Oriental Bridge Tea Is Lovely

Lovely Chinese umbrellas, Chinese screens and Chinese lilies used in profusion, formed a lovely background for the Oriental bridge tea at which Mrs. Arthur Moore entertained in her home on Friday afternoon. The table covers and tally cards used by the hostess came directly from Honolulu, the gifts of her daughter Helen, and chopsticks and other accessories of Oriental origin were used during the tea hour.

Assisting Mrs. Moore were Mrs. Irwin Lewis, Mrs. H. S. Pollock, and Mrs. J. W. Lewis. In addition to the three tables of bridge players a number of guests came in at tea time. High bridge scores were won by Mrs. W. A. Mullen and Mrs. J. H. Pollock.

Included in the guest list were Mrs. F. E. Shafter, Mrs. J. H. Pollock, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. W. A. Mullen, Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Mrs. H. S. Pollock, Mrs. J. B. Craig, Mrs. A. T. Wain, Mrs. G. W. Laffar, Mrs. W. H. Buchner, Mrs. J. B. Hoeford, Mrs. Earl A. Paulson, Mrs. A. N. Dalrymple, Mrs. S. M. Endicott, Mrs. Harry J. Scott, Mrs. C. E. Purvine, Mrs. John Mauer, Mrs. H. G. Bell and Mrs. Irwin A. Lewis.

The Y. P. S. of St. Paul's church will give a benefit play on Tuesday evening at the parish house for the building fund. Two plays will be given during the evening followed by dancing. Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger is directing the productions.

The Auxiliary of St. Paul's church was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. H. Moore on the Portland road Friday afternoon. Plans were made to fill a number of missionary boxes during the Lenten season.

Mrs. Moore was assisted by Mrs. Edward Stewart and Mrs. Winlock.

Mrs. N. C. Kafoury will entertain the auxiliary at their next meeting.

The primary and junior departments of St. Paul's church school will be entertained after the school hours tomorrow, Shrove Tuesday, afternoon at a party at the parish house.

Mrs. Richard Erickson entertained the West Side circle of the Jason Lee church at a social afternoon in her home on Friday. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Effie Dunlap and Mrs. Blake. Decorations suggestive of the Washington anniversary were carried out in all the appointments and during the afternoon a delightful patriotic program was given. "Miss Columbia" and "Uncle Sam" received the guests at the door. More than forty were present.

American flags and tri-colors draped in glorious red, white and blue harmony, from the balcony, fluttered and waved above the vast armory ballroom Saturday evening, when the officers and ladies of the Oregon national guard entertained at a formal reception and ball in honor of Brigadier General and Mrs. George A. White, on the occasion of their 20th wedding anniversary.

The decorations were beautifully achieved on a stupendous scale by the crossing of colored flags and streamers across the vast ceiling. Flowers were everywhere, tall palms and trailing greens. Lights were harmonized to blend with the patriotic decoration.

A 10 piece military band played for the dancing.

The reception started at 9 o'clock, the dancing followed during the evening.

Military and navy circles, representatives from civic, social and political spheres were present. Entertainment out of town officers and Portland's executive staff were in attendance. From Camp Lewis were many officers and their wives, and from Vancouver barracks was a large group of Mother! Be sure you get Pepsodent for your child's teeth

Do you want your child to have prettier teeth now, and better protection from tooth troubles in later life? Mail the coupon then for a 10-day tube of Pepsodent, free. See what the world's leading dentists urge mothers to use as modern science's latest attainment in tooth care.

You will notice a film on your child's teeth. That's a frequent danger sign — an invitation for tooth troubles. The same stubborn film that you can feel by running your tongue across your own teeth. You must combat it. Ordinary dentifrices don't fight it successfully. Harsh, gritty substances are injurious to enamel.

Film is the greatest enemy of tooth health. It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. Germs breed in it. The acid that leads to early decay forms. Old type methods failed to combat it. Men of science engaged themselves in discovering an effective combatant.

Now in Pepsodent, two new combatants are embodied—combatants approved by highest dental authority. It curdles the film, then gently removes it. It keeps the teeth whiter, cleaner, more sparkling. It is the modern scientific method for better tooth protection. Insist upon it. Get a tube today. Mail the coupon.
