Meeting of Musicians Last Night

One of the most enjoyable meetings of the year of the music section of the Salem Arts League was held last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Sites. The work of one composer is taken up at each meeting and last night the choice was Schumann.

Mrs. Miles McKee read a biography of the great composer and an interesting discussion followed, in the course of which it developed that Dr. Sites had known and studied with Clara Wieck Schumann. Mrs. Schumann was one of the finest pianists among women that the world has known, and was the inspiration for the best of Schumann's songs.

Miss Louise Townsend gave two of his piano compositions, "Soaring and Why" and "The Ladybird," and Dr. Sites, accompanied by Miss Townsend gave a solo of the Adagio from the concerto, Opus No. 129 and an encore, "Abendlied und Am Gamin"; Mrs. Monroe Gilbert sang "With Myrtille and Roses" and "The Ladybird," and Dr. Sites, "The Two Grenadiers" and "Ich Grolle Nicht."

To show two very different conceptions of the same poem Dr. Sites also sang "The Two Grenadiers" by Carl Reuberger. Later in the evening delightful refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. David Eason of McMinnville and J. C. Hunter of Grants Pass were guests. The next meeting will be held the third of March and the music of Hayden will be studied.

Robert Huston and Billie Dezel will be hosts at a meeting of the Senior Kings Heralds band on Saturday from two to four at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee, 1315 State street. Under the direction of Mrs. E. O. Welling, in charge of the games and the "Mystery Corner," and Mrs. Lloyd Lee in charge of the lesson story, the Senior Heralds are anticipating an interesting afternoon. At this time also, semi-annual election of officers will be held.

The last of a series of four successful card parties sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America and the Knights of Columbus was given in McCornack hall last night. At this time prizes were awarded to the highest scores achieved at by bidding the points received at each of the four evenings of playing. Mrs. C. D. Thomas and M. J. Petzel were first prize winners of the series. Eighteen tables of players were included in the group last night.

The committee responsible for the affair included Mrs. J. S. Gontzow, Mrs. B. Cunningham, Mrs. R. I. Dibb, Mrs. J. Napoleon Roque and Miss Vogel.

Mrs. E. A. Aufrance will be hostess at a meeting of the Unitarian Alliance in the Emerson room of the church on Friday afternoon, at 2:30.

Mrs. W. E. Hanson will entertain the members of Hal Hibbard auxiliary at a social meeting in her home at 990 north Fifth street, on Friday afternoon. The meeting will open at 2:30.

Writers Meet At Peck Home

An exceptionally interesting and well attended meeting of the Modern Writers' section of the Salem Arts League was held last night at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Morton E. Peck on Court street with Miss Marie Roberts as assisting hostess.

The program hour was opened by Mrs. Ruth Fargo who read a delightful short story, a bit of a character sketch, "Think as You Like," which appeared in the Christmas number of the Oregon magazine. Mrs. Clara Virginia Barton then gave three little poems, "Intolerant," "Cape Perpetua" and "Pirate Ship in the Sky" the last a cloud poem for children.

A vivid and interesting account of a visit to Prof. Horner's class in history at Oregon Agricultural college was read by Charles J. Lisle. Mr. Lisle calls his sketch "History with a Soul" and it will be printed in the next issue of the Oregon magazine.

Professor Peck read before the group last night the second part of a long poem, written in free verse style, in which he recounts the life history of a pioneer family. It is titled "The Book of the Bardens" and verges on tragedy. The first part of the epic was read at a meeting of the writers at Perry Reigelman's home a number of weeks ago.

During the refreshment hour Prof. F. G. Franklin read to the group the poem awarded the National prize of a hundred dollars in the last contest. The free verse and radical style of Eli Siegler's "Hot Afternoons Have Been in Montana," the prize poem, was the subject of interesting comment and criticism by the group last night.

The announcement of the admission to associate membership of little Miss Mary Emma Brunk, new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Brunk, was also made last night.

The rooms of the Peck home were attractive with yellow daffodils. In the dining room a lovely brown bowl was filled with grape hyacinths. Assisting Mrs. Peck were Miss Marie Roberts, Mrs. Gustav Ebsen and Mrs. Cooper.

In the group last night were Mrs. Gertrude Robinson Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mrs. Ruth Fargo, Prof. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Blanche M. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Lisle, Miss Renka Swart, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Clifford, Mrs. F. S. Barton, Mrs. Gustav Ebsen and the hosts, Miss Marie Roberts and Prof. and Mrs. Morton E. Peck.

Owing to the severe illness of Mrs. T. B. Kay, one of their members, the Thursday afternoon club will not meet at Mrs. C. P. Bieh's home tomorrow as was previously announced. The next meeting will be held in March.

The members of the Grand Army of the Republic, Daughters of Veterans, and all other patriotic organizations will be the guests of the Women's Relief Corps at a Washington and Lincoln birthday program in McCornack hall on Saturday afternoon beginning at three o'clock.

Mrs. Steeves Entertains At Luncheon

Mrs. B. L. Steeves was hostess yesterday at a charming one o'clock luncheon in her home. Yellow daffodils formed the keynote of the decorative scheme in the dining room and the same color was used in all the appointments. In the living room pink cyclamen and pussy willows were attractively combined. Following the luncheon the guests spent the afternoon in sewing and informal conversation.

The guests were Mrs. J. T. Hunt, Mrs. J. L. Brady, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Miss Frances M. Richards, Mrs. F. A. Legge, Mrs. L. L. Patterson, Mrs. W. C. Young, Mrs. Almira Hale, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Gertrude J. M. Page, Mrs. Homer Goulet and Mrs. Elmo S. White.

Mrs. Steeves is planning a number of affairs of a similar nature.

An "old folks" party was held in Derby hall last night when members of the Tillikum club met for their monthly dance. Nearly forty couples appeared on the floor attired in the styles in vogue fifty years ago. An interesting feature also was the dancing of the minuet, the square dance and the polka.

The women of the First Congregational church will meet at the church parlors on Friday for a "labor of love." They will spend the day in sewing for Mrs. Kanfer.

Mrs. Addie Lynch who formerly made her home in Salem, is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. A. N. Hansen. Mrs. Lynch is a department head in a large San Francisco department store.

It is nothing more than folly to expect to get absolute relief from the use of local treatments, such as ointments, salves, etc. Such remedies may afford temporary relief but you want more than relief; you want a remedy which will rid you forever of the torturing disorders and the one remedy which has no equal is S.S.S.

S.S.S. stops boils and keeps them from coming. S.S.S. builds blood-power! That is what makes fighting blood. Fighting blood destroys impurities. It fights boils. It fights skin eruptions—pimples, blackheads, eczema! It always wins! S.S.S. has been known since 1828 as one of the greatest blood builders, blood cleansers and system strengtheners ever produced.
