Mrs. Rahn Luncheon Hostess

Dainty yellows and soft blues were attractively combined yesterday at the luncheon at the Colonial Dame Tea shop when Mrs. Arthur Rahn was hostess to members of her Monday bridge club and two additional guests. The guests were seated at a long table in the fireplace room and bowls of lovely daffodils were used with tall blue tapers through the center of the table. At each place was found a befrilled "colonial lady," only a few inches high. The "gown" of the tiny dolls were of pastel shades combining with the blue and yellow color plan.

Following the luncheon the guests enjoyed several hours of bridge. Mrs. R. W. Hartman won high honors. Mrs. Hartman and Mrs. David Eyre were special guests.

Members of the club who were guests of Mrs. Rahn were Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. Frank Spear and Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn.

Salem friends of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn will be interested in hearing that they will leave Thursday on a trip to California and Salt Lake City.

The Vecinas Realas sewing club will have an all day session tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Carrie Bunn, 235 Hazel avenue. A hot lunch lunch will be served at noon.

Germaine Schnitzer, concert pianist, who will give the fourth artist concert in the local Civic Music club series, will be in Salem March 30 at the Grand theater. Owing to a slight indisposition recently in Chicago Miss Schnitzer's dates for her western tour have been made later than those formerly announced.

Mrs. L. J. Kerns returned to Portland yesterday after spending the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Buchner.

The formal dinner at the Delta Phi house on Friday evening was a charming colonial affair with the colonial motif carried out in all the decorations and the features. Centering the small tables in the dining room where the sorority members and their ten guests were seated were charming colonial dolls arranged effectively.

Six girls, Miss Esther Bauman, Miss Norma Terrill, Miss Gladys Fleisher, Miss Ruth Wechter, Miss Pauline Miller and Miss Leitha Miller, clad in dainty hoop skirted frocks in pastel shades served the guests.

A delightful feature was the entertainment between courses when singers, dancers and readers entered the room via the door of a stage coach placed in one end of the dining room. Miss Lucile Card served as colonial hostess introducing the entertainers.

Members of the R. T. club, a musical organization including a group of high school boys, entertained at a charming dance in Derby hall on Friday evening. Spring flowers were used in combination with attractive red streamers and pussy-willows. A delightful feature dance was given during the evening.

The guests and the hosts were Miss Caroline Hrubetz, Mrs. Lola Bellinger, Miss Ada Ross, Miss Ethel McGilchrist, Miss Frances Hrubetz, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Miss Velma Simpkins, Miss Pyrei Hill, Miss Virginia Donnell, Miss Dorothy Robinson, Miss Jean Shipp, Miss Caroline Lambirth, Miss Prudence Painter, Miss Alpha Holcomb, Miss Echo DeSart, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Wanda Heberly, Miss Mil-

SIDE PAINED HER TERRIBLY

After Childbirth Women Should Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Restore Normal Conditions

St. Louis, Missouri. — "After my first child was born I was bothered with a pain in my side which became more severe the longer I let it go. It was terrible. I often had to lie down to get any relief. I was in a weak and run-down condition, and my side seemed to be the point for all the pain. I was this way for three months, then I read your little booklet and the testimonials it contained, and started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I could feel relief after the first bottle and I have found it to do all you claim for it. I had to repeat it again after my second child was born. I sure will recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends." — Mrs. N. R. LAYTON, 2728 A University St., St. Louis, Mo.

If you are suffering from any weakness which causes such symptoms as pains in the side and back and nervous feelings, give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial now. Do not continue to feel all run-down and half sick when relief is at hand. Sold by druggists everywhere.
