Spring Dims Brilliancy Of Affairs

The coincident arrival of the first spring days and the first week of the Lenten season have caused Salem matrons to forsake the pleasures of the drawing room for the garden, the open road, and the golf course. The many beautiful gardens surrounding Salem homes are evidence in themselves of a deep interest taken by their owners and many of Salem's busiest society and club women have found time during the past week to superintend personally the planting of bulbs, shrubs and seeds that will transform their gardens into veritable havens of beauty in the spring, summer and autumn months to follow.

Because of the irrestible lure of the outdoors which has been felt strongly during our first spring days, the past week has been unusually barren of social affairs of brilliancy. Among the larger affairs the DeMolay dinner dance at the Grey Belle on Tuesday evening, and the banquet at the Marion on Wednesday given by the business and professional women's club in honor of their national president, Miss Adella Prichard, are most worthy of mention.

A number of prominent bridge luncheon clubs have enjoyed delightful afternoons during the past week. Small congenial groups have met informally for an afternoon of bridge or Mah Jongg in various homes but the week has been conspicuously free of any large formal teas or bridge teas. The only event equaling the elaborateness of preceding affairs were the two teas given on Tuesday in honor of Miss Marion Wyman, former Y. W. secretary, who left for new fields on Wednesday.

With the knowledge that the most disagreeable part of the winter has passed travelers are returning from the southland, the islands, and the Orient, to their homes and friends in Salem. Several have returned this week—others will be coming in the weeks to follow, and each return is followed by a delightful "welcome home" affair.

Mrs. David Eyre entertained at an attractive bridge tea in her home yesterday with Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner and Mrs. Prince Byrd as the special guests.

Club members who were guests of Mrs. Eyre were Mrs. T. G. Smith, Mrs. A. L. Lively, Mrs. G. Day Fry, Jr., Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. Frederick Lampert and Mrs. Henry Meyers.

Mrs. Meyers will be next hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Downing have returned from southern California where they have been spending the past winter months. The majority of their time was spent in Los Angeles and in Hollywood where they were the guests of their son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. George.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dancy have been hosts at two delightful dinner-parties in their home during the past week. On Tuesday evening they entertained at an eight cover dinner. Daffodils and yellow candles were used on the dining table with covers laid for Mrs. Ed Gilliam, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Husey, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Dancy. Mah Jongg was enjoyed during the evening.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. Dancy entertained as their dinner guests Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. John Coughell. During the evening the group also enjoyed several hours of Mah Jongg.

Miss Helen Jordan of Seattle, will arrive tonight to be the house guest for several weeks of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers.

The Etokta club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fisher, 515 Market street. At this time the first lesson in the "Know Your Town" series sent out by the National League of Women Voters, will be studied.

Capital assembly United Artisans held their regular meeting Thursday evening in the McCracken hall, Supreme Master Artisan H. S. Hudson and Deputy Jerry Saylor, from Portland assemblies, visited the lodge. Five candidates were initiated into the order. Next Thursday evening a class of 20 or more will be taken through the work. Thursday afternoon a card party will be held in the parlor of the McCracken hall under the direction of Sister Mary Andressen. All ladies and their friends are invited to attend and spend the afternoon playing cards. A campaign, with the goal as 100 new members within the next few weeks, was organized at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. William Yarnell entertained the Lone Star club in their home last evening at a progressive five hundred party. Mrs. J. Biver won first prize and consolation award went to Mrs. A. B. Seelye.

St. Patrick's day novelties were used in the appointments during the refreshment hour.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Mazze will entertain the club on March 20.

Heiress Will Have to Live Simply

Abby Rockefeller, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and the wealthiest heiress in the world, and her husband-to-be, David M. Milton, young New York lawyer, will not live either at the Rockefeller mansion or with the elder Miltons at their wealthy home at Pocantico Hills, N. Y. Her father has taught her "the value of a dollar" and has announced that the couple will live within the young man's income, in a small apartment with only one servant.

Supper To Follow Club Dance

Society is anticipating with a thrill of pleasure two events which will make Monday of the coming week outstanding among the days of the winter season. The formal dances of the Monday Night Dancing club, given always on the second Monday of each winter month, are always gala affairs but the March dance has an added attractive interest in the large supper party which will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brophy have issued cards to members of the club and some additional guests, nearly a hundred and twenty in all, bidding them to St. Patrick's supper at the Gray Belle following the dance.

There are whispers and reliable rumors of novel decorations and new things in favors. The St. Patrick motif will be carried out in all the details and green and white will be used predominantly. Derby hall will also be decked with novelties suggestive of the great Irish saint.

Mrs. Ed Frick entertained yesterday evening with a charmingly appointed St. Patrick "500" party. The St. Patrick motif was carried out in decorations, large bowls of pussy willows and spring flowers being used about the rooms with attractive effect. High scores at cards were won by Mrs. Frank Jirak and Lewis Misher, consolation awards went to Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Cutler.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Blackmun, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dickenson, Mr. and Mrs. George Alderin, Mr. and Mrs. C. Price, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Peters and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frick.

Mrs. J. A. Bernardi entertained the Marion club at an interesting afternoon of five hundred in her home yesterday. Special guests were Mrs. H. H. Corey, Mrs. Ed Lloyd and Mrs. John L. Sweeney. Oregon grape, pussy willows, green and daffodils were combined attractively about the living room and on the tea table in the dining room. During the tea hour Mrs. Sweeney and Mrs. R. C. ## Mrs. Burt Honored By Chapter

Honoring Mrs. W. B. Burt, who with Mr. Burt will leave for Portland tomorrow to make their home, members of Chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood are entertaining at a handkerchief shower. The affair is being given this afternoon in the home of Mrs. William McElchriet, Sr.

Mrs. Burt, one of the most prominent members of Chapter G, has been the honor guest at a number of charming farewell affairs and the delightful gathering at the McElchriet home today is the culmination of a number of events in which Salem matrons have expressed in a measure their regret at Mrs. Burt's departure.

Assisting Mrs. McElchriet as hostesses today are Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. C. B. McCullough and Mrs. W. W. Moore. Daffodils, epiroea and greenery have been arranged profusely about the living room, and program features were planned.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott and daughter, Miss Lillian Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bering, Mrs. P. Andressen and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Andressen.

The Ecrivres club, with a membership requirement of at least five years of service as a telephone operator, was formed on Thursday evening at the home of Miss Edith McFarland when a group of girls who have earned their "service stars" met with her. The Hayeville community club held its regular meeting last evening and re-elected A. Lengren, president, and E. M. Bailey, vice president. Morris Welch was elected secretary and W. W. Fox, treasurer.

The smooth progress of appointments was abruptly halted when the refreshment committee, that has made that club famous for its excellent suppers, revivified and resigned en masse. No amount of pleading could induce the committee to reconsider. But hope is held that the resignation will yet prevail. A resolution favoring the two hour parking limit in Salem was presented and passed after a lengthy discussion.

The secretary announced that the invitation to the Marion county federation of community clubs had been accepted. The date was set for about the twentieth of April, but the exact date will be announced later.

A short, but excellent program was rendered after the business session. The Morarty band gave two numbers that were heartily enjoyed. Victor Barth's recitation was followed by an address by Prof. J. T. Matthews of Willamette university, who spoke on "Better Homes." Prof. Matthews' dry humor and beautiful presentation of his subject was highly appreciated. Vocal solos by Mr. Kruse of Salem added to the evening.

The women's home missionary society of the Jason Lee Methodist Episcopal church will meet in the church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 with the women of the Leslie church as the special guests. Mrs. Frank Davis, field secretary, will give an address.

Beginning Wednesday and during the two days following the Elson art exhibit, consisting of more than two hundred carbon photographs, photogravures and prints in full colors of the best representations of the masterpieces of art of different countries and different periods, will be opened to the public at the Highland school.

At the opening Wednesday evening the Highland school children will present a program of music and folk dancing. The small girls will wear costumes representing the countries of the various painters and during the evening a number of living pictures will be given. On Thursday evening the Highland parent teacher association will present a program.

A small admission price will be charged, the entire proceeds of which, after deducting the expense of the exhibit, will be used in the purchase of pictures for the school. Tickets are being sold at Patton's and the Commercial book store.

The exhibit was said to be remarkably varied and to contain copies of practically all of the world's masterpieces. It is planned by the authorities to encourage and foster the study of art in the schools as well as the teaching of art appreciation and to raise funds to place pictures on the walls of the various school rooms.

To the Editor:—Please print this piece in the Open Forum so the governor and a few more of his kind and those that do a little hiring of slaves to the governor can read it. Now while you are talking about Brigadier General White quitting his enjoyable puff of smoke that is just the stuff. All the rest of us, especially us poor hard workers, will have to quit if these high salaries don't quit raising. We won't be able to eat more than once a day or week, pretty soon. We can't afford now to eat the proper foods that our stomachs require.

Here we cannot go to church any more for our clothes are too shabby and I have only one pair of shoes and they are nearly gone. I am now four months behind on the payment of my little home. I had a lot of hard luck during the winter, being crippled badly. Then a bad sick spell left me in a mighty bad shape and if I cannot strike work shortly will have to walk out without anything on my back but a worn out shirt and nothing in my stomach. Being a little hard of hearing I cannot handle different work like others can that are able to and don't need work half as bad as I and a few others that I know of.

I simply must have work short-ly of some kind and can give best reference as to honesty and true hard worker.

PIMPLES ITCHED ALL THE TIME

Face Disfigured. Lost Rest. Healed by Cuticura.

"I was troubled with pimples for a long time. They were large, hard and red and some of them watered. The pimples were very annoying as they not only disfigured my face but burned and itched all the time, causing me to scratch. The scratching caused eruptions and I lost my rest at night because of the irritation.

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using four cakes of Cuticura Soap and one and a half boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Mildred Leaven, 1516 Seventh St., Rock Island, Ill., July 14, 1924.
