

DENNIS BAN ON INCOME TAXES PASSES SENATE

By a vote of 19 to 14, the Dennis joint resolution directed against income and inheritance taxes passed the senate on reconsideration yesterday. The resolution proposes to submit to the people a constitutional amendment to prevent the enactment of income and inheritance tax laws until the year 1940, and would repeal the present inheritance tax.

The vote on the resolution was: For—Banks, Carsner, Clark, Corbett, Davis, Dennis, Hall, Hare, Joseph, Klepper, Maglady, Miller, Rittner, Staples, Upton, Moser.

Against—Beale, Brown, Butler, Dunn, Eddy, Fisk, Garland, Johnson, Kinney, LaFollett, Taylor, Toose, Zimmerman.

The debate resolved itself on the part of the opponents of the resolution largely into a defense of Senator Zimmerman, who had been attacked by Staples.

Zimmerman opened the argument by vigorously and bitterly assailing the resolution. This caused Staples to arise and remark as follows:

"Senator Zimmerman has given us the same old speech. We have heard it many times, sometimes with a new twist or two, I admit. He first practiced that speech in his orchard, then rehearsed it before the lookingglass. He used it constantly in the senate two years ago and ran for congress on that speech. For two years we have been listening to that speech and now we hear it again at this session."

"I'll have to give it two more years before it can get through your nut," shouted Zimmerman.

"If the people of Yamhill county send you back here in two years," retorted Staples, "we'll send 'em to the feeble-minded institution."

Senator Garland rebuked Staples for his harsh criticism of Zimmerman's speech and his attack on the Yamhill senator.

PROBATE JUDGE OF MULTNOMAH UNDER FIRE

The Joseph bill to change the judicial system in Multnomah county by giving all the seven circuit judges jurisdiction over probate affairs, but empowering them to select one of their own number to handle probate, is on the calendar today for third reading as the result of a bitter fight yesterday on the question of adopting a minority favorable report on the bill. It had been referred to the Multnomah delegation.

When the adverse majority report and the favorable minority report were read Joseph at once moved adoption of the minority report. Senator Klepper led the fight for the unfavorable report, declaring that the present system has the advantage of keeping long-drawn-out probate matters in the hands of one judge. The remainder of the debate was largely an airing of the record of the present probate judge in Portland, who at no time was mentioned by name. He was flayed by Joseph without mercy and defended by Moser and others, the president leaving the chair to fight the bill.

Joseph said he had introduced the bill at the request of all the other circuit judges in Multnomah county for the reason that they were not satisfied with the conduct in office of the present probate judge.

The vote on adoption of the minority report was:

For—Banks, Beale, Brown, Butler, Carsner, Corbett, Davis, Dennis, Dunn, Eddy, Fisk, Garland, Hare, Johnson, Joseph, LaFollett, Miller, Staples, Strayer, Taylor, Zimmerman.

Against—Clark, Hall, Klepper, Maglady, Rittner, Upton, Moser. Absent—Kinney, Toose.

HAYWOOD BACK TO SERVE TERM?

Chicago, Feb. 14.—Federal agents today investigated reports that William Dudley (Big Bill) Haywood, who fled to Russia in 1919 after he and 92 others were given penitentiary sentences for obstructing the government in prosecuting the war, had returned here to settle his affairs preparatory to giving himself up.

Officials of the I. W. W. here denied knowledge of his presence as also did William Bros. Lloyd, wealthy communist, who paid the government the $30,000 bonds he had provided for Haywood. The I. W. W. headquarters said it would not be surprised if Haywood should appear before long.

Haywood was reported to have left Russia, where he had been an agent for the soviet government a month ago. A sentence of 20 years in the Leavenworth federal penitentiary and a $10,000 fine were given Haywood by Judge K. M. Landis in 1918. He was sent to the prison but released in 1919 on bonds provided by Lloyd-pendence an appeal. The sentence was upheld, but meanwhile Haywood had fled to Russia.

TIPPERARY BARRACKS USED FOR DWELLINGS

Dublin.—Empty British military barracks in the Free State are being largely used to diminish the housing shortage. Dublin barracks are being converted into dwellings for the working classes, and this plan is being followed also in the provinces. The military barracks in Tipperary have been handed over by the government authorities to be used as dwellings for the townspeople.

A grant of $25,000 has been sanctioned from the unemployment fund, and this will be supplemented by a further grant to Tipperary of $7500 from the housing act fund.
