Benefit Bridge Tea Tomorrow

Outstanding on the social calendar of the week is the benefit bridge tea which the Salem Woman's club is sponsoring tomorrow afternoon in the club house on north Cottage street. The affair gives promise of being one of the most beautiful and elaborate afternoon affairs of the season. Nearly forty tables were reserved for the afternoon early this morning with requests for more coming to the committee hourly.

Mrs. Walter Spaulding has been in charge of the affair and assisting her are Mrs. Frank G. Bowersox, Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. Wilson H. Darby, Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson, Mrs. P. A. Eiker, Mrs. Wilford L. Pemberton, Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Mrs. G. E. Schumann and Mrs. Max A. Buren.

The committee will form an informal receiving line. The guests are asked to come at two o'clock as all the tables will be arranged with score cards and other accessories so that playing may begin immediately.

Assisting also will be Mrs. Grover Bellinger, Mrs. E. A. Colony, Mrs. E. M. Pace, Mrs. R. J. Vallon and Miss Beryl Marsters who will be in charge at the door. Valentine decorations different from the ordinary are promised by the hostesses. Puffy willows in great numbers are being arranged for the occasion to form a neutral color with the splash of color furnished by the red hearts and red carnations. Many floor lamps and red candles will give a soft lighting effect.

Among those reserving tables are Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. L. C. Marshall, Mrs. J. J. Nash, Mrs. L. L. Swan, Mrs. Lynn Smith, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. C. E. Bates, Mrs. H. L. Darby, Mrs. Earl Paulsen, Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, Mrs. W. R. Mott, Mrs. Claude Stensloff, Mrs. E. M. Pace, Mrs. T. M. Barr, Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. Guy O. Smith, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Harry Weldner, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. F. G. Brock, Mrs. J. C. Whittig, Mrs. Hal Patton, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. P. B. Kinball, Mrs. H. H. Worth, Mrs. Homer Gouley, Mrs. Earl Pearey, Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. E. E. Bragg, Mrs. D. J. McLellan and Mrs. Waldo Brown of Hubbard.

Beginning with a dinner at 6:30 members of the Brush College grange will meet in the school house tomorrow evening. Under the direction of Mrs. William McCall, lecturer of the grange, an interesting evening has been planned. During the program hour Mrs. Al Steiner will read a paper on Lincoln and Dr. E. L. Blodgett, Mrs. N. G. Lehman and Oliver Whitney will treat the various periods of Washington's life. Mrs. Guy Newcomb will sing several old fashioned songs.

The minut and a Russian ballet will be given by a group of six pupils of Mrs. Ralph White. A valentine "etant" promises fun and merriment.

Complimenting Mrs. Denton Burdick, Mrs. J. R. Linn entertained at a charming luncheon at the Marion hotel on Tuesday. The luncheon table was attractive with daffodile and freesias.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Burdick, the honor guest, Mrs. Ralph Watson of Portland, Mrs. Franz Lorenson of Portland, Mrs. K. W. Reinlein, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. F. G. Anderson, Mrs. F. B. Thieleon, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Fritz Slade and the hostess, Mrs. Linn.

Bridge and Mah Jongg was enjoyed during the afternoon High bridge score was won by Mrs. Burdick and Mrs. Roberts was most successful among the Mah Jongg players.

AFTER BABY WAS BORN

Mrs. Miles Was Miserable a Long Time—Owes Final Recovery to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dover, Ohio. "After my last baby was born I was up and around again, but I was sickly all the time and did not know how to get my work done. I had washed a heavy carpet and I think that was the cause of my troubles. I went to several doctors, but their medicine did not do me any good. I asked what the trouble was, for I could hardly walk and all ways had such pains in my left side and then in my right side. He told me I had inflammation that caused it. I had one of your text-books and was reading it, and I thought I would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After four days of taking it I began to feel better, so I took three bottles without missing a dose. That helped me more than any other medicine I had yet taken and I always have it handy now. It surely did put me on my feet again."—Mrs. JAMES MILES, 419 Cherry Street, Dover, Ohio.

You must believe that a medicine that helps other women will help you. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Concert By Violinist Successful

Dash, fire, vim—inspiration and personality combined with years of intensive training under the direction of masters—all these were evident last night when Miss Elizabeth Levy, Salem violinist, gave her homecoming concert after studying in New York and abroad.

Miss Levy was repeatedly encored and veritably deluged with beautiful flowers. An appreciative and enthusiastic audience enjoyed the evening to the fullest.

The program opened with an Italian number, "Chaconne," by Vitali-Thomson which portrayed Miss Levy's versatility and variety of moods. It was significant because of a mellow richness to which Miss Levy's instrument—a Gragnani more than two hundred years old—seemed particularly adapted.

The Romance Andaluza, Sarasate, a Spanish duet number, Van Goen's Sherry, and Brahms Hochstein's Waltz in A Major, formed the next group and again illustrated that Miss Levy can do the vivacious, the ponderous, and the graceful, with equal mastery of her bow.

Bits of lightness inserted in the program were the Bandana ballads, Clarence White's "Chant," and Gardner's "From the Canoe-brake." At first thought these would seem incongruous with the balance of the program, but in actual execution they were quite appropriate filling the variety requirement.

One of the best bits of the evening was the Gypsy number—"Zigeunerweisen," by Sarasate, which Miss Levy gave with true understanding of the Romany spirit. Her encore "Gavotte" by Coesae, "Tambourin," and "Concerto," Beethoven's "Minuet in G," and Kreisler's "Liebesfreud," were equally applauded.

Miss Levy was particularly fortunate in her accompanist, Edgar E. Courser of Portland, who sensed the violinist's every mood and responded immediately.

Patronesses were Mrs. George H. Alden, Miss Sally Bush, Mrs. William H. Byrd, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. William Burghardt, Mrs. David W. Eyer, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. John Farrar, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. William Walton and Miss Lena Delle Tartar.

A group of pupils of Bertha Junk Darby gave a program of piano numbers for the pleasure of their parents and friends at the home studio of Mrs. Darby on Saturday evening. From the numbers given by the tiny beginners to the last graduate pupil all showed understanding and variety of style.

Partaking in the program were Robert Payne, Elmer Darkus, Dorothy Kent, Margaret Kent, Cathryn Eaton, Jeanette Scott, Suzi Fukuda, Wilson Selgund, Elaine Hartley, Edith Clement, Jessie Fukuda, Julia Currie, Elizabeth Clement, Lillian Scott, Lillian Lyman, Genevieve Junk and Irma Keefer.

Euwer Exhibit Opened

The formal opening of the Anthony Euwer exhibit in the Marion hotel last night was the occasion of a goodly gathering of art lovers who came to see both Anthony Euwer and his work. When he consented to read his "By Scarlet Torch and Blade," the poem from which his last book receives its name, and his "Getting to It," then the evening was complete for each individual present.

Mr. Euwer talked a bit also about his painting, of the pleasure he derives from work in color and the relation between words and the brush.

The gathering was also a regular meeting of the Arts League with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford, Prof. and Mrs. Morton E. Peck, Prof. and Mrs. P. G. Franklin, Mrs. Gertrude Robison Ross, Mrs. Blanche Jones and Perry Reigelman as hosts.

Mr. Euwer will remain in Salem for several days. The exhibit will be open until Sunday, Mrs. W. C. Dibbie is hostess this afternoon and Mrs. J. R. Sites this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert entertained at luncheon honoring Mr. Euwer today. Tonight he will be the dinner guest of Prof. and Mrs. Morton E. Peck.

An unusually interesting meeting of the business and professional women's club was held in the chamber of commerce rooms last night when the club entertained at their special dinner guests Mrs. W. S. Kinney, senator from Astoria, and Mrs. Lola Baldwin of Portland, Mrs. C. Randall of the Portland protective division, Mrs. Josephine Forney of Portland, formerly state president of the club, and Anthony Euwer, poet and artist.

Senator Kinney gave an interesting talk during the dinner hour telling of her experiences as the only woman member of the upper house. Mr. Euwer, to the great joy of the group, read in his unimpaired manner his "Hobnobbing with the Firmament," and his "Goldfish."

A short business meeting followed the dinner hour and later a short playlet, "Copper the Pile," was given by four of the club members who were directed by Mrs. Halley.

Why Millions of Mothers Now Rely Upon Vicks

Modern mothers know that too much dosing is harmful to a child's delicate stomach.

Vicks comes in salve form and is applied externally—can be freely used without the slightest harmful effect.

For croup and children's colds you just rub Vicks over throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth. The ingredients—Menthol, Camphor, Eucalyptus, Thyme and Turpentine—are released as vapors by the body heat and inhaled with every breath all night long. At the same time Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin like a poultice or plaster.

Colds go overnight, croup is generally relieved within 15 minutes.
