LEVENS OF BAKER PICKED AS DRY CHIEF (Continued from Page One) than any individual of party. I have today accepted his resignation as state prohibition commissioner, and have appointed William S. Levens of Baker, Oregon. "I ask you to make available for this department one-half of all fines collected for violation of the prohibition laws. I know that the prohibition laws are far better enforced today in the state of Oregon than they were two years ago. I know that in a large measure the prohibition department has brought about this condition. It is my earnest desire to make the closing years of my administration notable for law enforcement. The accomplishment of this purpose to any marked degree will be possible only by having sufficient funds. Heavy garnish co-operation will be given to every sheriff and every district attorney who dedicates to enforce the law in this state, and I will move unhesitatingly against officials who are derelict in their duty."
