WOODBURN NEWS

Woodburn, Or., Feb. 20.—A delightful evening for the Girl Reserve and their invited guests was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mosberger when their daughter, Naomi, entertained about 40 high school young people. The hall and sitting rooms were gay with Valentine motifs—heart and cupid. An automobile romance, Valentine making and verifying gave entertainment for the early part of the evening, and later the guests enjoyed rock, though some preferred cross-word puzzles. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Mosberger, assisted by Mrs. L. S. Mochel and Miss Laura Ruggles, the Girl Reserve advisors.

Basketball games are more frequent as the end of the season nears. On Friday night, February 12, the Woodburn high school girls lost to the Grays high school team by one basket, the score being 14 to 16, while the Woodburn boys won from the rival team by a much larger margin, 22 to 15. Tuesday evening, February 17, another double header was played in the high school gymnasium with the St. Paul teams, Woodburn winning both the boys' score reading 22 to 8 and the girls' score 44 to 9. A return game with Parrish junior high school of Salem will be played in Salem next Monday evening. The final game of the season on the home floor will be played on Friday, February 27, when Grasmere high school will meet the blue and white.

Nine high school young people and three faculty advisers will be guests at the Oregon Agricultural college at the educational week end program—February 20 to 22—as accredited representatives of Woodburn high school. Several other interested seniors will attend as personal guests of Woodburn alumni who are now students at the college. Those representing the high school are: Harold Mosberger, Samuel Cairnes, Joseph Iverson, Harold McKenzie, Wayne Pomeroy, Margaret Wehrum, Margaret Knapp, Audrey Stewart, Camilla Gent and faculty members, M. F. Schreiber, Mrs. Esther Baird and Miss Margaret Chapman. Superintendent F. E. Fagan will also attend on Saturday.

County Hi-Y Secretary Kimber met with the local Hi-Y boys Wednesday, February 17.

Coach D. H. Harey of the high school has been unable to attend.

WOMAN NEARLY INSANE

"I was nervous, could not sleep, melancholy and nearly insane at times," writes Mrs. T. A. Saunders of 711 E. Depot St., Knoxville, Tenn. "After being in this condition nearly three years I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and took it. It made me a well woman. I gained 22 lbs. in weight and haven't had a bit of trouble since. I hope it will do as much for other women as it has for me." Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one dependable remedy for female ills.—Adv.

his classes and work with his teams the past few days. Mrs. Harey has been taking his classes.

The Woodburn Teachers association is planning an art exhibit and the cooking clubs of the grade school to take place early in March at the West Side school building. The proceeds from the exhibit will be devoted to the purchase of good pictures for the various school rooms.

The annual Martha Washington tea promises to be an unusually brilliant affair, Friday evening, February 20. It will be served in the Methodist Episcopal church dining room.

Miss Laura Ruggles, history and civics instructor at the high school, took her two civics classes to visit the state legislature at Salem, Thursday. They left Woodburn by automobile at 9 a. m., returning at 3:30 so that out-of-town students could get their buses or cars for home. The classes have been supplied with calendars and bills from both houses of the legislature and have been carefully studying and fitting them. For this kindness they are indebted to Representative F. W. Settlemier, Senator Sam Brown and Chief Clerk John Hunt.

DIVIDED SESSION IS APPROVED BY HOUSE

The house yesterday afternoon adopted joint resolution No. 18, calling for a divided session of the legislature. Two twenty-day sessions with a 20-day interim between them would be authorized if the resolution is adopted by the senate and passed by the people as a constitutional amendment.

Famous Austrian Surgeon Restored by Gland Treatment

Dr. Lorenz, famous Austrian surgeon, according to a recent press dispatch, has submitted himself to glandular treatment. This treatment, according to the doctor's own statement, has restored him to the health and vigor of his earlier days, and he is highly enthusiastic about this new branch of medical science. Thousands of men and women who are lacking in health and energy, are taking advantage of science's most recent discovery and are using Glandogen, a highly concentrated glandular tonic, in convenient tablet form, prepared from the glands of healthy young animals. Glandogen has had remarkable success in the treatment of run-down, nervous individuals. Glandogen is obtainable at J. C. Perry drug store.—Adv.

Silverton friends and relatives have received word of the birth of a baby daughter to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Riches of Sacramento, Cal. Mr. Riches was at one time in the employment of the Southern Pacific company at Silverton and Mrs. Riches will be remembered best as Miss Hattie Dahl.

Mrs. S. Lindseth was the inspiration of a happy surprise Thursday afternoon when the members of St. John's Ladies Aid society met for their regular session at the church parlors and converted the affair into a party honoring Mrs. Lindseth. The honor guest was the recipient of a purse. Members of the society brought lunch which was served during the afternoon. Mrs. Lindseth is the wife of Rev. S. Lindseth, pastor of St. John's church.
