

2 CENTS RISE IN BUTTER AND EGG MARKET

Portland, Feb. 18.—Butter is two cents higher today with local cream prices quoted 47 cents, print basis. Bids for butterfat were boosted two cents. Large butter makers are now quoting a buying price of 47 cents a pound, delivered Portland.

The advance here was forced by the action of Puget Sound interests who put their market up a cent a week ago followed by another cent a week ago. The local market has been showing a good healthy tone for the past two weeks with the make about sufficient for requirements. Portland buttermakers were content with a good active market but were compelled to go up to protect competitive cream territory.

Storage stocks have gradually moved out at current levels and it is expected that the high surplus over a year ago will be absorbed without any serious effect on values.

On the dairy exchange the market was firm with standard cubes up a half cent higher at 44 cents, placing extra cubes at 45 cents on the same level. Case firsts advanced a cent to 29 cents. Other grades were unchanged.

Egg prices ranged from a half to two cents higher today with extras and firsts placed 1 cent higher at 31 and 30 cents respectively; pullets advanced two cents to 29 cents and current receipts were bid a half higher at 25¢.

Choice light calves are now firm by established at the 17 cent level in the local country dressed neat market. Receipts are light and fancy stuff is in demand. Ordinary good calves are selling around 16 to 16½ cents; hog receipts are also moderate but few of the butchers will pay over 15½ cents for choice light pork.

Poultry receipts are only moderate but apparently sufficient for all requirements at the present time. Demand is barely normal and prices generally unchanged. Demand is good for fancy dressed turkeys with few coming.

LOU TELLEGEN WEDDED SECRETLY YEAR AGO

Hollywood, Cal., Feb. 18.—Hollywood of Hollywood's romances today were waiting for Lou Tellegen, actor of the stage and screen, to come forward and give his own version of his marriage to Isabel Craven Dilworth, known to the stage as Nina Romano, in a little New Jersey town more than a year ago.

Nearly every one concerned with the wedding, saw only the bride and groom themselves, had ver-

RAILROADS TO SERVE SILVERTON PRUNES

Silverton, Feb. 18.—(Special)—John C. Goplerud, president of the Silverton Food Products company, returned Monday night from a three weeks' trip to the Northwest states. Mr. Goplerud reports that the coast fruit is but poorly represented in the Dakotas and in Minnesota. The outlook for a good coast market in those states seems to be promising, according to Mr. Goplerud.

Mr. Goplerud also interviewed Northern Pacific and Great Northern railway company officials in regard to using Silverton canned fruits on their lines, especially during the Oregon food months. The suggestion was well received, says Mr. Goplerud, "and there is little doubt but that Silverton prunes will be served on these two lines during the next two months."

RUSSIAN WHEAT KILLED BY FREEZE FORCES IMPORTS

Washington, Feb. 18.—Department of Agriculture officials today confirmed press dispatches to the effect that Russia is suffering from a shortage of bread grains, and will have to import considerable quantities of wheat. Large purchases of wheat and flour on Russian account in both England and the United States have already been reported.

"Most of the proposed imports of from 5,000,000 to 9,000,000 bushels of wheat with a maximum of 12,000,000 bushels, will be in the form of flour," the department said.

In order to purchase this wheat and to handle it with such need of supplies of cotton, textiles, machinery, rubber and other commodities, Russia must build up a trade balance by exports of other commodities. In the first six months of 1924, Soviet Russia had a large favorable balance of trade, but in this balance, bread grains constituted the largest item. It seems probable therefore that during 1925 the soviet government will make a great effort to increase exports of other products such as butter and eggs, forest products, furs, bristles, petroleum products and minerals.

"Reports of prospects for grain crops in Russia in 1925 are conflicting. The International Institute of Agriculture reports that Russian fall seedings are not as good as last year. In the Ukraine, according to the institute, wheat seedings are larger than last year, but eye seedings are smaller.

"Weather conditions in Russia have not been generally favorable for winter cereals, and it is probable that winter killing will be heavy. In the important winter wheat areas of the southwest, however, weather conditions were more favorable than elsewhere.

"The soviet government is urging the peasants to increase spring seedings in order to make good the losses from winter killing, and it is reported that some of the cotton grain purchases will be distributed to the peasants for seed."

LOCAL REALTORS OPPOSE PROPOSED LEGISLATION

The Marion-Polk County Realtors' association yesterday announced that it had officially gone on record in opposition to house bill 138, said to be sponsored by the Portland realty board and also said to be similar to bills being presented for adoption in 25 states of the union.

The local realtors give as the main reason for their opposition the fact that it would discriminate against new realtors who might care to start out in business. It would require them to pass an examination which most of the experienced realtors of the city admit they could not pass, and which they declare is not necessary to a knowledge of the realty business, but simply calculated to cut down the number of realtors practicing in the state.

Those making the announcement declare that the action was unanimous.

The report that it had taken place, but the more prosaic problem of the whereabouts of Mr. and Mrs. Tellegen remained early today an unsolved mystery.

ALL WOMEN WHO WORK

Whether in the home, store, shop, mill or office, they alone know how often they are really unfit for work. It may be a headache, backache, pain in the side, nervous depression, cramps or those dreadful dragging down pains, all of which symptoms have their origin in some feminine ailment that is making life a burden. In almost every such case these ailments will yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For a great many years this simple root and herb remedy has been restoring women to health and strength and it will pay every suffering woman to try it.—Adv.

SALEMANSHIP OF BROCCOLI BEGINS

Roseburg, Feb. 18.—A few crates of early broccoli have been received on the local market, and shipments will probably be made within a few days. This is the extreme early crop, as the harvest does not start until about first of March. Warm weather, however, is causing an early maturity in many places, and express shipments will doubtless be frequent with carload lot movements start in March.

Dealers maintain that it is still impossible to make an accurate estimate of the amount to be shipped. The freezing weather of December killed more than half the crop, and how seriously it affected the plants which survived cannot be ascertained. Distributors are often the vegetable will not stand shipment after having once been frozen. From all appearances the remaining heads are to be of good quality. Estimated on the quantity to be shipped range all the way from 40 to 200 carloads, but it is believed doubtful by those in close touch with the situation if there are more than 100 carloads suitable for shipment this season.

RELIEVE SICKNESS THROUGH GLANDS SAYS SCIENTIST

Dr. Serge Voronoff, an international authority on glands, says: "The brain, the nerves, the muscles, as well as the liver, the kidneys and all other organs would be incapable of playing any useful part without the aid of glands. The functioning of our organs is no more than the result of the activity of our glands, and when the bodily functioning is disturbed, the cause, in most cases should be sought, not in the condition of the organ itself but in the condition of the gland which controls it."

Glandogen, the new scientific gland tonic, prepared in tablet form provides a simple method of taking glandular treatment. Glandogen, for men and women, is obtainable at J. C. Perry drug store.—Adv.

A Tough Situation

"My wife and four children were dependent on me for their living. My stomach and liver trouble of five years had made me dependent, as no medicine seemed to help me, and I was gradually wasting away. It was a tough situation. My cousin in Columbus wrote me about having taken Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and advised me to try it. I am now feeling better than for fifteen years. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the carteral mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

CANNED GOODS MOVING RAPIDLY; OUTLOOK GOOD

Canned goods are moving into consumption rapidly in the east, according to a report in the New York Journal of Commerce, and other factor to add to all of the indications pointing to a good year coming up for both canner and producer on the coast. In commenting on the canned goods situation in New York the journal says:

The two most favorable factors in the canned food situation are the satisfactory consumer movement through retail stores and the lack of large surplus stocks to carry over into the new pack season. There is no doubt but what canned foods are in popular demand, which was increased during January by unfavorable weather. Housewives were unable to get out to the stores as readily as in other seasons and the flow of green fruits and produce was interrupted at the sources and in city markets like New York where snow blocked streets more or less tied up traffic. Chain stores are now featuring canned foods of all sorts and are making attractive prices on their specialties. They are constant buyers for replacement which makes a healthy situation as a feeling of confidence is reflected all along the line of distribution. There is a very good movement in the wholesale market and it is expanding, but not along lines not in such large volume that a reaction is feared. Distributors are buying what they need and they are buying it right so that they can meet competition. Because stocks of spot goods are regarded as moderate or light, according to the commodity, and canners have firm ideas as to futures, there is, however, no tendency to buy up spot goods along speculative lines and in large blocks. Traders are determined not to convert a favorable situation into a reaction by overplaying the market in either spots or futures. The largest and most reliable canners appreciate the need of a living return to the grower, but they also realize that too high an initial cost for raw material can be detrimental to the whole industry by narrowing consuming channels.

RELIEVE SICKNESS THROUGH GLANDS SAYS SCIENTIST

Dr. Serge Voronoff, an international authority on glands, says: "The brain, the nerves, the muscles, as well as the liver, the kidneys and all other organs would be incapable of playing any useful part without the aid of glands. The functioning of our organs is no more than the result of the activity of our glands, and when the bodily functioning is disturbed, the cause, in most cases should be sought, not in the condition of the organ itself but in the condition of the gland which controls it."

Glandogen, the new scientific gland tonic, prepared in tablet form provides a simple method of taking glandular treatment. Glandogen, for men and women, is obtainable at J. C. Perry drug store.—Adv.

A Tough Situation

"My wife and four children were dependent on me for their living. My stomach and liver trouble of five years had made me dependent, as no medicine seemed to help me, and I was gradually wasting away. It was a tough situation. My cousin in Columbus wrote me about having taken Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and advised me to try it. I am now feeling better than for fifteen years. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the carteral mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

ALL WOMEN WHO WORK

Whether in the home, store, shop, mill or office, they alone know how often they are really unfit for work. It may be a headache, backache, pain in the side, nervous depression, cramps or those dreadful dragging down pains, all of which symptoms have their origin in some feminine ailment that is making life a burden. In almost every such case these ailments will yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For a great many years this simple root and herb remedy has been restoring women to health and strength and it will pay every suffering woman to try it.—Adv.

SALEMANSHIP OF BROCCOLI BEGINS

Roseburg, Feb. 18.—A few crates of early broccoli have been received on the local market, and shipments will probably be made within a few days. This is the extreme early crop, as the harvest does not start until about first of March. Warm weather, however, is causing an early maturity in many places, and express shipments will doubtless be frequent with carload lot movements start in March.

Dealers maintain that it is still impossible to make an accurate estimate of the amount to be shipped. The freezing weather of December killed more than half the crop, and how seriously it affected the plants which survived cannot be ascertained. Distributors are often the vegetable will not stand shipment after having once been frozen. From all appearances the remaining heads are to be of good quality. Estimated on the quantity to be shipped range all the way from 40 to 200 carloads, but it is believed doubtful by those in close touch with the situation if there are more than 100 carloads suitable for shipment this season.
