

WHAT IS DOING IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION

COLLEGES PLEAD FOR STATE FUNDS FOR OPERATION

Among a large number of petitions heard by the ways and means committee last night were representatives of the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college. Dr. R. B. Dillehunt, head of the medical school of the state university, appeared in behalf of the desired $51,000 appropriation for maintenance of the Dornbecker memorial hospital for children. The sum of $200,000 has been left for establishment of the hospital.

Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, C. C. Colt and Major W. S. Gilbert, all members of the board of regents of the university, also spoke for the appropriation.

Representatives of O. A. C. appeared in behalf of various activities of that institution for which appropriations are asked. J. S. Landers and Mrs. Louise Palmer Webber spoke for the Monmouth normal school appropriations. Those requested are $72,000 for salaries, $80,000 for a new classroom, $145,000 for a new training school at Independence.

Other matters for which arguments were heard last night were: H. B. 140, by Schrock—Providing $10,000 for investigation of poultry diseases and providing a poultry veterinarian.

H. B. 141, by Schrock—To appropriate $10,000 for construction work necessary in a proposed egg-laying contest and $500 annually to put on the contest.

H. B. 6, by Hazlett—Appropriating $14,000 for Hood River experiment station.

H. B. 143, by Bates—To appropriate $12,000 for John Jacob Astor dairy experiment station in Clatsop county.

CLEAVER SHOULD QUIT, UNFIT LIKELY FINDING OF PROBE

(Continued from Page One)

definite provision for cooperation between the department and local officials, stricter accounting of funds derived or used in counties, reapportionment of money accruing from fines so that both the state department and the sheriffs and district attorneys will benefit thereby.

A brief session of the committee was held Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of recalling to the stand Cleaver, W. J. Herwig and Governor Pierce.

Cleaver was questioned again relative to the London Merchant raid and in substance reiterated his former testimony about advice received from the office of the Anti-Saloon league relative to the ship. Cleaver added that he now has affidavits showing that drinking parties had come off the ship.

Herwig Denies Charge
Mr. Herwig asked to be heard mainly to refute testimony given the previous night by L. M. Kietzing, former Klan newspaperman.

"While Kietzing was with the Klan and connected with the Western American," said Herwig, "he often came to my office and insisted that Cleaver and his men were crooked. As for his statement that I said I could have Cleaver removed in 12 hours and that I had a list of 50 men available for his place, that is untrue."

Replying to questions Herwig said he understood Cleaver fell out with the Ku Klux Klan over some of the men employed. He denied that the Anti-Saloon league had any connection with the Klan. Herwig denied that he had ever attempted to dictate to Cleaver or the governor concerning the policy of the prohibition department.

Representative Lonergan assailed with some acrimony a statement from Herwig appearing in Portland newspapers last week-end relative to an itemized statement which some members of the committee insisted Herwig should produce concerning the $1500 in state money turned over to Abe Weinberg, Anti-Saloon league detective. Lonergan insisted that Herwig's statement in the press was not according to the record of the testimony and conversation in the committee. Herwig said he conscientiously believed he was stating the facts correctly.

"If I erred I shall be glad to apologize," Mr. Lonergan, he said.

Pierce Accepts Responsibility
The testimony of Governor Pierce brought out the fact that

Is Holding His Own

"Ten years ago I received such wonderful help from your medicine for my stomach trouble that I have recommended it to hundreds of other sufferers. Recently a friend of mine whose brother in a distant city was stricken with acute indigestion and was not expected to live, got his brother to take a bottle on my advice. I have just received word that his brother was holding his own, and I am confident that Mayr's Wonderful Remedy will entirely restore him." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. On dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Rudolph Valentino
"SAINTED DEVIL"

Two Consolidation Proposals Scrapped New Ones to be Drawn

The senate committee on resolutions Tuesday afternoon voted to scuttle both the Toozie and Hall resolutions calling for the appointment of special commissions to investigate the consolidation problem and report back to the next session of the legislature, and instructed Senator Banks, chairman, to draw up a substitute resolution embodying suggestions brought out during the hearing.

Sensor Hare was the only one to favor either of the proposals submitted for the consideration of the committee, and he announced that he was pledged to the Toozie resolution with a few minor amendments, and would bring in a minority report favoring its adoption.

The Toozie resolution, which was actually drawn up by the special committee appointed by the governor last summer to investigate and report on consolidation, will serve as a model for the substitute to be drawn up. It was intimated, but the new resolution will provide for a commission of five members, one senator appointed by the president, one representative appointed by the speaker, one person elected by the house and one elected by the senate. The four to select and name the fifth member of the commission, which would be empowered to investigate the situation fully prepare a report and a suggested bill, which would be submitted to the press of the state at a time sufficiently prior to the 1927 session of the legislature as to afford ample time for public consideration.

The act creating the state prohibition department was written by Senator Eddy, that it was modeled after an Ohio law and that the law was enacted at the advice of Roy Haines, of Washington, D. C., head of the national prohibition department, who at the time was visiting the Oregon legislature.

Senator Eddy took charge of the legislation, it was shown, at the request of Governor Pierce.

The governor denied that the Anti-Saloon league had anything to do with running the state department.

"The prohibition department is not run by the Anti-Saloon league," he said. "I run it. True I have consulted with the Anti-Saloon league and with friends of prohibition."

Governor Pierce replied to intimations dropped by ex-Governor West Monday night about Cleaver's past record.

"Cleaver lost a fortune by turning it in when his bank failed," said Pierce. "He failed in business, but it was an honest failure."

Cannot Site Results
In his talk at the public hearing Monday night Governor Pierce had referred to a large number of prosecutions resulting from the $1500 in state money turned over to Weinberg for his Anti-Saloon league investigation. Senator Hare questioned the governor about this reminding him that previous testimony showed that not a single prosecution had resulted.

"I can't cite a particular case," answered the governor, "but it opened up the Yamhill cases and other cases in the Willamette valley."

The governor told the committee that he had acquiesced with Cleaver in the opinion that the state law required local officers to cooperate with the state department, but not the state department with local officers, and admitted that he had read before it was

STATED FINE FOR DRUNKEN MOTOR DRIVERS FAVORED

A judge may be told what sort of a sentence he should impose on an individual arraigned before him, the roads and highways committee of the senate decided yesterday.

In other words, if the recommendations of the committee are followed, a person convicted of driving while drunk must be sentenced to "not less than $100 nor more than $500 and shall be confined in the county jail not less than 60 days nor more than six months."

The indorsement was not made by the committee, however, without some objection. Senator William Klepper held that its provisions were too drastic, and that enforcement would prove difficult. He said he had talked to certain jurists and that they had frowned on it.

Certain newspapers in Oregon had discouraged such a bill, holding that it would be wrong to insist that a judge mete out sentences without considering the details involved in the individual case.

FIVE ON BOARD IN TOOZE BILL

With the amendment that the commission shall be composed of five instead of seven members, the resolutions committee of the senate last night decided to report favorably on the Toozie consolidation resolution. This resolution sets out a definite plan of action for the commission in its investigations and differs from the Hall resolution in that the latter does not attempt to commit the commission for or against consolidation.

In reducing the number of members on the commission the amendment takes off the governor and attorney general, who were proposed as ex-officio members. It leaves two to be elected by the senate, two by the house and a fifth to be chosen by the first four. A proposed appropriation of $4500 to put the resolution into effect is reduced to $2000.

The findings of the commission would be reported to the legislature in 1927.

"I did not," replied the governor, "and I have no such feeling. I have been accorded complete courtesy by this committee."

"I did not," replied the governor, "and I have no such feeling. I have been accorded complete courtesy by this committee."

CATARRH of head or throat is usually benefited by the vapors of VICKS VAPORUB Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Rudolph Valentino
"SAINTED DEVIL"

SENATE BILLS

S. B. 120, Clark, request of city of Portland—Authorizing appeals to be taken in certain cases from action of municipal authorities in appropriating property for streets, and declaring an emergency.

S. B. 121, Clark, request of city of Portland—Providing for appointment of additional judges of recorder's or municipal courts in certain incorporated cities, and declaring an emergency.

S. B. 122, Clark, request of city of Portland—Relating to the time of payment of taxes and collection of penalties and interest on delinquent taxes.

S. B. 123, Clark, request of city of Portland—Giving certain emergency vehicles the right of way, and regulating their speed.

S. B. 124, Clark, request of city of Portland—Relating to sale of registered lands and declaring an emergency.

S. B. 125, Clark, request of city of Portland—Relating to proceedings started to determine validity of sale of land for taxes.

S. B. 126, Clark, request of city of Portland—Authorizing municipal corporations to codify and publish a code of municipal ordinances.

S. B. 127, joint committee on irrigation—Relating to levy of an assessment and collection in irrigation districts.

S. B. 128, Dennis—Relating to jurisdiction of public service commission in granting reparations.

S. B. 129, Ritter—Relating to tax on distillate.

S. B. 130, joint Washington county delegation—Fixing the salary of the justice of the peace for Hillsboro district, Washington county.

S. B. 131, Ritter—Relating to tax on distillate.

S. B. 132, Senator Johnson and Mr. Buchanan—Relating to salaries of Benton county officials.

S. B. 133, Beals—Providing for assessment of timber products saw ed or cut from lands not subject to assessment, and which land or timber is not included within boundaries of any reservation made by the United States.

S. B. 134, Joseph—Relating to salaries of district sealers of weights and measures.

S. B. 135, Joseph—Fixing the ownership of property acquired after marriage of either husband or wife or both.

S. B. 136, Joseph—Appropriating $500,000 for construction of a building for accommodation of Oregon pioneers and Oregon Historical Society.

S. B. 137, Dennis—Defining industrial loan companies and providing for their incorporation.

S. B. 138, Dennis—Relating to the discharging of grand jurors under certain conditions.

S. B. 139, Maglady—To regulate all tourist camp grounds.

S. B. 140, Clark—Relating to operation of motor vehicles by transportation companies.

S. B. 141, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 142, Clark, by request—Providing that any person imprisoned in a county jail for failure to pay a fine may, after 60 days be released upon certain conditions.

S. B. 143, Garland—For relief of Ada A. Dunlap.

S. B. 144, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 145, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 146, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 147, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 148, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 149, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 150, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 151, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 152, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 153, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 154, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 155, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 156, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 157, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 158, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 159, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 160, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 161, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 162, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 163, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 164, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 165, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 166, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 167, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 168, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 169, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 170, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 171, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 172, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 173, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 174, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 175, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 176, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 177, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 178, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 179, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 180, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 181, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 182, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 183, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 184, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 185, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 186, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 187, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 188, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 189, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 190, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 191, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 192, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 193, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 194, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 195, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 196, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 197, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 198, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 199, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 200, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 201, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 202, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 203, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 204, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 205, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 206, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 207, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 208, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 209, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 210, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 211, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 212, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 213, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 214, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 215, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 216, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 217, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 218, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 219, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.

S. B. 220, Clark, by request—Providing that when any person is accused in justice court of any violation of which the circuit court has concurrent jurisdiction, the judges of such court shall dispose of such cases under certain conditions.