DOROTHY KNAPP

When Howard Chandler Christy, famous New York artist, proclaimed Dorothy Knapp, his favorite model and a New York show girl, the shapeliest girl in the Metropolis, he started something. The first result was that Miss Knapp was selected as prize beauty in the Atlantic City beauty pageant and then, from 1,000 competitors, she won the title of "Venus of America" in New York. The latest is that she is now engaged to marry Fehner Christy, the artist's nephew, who was captivated at first sight of her in his

Apollo Singers Please

"An evening of surprises" expresses briefly the Apollo club concert in the armory last night. The audience did not hear Mabel Reigelman, nor her accompanist, Frank Moss, who were announced as the assisting artists. Shortly before the concert Miss Reigelman was stricken with the flu and the Apollo club officers were confronted with the task of finding an able soloist with less than twenty four hour notice.

That they succeeded in finding a voice and a personality that pleased their audience was apparent last night when Augusta Welker had completed her first number—the quaint and charming "My Mother Bids Me Bid My Hair." Mrs. Welker possesses a soprano of a delightful lyrical quality, a clearness and sweetness that is pleasing always to the most sensitive ear, and Salem music lovers were completely satisfied with the Apollo club's choice. One of the most delightful attributes possessed by Mrs. Welker is her remarkable gift of enunciation. Each word was perfectly intelligible and permitted her listeners to appreciate to the fullest her presentation and interpretation of the quaint melodies which she chose to give. Only in the Pastoral did she attempt anything beyond the light and fanciful and it was in the Irish folk song group and in the "Browlie" song she chose for an encore that Mrs. Welker completely charmed her audience. More than a bit of the pleasure received was due to the accompaniments splendidly played by Maybelle Clement.

For the eighth consecutive season the club chorus appeared in concert last night. Dr. John R. Sites, director, presented his singers in numbers that proved their excellent training. The voices were perfectly blended and from the opening notes of the Welch national song, "March of the Men of Harlech," their first number, to the closing measures of the Bedouin song, their finale, their voices followed each motion of the director's baton in well rounded harmonies. The result was the impression, not of a chorus of voices but a perfect whole.

The club singers are Wm. S. Anderson, Wm. Blumenberg, Dr. L. E. Barrick, H. W. Brose, Ivan Corner, F. D. Deebach, H. B. Glawier, Albert H. Gille, Harry Harms, J. Frank Hughes, Stanley Hitchcock, E. A. Kenney, Fred Kruse, L. H. Lane, E. H. Leach, John Luckner, Jr., Lyman McDonald, C. R. Muston, Wm. McGilchrist, Sr., A. W. Mead, J. J. Moritz, Oscar Olson, John W. Orr, Harold Socolofsky, J. I. Teed, Watson Townsend, J. A. Weber, Harry Wise, Thomas L. Williams, Frank Zinn.

Byron Arnold, accompanist, played with his customary ease and understanding and at the request of Dr. Sites and the plaudits of the audience consented to give two solo numbers—Chopin's Mazurka in B Major, and one of Chopin's Preludes.

An audience that nearly filled the large armory greeted the singers.

E. M. Hammer, Mrs. W. F. Drager, Mrs. J. E. Maddison, Mrs. W. F. Brietzke, Mrs. Daisy McIntyre, Mrs. H. E. Ingrey, Mrs. William Yarnell, Mrs. H. R. White, Mrs. J. H. West, Mrs. F. L. Waters, Mrs. George Vlesko and Mrs. R. W. Simeral.

WAS NOT FIT TO DO HER WORK

Dreadful Condition of Mrs. Fullerton's Health Remedied by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Clearfield, Pa.—"I cannot begin to tell you how much Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me in every way. Before taking it I couldn't stand on my feet without pains running all through my whole body from my waist down, just like threads pulling. I was not fit to do any work. My mother got me to try the Vegetable Compound and I have found great benefit, and I not only recommend it for such troubles, but to build up the whole system. I have used it for most everything that gets wrong with me. When I begin to feel nervous and irritable I don't stop long in getting a bottle of the Vegetable Compound. I haven't got one in the house. It gives a fine appetite and makes a new woman of me. You may use this testimonial in my own town or anywhere else, and I will answer any letters I receive."—Mrs. ROSIE FULLERTON, 525 S. 2nd Street, Clearfield, Pa.

A Boon to Mothers

Mothers everywhere who realize the danger to delicate little stomachs of too much dosing appreciate the value of Vicks in treating croup and children's colds. With Vicks there is nothing to swallow—you just rub it on. The body heat releases the ingredients—Menthol, Camphor, Eucalyptus, Thyme, Turpentine—in the form of vapors which carry the medication directly to the nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. At the same time Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin like a poultice or plaster. Colds go overnight, croup is generally relieved within 15 minutes.

Whether Rheumatic or otherwise—depend upon this new discovery for quickest action.
