Apollo Club In Concert Tomorrow

Outstanding among the musical events of the month is the Apollo club's first concert of the season which will be given in the armory tomorrow evening. Much pleasure is being anticipated in the opportunity of hearing the club's guest artist, Miss Mabel Riegelman, prima donna soprano, and her accompanist Frank Moss, who is also a pianist and composer of note.

Miss Riegelman is said to be grand opera's tiniest prima donna with a voice out of proportion to her size. In other words, she is small of stature and big of voice. She sang with the Chicago Grand Opera company for four seasons and with the Boston Opera company for two seasons in concert and in opera. She has appeared in practically all of the large cities of the United States and is engaged as an acting artist for the Portland Apollo club concert in Portland this evening.

An unusually attractive program of male chorus numbers has been prepared by the club under the direction of Dr. John R. Sites, and it is believed that the concert as a whole will measure up with the customary Apollo club standard of excellence.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Deebach have returned from a ten day trip to San Francisco.

Following the MacDowell club concert on Friday evening at which Madame Frida Stjerna will be soloist, Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts will be hosts at a reception in their studio honoring Madame Stjerna who is a personal friend of theirs. Prominent musicians of Salem will be guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Savage entertained as their dinner guests on Sunday Mrs. Martha Byrd, and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Savage of Monmouth. Daffodils and fern were used both as a centerpiece on the dining table and about the living rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ellis have returned from a week's motor trip to southern Oregon. They visited in Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland.

Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Sr. returned Sunday from Portland where she was the guest for several days of her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Nadon. Accompanying her was her daughter, Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Jr., who was the house guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Swartz.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Barr and Karl Henry, Raymond and Josephine Barr, motored to Portland on Saturday to see May Robson who appeared at the Helix.

Miss Josephine Jaskoski will hostess at a charming o'clock luncheon yesterday with members of the Phoenix club as her guests. Daffodils and maiden hair fern centered the table with covers laid for Miss Pauline March, Miss Hazel George, Miss Wilma Glone, Miss Gladys Albia, Miss Wanda Jean Heberle, Miss Dorothy Bell, Miss Florence Busch, Miss Rosalie Jones, Miss Fay Wola, Miss Margaret Tucker and the hostess, Miss Josephine Jaskoski.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Savage entertained as their guest on Saturday their son, Charles H. Savage, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles were hosts at a charming dinner on Sunday. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Loren Geer of Portland, and their daughter, Frances Geer; Rev. and Mrs. Carl Miller and Bertram, Raymond and Esther Miller.

Mrs. John Carlin of Medford, is spending the week in Salem with her husband, Representative Carlin.

The first dance in the new parish hall on the corner of Winter and Chemeketa streets will be given this evening when members of the Vincentian club will be hosts at their last dance of the pre-Lenten season.

The regular meeting of Barbara Fritchie (ent. No. 2, Daughters of Veterans, will be held in the armory tomorrow evening.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop entertained at her home yesterday with the week end Mrs. W. B. McDonald of Portland.

Colonial Tea Is Attractive

Very delightful and perfect in all the appointments was the colonial tea at which Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, entertained yesterday in the home of Mrs. U. C. Shipley. Lovely colonial costumes were worn by those assisting and daffodils and flags were attractively combined about the living room.

A large picture of George Washington, draped in a flag, occupied a prominent place in the living room. Prominently displayed also was a large picture of Sulgrave Manor, the English ancestral home of the Washington family.

Little Miss Annabelle Hawley and Miss Jane Harbison, attired as tiny colonial maids, greeted the guests at the door and ushered them to the living room. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. U. C. Shipley, Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Miss Lillian Applegate, Mrs. Elmo White and Miss Ruth Ruffen.

In the dining room the tea table was lovely with yellow daffodils and yellow candles in crystal holders. Presiding during the afternoon were Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. C. C. Clark, Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson and Mrs. James Helzel all of whom were charmingly gowned in the mode of the late eighteenth century. Assisting in the serving were the members of the committee in charge of the affair—Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. J. W. Harbison and Mrs. Harry Styles.

During the afternoon a delightful program was given consisting of readings by Mrs. T. E. McCroskey, vocal numbers by Mrs. Phil Newmyer and two numbers by the Eastern Star quartet. Members of the quartet are Miss Jessie Niles, Mrs. W. P. Babcock, Mrs. George Allen and Miss Eva Perce.

Nearly a hundred prominent matrons called during the afternoon.

The Jason Lee W. H. M. S. will meet at the paragon tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 with Mrs. Acheson as hostess.

Two plays will be given at the parish house of St. Paul's church tonight by members of the Y. P. S. for the benefit of the building fund. This will mark the last public festival of the society until the end of the Lenten season.

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Kaye was the scene of a delightful gathering on Saturday when Mr. and Mrs. Kaye entertained a large group of their friends at an evening of games and dancing. Following a number of games in which the entire group participated dancing was enjoyed during the remainder of the evening with a number of "old fashioned" dances featured. Music was furnished by a three piece orchestra including piano, violin and guitar.

Mrs. Kaye was assisted in serving a buffet supper by Mrs. T. H. Baker and Mrs. George Thompson.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Merman, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kichtlinger, Mr. and Mrs. L. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. E. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Dencer, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dencer, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Rosenbaum, Mrs. T. H. Baker, Billy and Claudia Townsend, Lucille and Merrill Robinson, Oscar Rosenbaum, A. W. Mize, Harriet, Helen, Udoora and Erma Mize, Leonard Derby and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Kaye.

Foreign Students Guests

The Cosmopolitan club of Willamette university, an organization of foreign born students, was entertained Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin and Prof. and Mrs. S. B. Laughlin at the Franklin home. During the program hour, Dwight Findley, president of the club, presided, and the various members of the club spoke informally and gave musical numbers for the pleasure of the group.

The Chinese students, Cedric E. Chang, Le Chum Ma and Mr. Wang, gave an account of their landing in San Francisco and their difficulties in meeting the requirements of the immigration officials. They also told of their home life and their studies in China. Later Mr. Chang read some of his original poems.

Jacob Kroeckar, a Russian, gave a vivid description of his life in Ukraine and his reasons for coming to America.

Five Filipinos were present Saturday evening. Benito Mayo, Ponciano Tuaino, Sofia Zarsadiaz, Mr. Gonzalez and Felix Ramos, and in turn each gave lucid and clear descriptions of life in the islands and earliest impressions of the states.

Delightful musical numbers were given by Sofia Zarsadiaz and Ponciano Tuaino who played the mandolin and guitar. Both are remarkably splendid musicians and play a number of instruments well.

American born students in the group were Lloyd Wheelwright, Stanley Emmel and Dwight Findley.

The Woman's Benefit association of the Macabees will sponsor a benefit card party in the W. O. W. hall tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Edna L. Dally of Dallas, was the week end guest of Mrs. W. F. Fargo. Mrs. Dally is a member of the Oregon Writers' League and recent issues of the Albany Democrat have contained a number of her poems.

Miss Rosella Bunch of Portland, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Minard and her sister, Miss Audred Bunch.

At the request of Principal E. A. Miller the story telling section of the Salem Arts league gave the George Washington program at the Grant school yesterday. After a short patriotic talk by Rev. Martin Feroseth, Mrs. W. F. Fargo who was in charge of the program, gave a short talk. Miss Edwards, of the public library staff, gave several delightful Washington's birthday stories which were followed by Mrs. Martin Feroseth's version of "The Enchanted Necklace." Perry Reigleman entertained the assembly with one of his negro mammy lullaby poems and a short humorous poem. The program closed with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner by the children.

MacDowell Concert to Be Friday

The fourth MacDowell club concert of the season will be given in the Grand theater on Friday evening by the club chorus of thirty five voices, assisted by Madame Stjerna, soprano.

Under the direction of Professor W. H. Boyer the MacDowell chorus has become one of Salem's leading musical groups and the opportunity to hear the group is being eagerly welcomed by Salem music lovers.

Madame Stjerna has been widely praised for her concert work in Boston, New York and European capitals. Her voice is a mezzo-soprano of remarkable mellowness and with a wide range. In her repertoire are included Swedish, Norwegian, Danish, French, German and Italian songs in the original, Russian translations and the works of English and American composers. An attractive personality is said to be one of Madame Stjerna's greatest charms.

Mrs. William Marshall entertained members of the M. P. club at an interesting afternoon of bridge in her home yesterday. Red carnations and fern were attractively arranged about the rooms and on the tea table in the dining room.

Special guests of Mrs. Marshall were Mrs. C. D. Thomas, Mrs. D. A. Elkins, Mrs. E. A. Pruitt and Mrs. T. M. Kincaid of Portland. Club members present were Mrs. Ira Darby, Mrs. I. Follis, Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. Ernest Peterson, Mrs. Ed Pratt, Mrs. Lou Grote, Mrs. Al H. Steiner and the hostess, Mrs. Marshall.

High honors among the guests were won by Mrs. Kincaid. Consolation award went to Mrs. Thomas. Mrs. Follis won highest score among the members and low went to Mrs. Grote.

Mrs. Ernest Peterson will entertain the club at their next meeting.

Sour stomach, coated tongue, foul breath, pimples, headaches, constipation are nature's alarm signals—remove the cause, eliminate the poison from the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels—HOLLIS-TER'S ROCKY MOUNTAIN TEA does it elicit and quick. Good for the whole family. J. C. Perry drug store.—Adv.

Madame Stjerna has been widely praised for her concert work in Boston, New York and European capitals. Her voice is a mezzo-soprano of remarkable mellowness and with a wide range. In her repertoire are included Swedish, Norwegian, Danish, French, German and Italian songs in the original, Russian translations and the works of English and American composers. An attractive personality is said to be one of Madame Stjerna's greatest charms.

Mrs. William Marshall entertained members of the M. P. club at an interesting afternoon of bridge in her home yesterday. Red carnations and fern were attractively arranged about the rooms and on the tea table in the dining room.

Special guests of Mrs. Marshall were Mrs. C. D. Thomas, Mrs. D. A. Elkins, Mrs. E. A. Pruitt and Mrs. T. M. Kincaid of Portland. Club members present were Mrs. Ira Darby, Mrs. I. Follis, Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. Ernest Peterson, Mrs. Ed Pratt, Mrs. Lou Grote, Mrs. Al H. Steiner and the hostess, Mrs. Marshall.

High honors among the guests were won by Mrs. Kincaid. Consolation award went to Mrs. Thomas. Mrs. Follis won highest score among the members and low went to Mrs. Grote.

Mrs. Ernest Peterson will entertain the club at their next meeting.

Sour stomach, coated tongue, foul breath, pimples, headaches, constipation are nature's alarm signals—remove the cause, eliminate the poison from the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels—HOLLIS-TER'S ROCKY MOUNTAIN TEA does it elicit and quick. Good for the whole family. J. C. Perry drug store.—Adv.

MacDowell Concert to Be Friday

The fourth MacDowell club concert of the season will be given in the Grand theater on Friday evening by the club chorus of thirty five voices, assisted by Madame Stjerna, soprano.

Under the direction of Professor W. H. Boyer the MacDowell chorus has become one of Salem's leading musical groups and the opportunity to hear the group is being eagerly welcomed by Salem music lovers.
