FATHER AND SON BOTH IN PULPIT

Portland, Or., Feb. 2.—A service of old-fashioned hymns, the kind that once heard often recur to mind, was given last night at Centenary-Wilbur Methodist Episcopal church by Dr. E. C. Hickman, president of the Kimball school of theology at Salem, Or., and his father, Rev. G. William Hickman of Aberdeen, S. D., retired Methodist minister of the Minnesota conference.

Dr. Hickman and his father sang duets. Dr. Hickman taking the baritone and his father the tenor. Their songs appealed last night, which is not strange, for they have won great favor before and are remembered as a high point of centenary celebration of the Methodist Episcopal church, held in Columbus, Ohio, when they sang before audiences of 20,000. They had not given one of their song-sermon services for years until this winter when Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Hickman came to Oregon to spend a few months with their son in Salem. Next week they will go to Seaside to put on an evangelistic campaign.

The sermon that interspersed the songs was given by Dr. Hickman, known throughout the northwest for his work as the head of Kimball college. His message was of the evangelistic order, in which he related some of his personal experiences. Dr. Hickman told of hardships experienced by his mother and father on the Dakota prairies. "It was then," he said, "that the church challenged me to its ministry."

A CLEAR COMPLEXION Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, sallow look, full eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.
