SENATE PASSES BILL TO RELIEVE DRY FARMERS

Senate bill No. 153, designed to relieve dry farmers on the north unit project, passed the senate today. It provides that when 75 per cent of the farmers owning a compact body of land of more than 2000 acres located on the border of an irrigation district desire to quit the district they may petition the board of directors of the district to release them. Whether they are released is discretionary with the board, which is required to accord them a hearing and also a hearing of those who protest at being excluded from the district. The 75 per cent must be not less than 10 farmers.

A bill introduced by Upton by request, providing for a state board of therapy examiners and for regulation of cosmetic therapy, passed the senate today.

The senate adopted a senate joint resolution providing that the action on bills in the legislature must be on the printed bill in the same manner that bills are considered in congress. It is claimed by the sponsors of the resolution, which was introduced by Joseph Strayer, Stapler and Brown, that it would save thousands of dollars in clerk hire. The resolution directs that an special committee composed of the chairman of the enrolled bills, engrossed bills and ways and means committees of both house and senate investigate the feasibility of the system, and if they approve that they cause a bill to be drafted for introduction at the session.

BANKING CODE BILL PASSED BY SENATE TODAY

The revised banking code bill, senate bill 54, was passed by the senate today, coming up as a special order at 11 o'clock. The debate was brief.

The bill was explained by Senator Butler, chairman of the banking committee, who said that the bill has been drawn and approved by a committee of the state bankers association and every opportunity given for the legislators and the public to study the bill. He said the measure adds considerably to the regulatory powers of the state bank superintendent, but that the bankers of the state are agreeable to this and that it is in the interest of the depositors.

Senator Joseph opposed the bill on grounds that it gives such power to the bank superintendent that he may control not only the banks but the banks. He objected especially to provisions that the superintendent may remove directors or cashiers. He asserted that the bill was drawn to give power to the bank superintendent and that it makes him a law unto himself.

Senator Hare, answering Joseph, said the superintendent would have such power only in case bank officers were reckless, dishonest or incompetent and that the bank superintendent is held responsible for every bank failure.

Garland declared power should be given the superintendent to remove bank officials and fix their salaries.

Corbett asserted the power given the superintendent was for the protection of the depositors.

Zimmerman declared he would vote against the bill "as a protest against placing the money power into the hands of the mighty few." He declared the banking power of the United States "has a death grip on transportation and industry."

Brown, Joseph, La Follett, Taylor and Zimmerman voted against the bill.

Now Used For Lumbago

During the past winter thousands of people have used Joint-Ease with such remarkable success in the treatment of the most severe cases of lumbago that we are but doing our duty when we say to the public: "When Joint-Ease goes in—lumbago goes out."

Other "sleepers" have been bewilder boys away from home for the first time, and untrained in the art of finding a deserted shack or a friendly barn in which to spend the night. Some men have true hospitality exists at northwest jails, and that although beds may be hard, and one's bedfellows a motley crew, the room is at least warm, and a tight roof keeps the rain out, and finding this, have spent most of their time in bed, in jails.

She Says: "I Am Thin" Her Friend Says: "She Is Skinny"

If he only knew that she could put on at least 2 pounds of good healthy flesh in 30 days she would not be worrying about her peaked face, hollow cheeks and neck and run down looks.

She has tried Cod Liver Oil, but the fishy smell, nasty tasting stuff upset her stomach and made her feel worse than before.

Doctors and good pharmacists know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitalizing vitamins that make fresh appetites, remove stores of fat, build up the power to resist disease and change away nervousness.

But it's the horrible tasting stuff and every day fewer people are taking it. They are fast learning that they can get better results with McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, which J. C. Perry, Central Pharmacy, D. I. Fry and druggists all over the country are having a tremendous demand for.

It is a wonderful upbuilding medicine for skinny, backward children, especially after sickness and 20 tablets only cost 50 cents. One woman gained 16 pounds in 60 days and if any skinny man or woman can't put on 5 pounds in 30 days your druggist will gladly return the purchase price.

But be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—Ad.

Was She a Fool?

To satisfy her parents, Evelyn became engaged to Eugene. But she was not happy. In her eyes, Eugene was too perfect, too gentle and gravely correct. The ideal lover she dreamed of had in him something of the savage. She pictured him as wild, virile, masterful, brave. Then in the black, frozen wastes of Alaska, a devil, disguised as Evelyn's ideal of a "man of man," came into her life. Followed a drama of elemental passion, fierce hate and fiercer love that was to test Eugene's manhood to the limit and try Evelyn's very soul. The outcome is as thrilling as it is unexpected. Evelyn tells the story under the title of "The Primitive Lover." Read it in True Story Magazine for March.
