Arts League To Present Lecturer

The Civic Art section of the Salem Arts League will present Howard Everts Weed, landscape architect, in a lecture entitled, "A More Beautiful Salem," in the next general meeting of the league which will be held in the auditorium of the city library on Tuesday evening, March 10, at eight o'clock.

Mr. Weed shows more than 100 stereopticon views in connection with his talk, and as they appear upon the screen he skips rapidly from subject to subject, as they relate to public parks, railway gardening, modern park cemeteries, children's playgrounds, billboards, city and country homes, children's flower and vegetable gardens and the work of improvement societies. Many of the pictures illustrate landscape conditions "before and after," each view being designed to bring out some instructive and constructive point of the subject in hand.

He will close his lecture with a comparison of his subjects with the needs and problems of this particular community.

Mr. Weed is a lecturer of note, widely travelled and thoroughly conversant with his subject. His press notices all over the country have been most flattering and appreciative. From the Kalamazoo (Mich.) Telegraph comes the following: "Mr. Weed is an eloquent speaker, and his lecture was one of interest and helpfulness from beginning to end. The commercial club and the Civic Improvement League feel very grateful to him for the inspiration and enthusiasm which resulted from his lecture." From Ohio, Texas, Louisiana, Ontario, Tennessee, Oklahoma, the reports are equally favorable.

The Salem Arts League invites all Salem and vicinity to hear this lecture. It is free to the public and everyone will be welcome.
