CHURCHES

NAZARENE—The special evangelistic services at the Nazarene church, 19th and Marion streets, have continued with good interest for two weeks. Much has been done to encourage the church and elevate the community spiritually. Mrs. De Lance Wallace, Seattle evangelist has preached with unity and power. Many amens were heard in the congregations and frequently people were seen wiping their eyes as the pathetic messages touched their hearts. This evangelistic campaign will close Sunday night. There will be three services on Sunday. 11 a. m. the evangelist will preach. 3 p. m. divine healing meeting. 7:30 preaching by the evangelist. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. The evangelist will hold a children's service during the Sunday school hour, all parents are entitled to this service with their children. Young people's meeting 6:30 p. m. C. H. Hoptins, pastor.

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION—Meetings are held every Sunday in Derby building, corner Court and High streets. Bible study 10 to 12 a. m. Ezekiel's Temple study 3 p. m. At 8 p. m. there will be a public discourse by S. H. Toutjiarr of Brooklyn, N. Y. The topic of his lecture will be "Jesus Rebuilding Palestine—the Reason." He will show that the organization of the Jews in Palestine confirms, chronologically, the significance of present-day events and that this remarkable movement among the Jews makes present world distress as earth's first cataclysm. He will cite the prophecies of the Bible to show that the world war would start 2520 years after 606 B. C. and that God's promise of liberty, happiness and everlasting life on earth center around the Jews. He will also explain why Palestine is not afflicted with the prevalent world unrest and give the significance of the Jewish policy of no army nor navy. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested to attend. Seats free. No collection.

CHURCH OF GOD—1346 North Church street. J. J. Gillespie, pastor. The hour for Sunday school is 10 o'clock. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 the subject will be "The Two Wine Presses" after which the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered, following which the sick will be prayer for. With reference to the night services beginning Sunday: We are taking up the study of prophecy each night using as a basis "A Thousand Prophetic Mysteries in Process of Fulfillment." Each night we will take up a few of these prophetic mysteries, so bring your note books and pencils. It is amazing how many of these prophecies are already fulfilled and being fulfilled before our very eyes, thus proving to us that the return of our Lord and Savious is right at our very doors. These lectures are being illustrated by lantern slides using a system of charts, maps and diagrams and pictures, thus visualizing the whole Bible to you from Genesis to Revelation so that Christ may be seen everywhere revealed in the word. Although these messages are termed "lectures" yet they are full of evangelistic spirit and power and appeal. The main purpose of all true ministry is to meet humanity's need, spirit, soul and body. If you desire to be blest and edified that you may be a blessing come and bring someone with you. God is pouring out His spirit upon us filling hungry souls and healing bodies. The people of Salem should recognize and take advantage of this rare opportunity that God has sent into their midst.
