oratory chiefly remarkable for its bitterness and the personal aspersions that were hurled about. The senate vote was 26 to 4 in favor of passage of the bill, with only Senators Fisk, Joseph, Kinney and Zimmerman voting in the negative. It cannot, however, be considered as a test of the governor's strength on his bills pertaining to the program to clip his wings that are yet to come, for Senators Garland, Brown, Strayhorn, Tooze and Taylor were careful to explain in casting their votes that they were influenced to do so chiefly by the fact that selection of the members of the Port of Portland should be dictated by the people of Portland or their representatives, and the governor had apparently consulted an one concerned in making his appointments.

Nine With Governor
Their explanations were virtual declarations that they were not in sympathy with any program to rob the governor of the prerogatives of his office, and that they can be expected to be found supporting the governor whenever it appears that the legislature is attempting to "hamstring" him for political reasons.

With the four who voted against the bill and the five who thus explained their position it appears that the governor has a nucleus of nine senators around which to build his defense against the onslaught that are to be made upon his patronage in the bills to submit the state prohibition department, the state market agent, and to remove from his appointing power the game commission, the fish commission, the penitentiary, and to deprive him of control of the bus company.

Accurate Line Lacking
There are so many different angles entering into the consideration of each of these bills that the vote on one cannot be considered as an absolute indication of what the vote will be on any other, except that those nine can be pretty definitely placed in the support of the governor. He needs 11 votes however, in order to thwart the will of the legislature and have his vetoes sustained.

The action of the house on the port bill was something of a surprise, owing to the manner in which it was disposed of. No sooner had the senate passed the bill than it was rushed across the lobby and, under suspension of the rules, sent through its first, second and third readings. Mott and Miller were the only two voting in the negative.

Joseph Leads Fight
Senator Joseph led the fight upon the measure in the senate in a speech that lasted for more than an hour, and in which he assailed the alleged control of Frank M. Warren, one of the commissioners deposed by the governor, over the legislature, denounced the motives behind Mr. Warren's political activities and questioned the reasons for the manner in which the sen-

SEVERAL BILLS PUT TO SLEEP

Several house bills were put quietly to sleep yesterday by the simple expedient of indefinite postponement. Included in this group was house bill 92, by Harburt, which called for a jury to hear all pardon cases. Another, pardon measure, house bill No. 2 by Bennett, providing for the supreme court to pass on pardon cases, was disposed of in the same manner. House bill 13, by the governor's special committee on license revocation went the same route. This measure would have provided for a graduated license fee based on the number of registrations of an automobile.

A number of bills were favorably reported. Among them was house bill No. 19 by Swan providing for more strict regulations of dance halls.

ate organization rushed to the rescue of Mr. Warren. "The Port of Portland has always been a matter of politics in the legislature, and efforts have always been made by paid lobbyists to perpetuate the personal of the commission then in office," Senator Joseph charged, asserting that the Portland Chamber of Commerce and the Multnomah county delegation in the legislature would rush to the defense of Mr. Warren and the other commissioners named whom the governor appointed, even if it had been "God Almighty and the Apostles."

"The people of Portland and the taxpayers of the port district have no chance at all against the combination that exists here in this senate, Joseph pointed out, is also Senator Moser, president of the senate, Joseph pointed out in also attorney for the Port of Portland and is interested in perpetuating his job. Senator Banks is the personal attorney of Mr. Warren, Joseph charged, but Banks challenged this statement, rising to a point of privilege.

"That statement is untrue and Senator Joseph knows it," said Senator Banks.

Warren Hears Tirade
This brought on a sharp tilt between Joseph and Banks in which the former asked Banks if it was not true that he had had words with Senator Moser over the division of certain attorney's fees, and if it was not a fact that Banks had told Moser that he "would not help put this over unless the fees are split."

Banks declared that each of the statements were deliberate falsehoods. During the course of Senator Joseph's remarks, in which Mr. Warren was branded as a "political pest," Senator Garland asked that the courtesies of the senate be extended to Mr. Warren, who accepted and took his seat inside the railing, where he remained throughout the rest of Joseph's tirade.

SALEM DEFEATS EUGENE IN FAST GAME 23 TO 21

Salem III's fondest hopes were realized last night when they defeated Eugene, their ancient rival at basketball on the local floor by a score of 23 to 21. The game was bitterly fought throughout and numerous fouls were called on both sides.

The locals started the game with two points in the first few minutes when Heenan converted a foul, followed by two points by Ellis. Salem ran the score to eight before Eugene could locate the hoop. In the second quarter Eugene checked closely and Salem was forced to make several long shots which gave Eugene the ball and they tied the score at 12 all at the half. In the second half the locals started out in the lead again only to have Eugene tie the score.
