St. Patrick's Supper is Gala Affair

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brophy were hosts at a supper party at the Gray Belle last night which for brilliance and sheer charm has been equalled only rarely in the history of Salem society. The affair was a St. Patrick's supper following the formal dance of the Monday Night Dancing club in Derby hall and included the entire club and a number of additional guests.

Small tables were arranged in the Gray Belle banquet room for the guests and their hosts numbering in all one hundred and twenty. In the center of each table was placed a lovely bowl of yellow daffodils and crystal holders with green candles. Shamrocks were used in a host of ways and the dainty favors of green each with a tiny perfect daffodil fastened uprightly, added greatly to the attractiveness of the tables. Never were the colors of green and yellow, with the green predominating, more charmingly combined than they were in the St. Patrick's decorations last night.

During the supper hour delightful Irish music was given by the Orioles, the same orchestra which played for the dance preceding the supper. Specially pleasurable were "Mother Machree," "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," "Where the River Shannon Flows," and "Peggy O'Neill."

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Brophy were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Andereon, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Bellinger, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Buelck, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Colony, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Creech, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. ## Miss Rauch Chapter AB President

Miss May Rauch was chosen president of chapter AB of the P. E. O. sisterhood for the coming year when the members met last night in Miss Lena Belle Tartar's studio. Other officers elected were Mrs. W. E. Kirk, vice president; Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, recording secretary; Mrs. Alice Thompson, corresponding secretary; Miss Grace Osborne, chaplain, and Mrs. E. C. Richards, guard.

In addition to the election of officers last night two new members were initiated into the sisterhood by chapter AB. New members are Mrs. Louise Brickell of Chemawa and Dr. Angie McCulloch. The chapter membership now totals nineteen. Mrs. Harry Styles was president during the past year.

Delegates named to attend the state P. E. O. convention in Oregon City in May were Miss May Rauch and Dr. Mary E. Rowland. Alternates are Mrs. Clara Patterson and Mrs. E. C. Richards.

Following the meeting in the studio Miss Tartar was hostess to the group at a delightful supper in the Chinese room of the Gray Belle. A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out on the long table with covers laid for Mrs. Harwood Hall, a special guest and the following chapter members: Mrs. Harry Styles, Miss Grace Osburn, Mrs. L. N. Myers, Miss Dorothea Steueloff, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Louise Brickell, Dr. Angie McCulloch, Mrs. Clara Patterson, Dr. Rowland, Miss May Rauch, Mrs. W. D. Smith, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Alice Thompson and the hostess, Miss Tartar.

Golden Wedding Sunday

More than a hundred friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Schramm called to greet them on Sunday when they were hosts at a reception at the Center street Methodist Episcopal church on the event of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. More than thirty years of their married life have been spent in Salem.

The guests assembled in the main auditorium of the church which was decorated with fir boughs and daffodils and a delightful program was given during the afternoon.

A biographical sketch of the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Schramm was read before the group by Mrs. E. F. Sell covering their pioneer experiences in southern Minnesota both before and after their marriage in Vicksburg, Renville county, Minnesota, on May 8, 1875. They came to Oregon in 1893.

Other program numbers at the reception included a prelude by Mrs. A. A. Schramm, prayer by Mrs. J. W. Beckley, Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. A. A. Schramm, address by Rev. A. F. Hilmer, three vocal solos by A. A. Schramm, greetings by Miss Augusta Schramm and a flute solo by Kenneth Schramm.

Following the program the bride and groom of fifty years ago with the groom's two sisters, Mrs. E. F. Sell of Fairfax, Minnesota, and Miss Augusta Schramm of Decatur, Illinois, received the guests in the church parlors.

At a tea table charmingly decorated with yellow tulips and golden candles both Mr. and Mrs. Schramm dispensed hospitalities. Mr. Schramm cut the huge wedding cake centering the table. Assisting Mrs. A. A. Schramm of Corvallis in the serving was a group of younger girls.

Many lovely gifts were presented to the honor guests and the receipt of a number of congratulatory telegrams during the reception added greatly to the occasion.

Of their six children only two sons, R. A. Schramm of Portland and A. A. Schramm of Corvallis, are still living. They have six grandchildren.

The American Association of University Women, in their campaign for better films, have announced the showing of the fourth film which they are sponsoring directly—"Abraham Lincoln" which will be shown at the Oregon beginning Thursday.

Preceding the regular showing of any film which they are sponsoring the university women attend a pre-viewing with any objectionable parts being removed before the regular showing. The pre-viewing of "Abraham Lincoln" will take place at the Oregon tomorrow morning at ten thirty and delegations from all of the leading women's organizations of Salem will be special guests of the Salem A. A. U. W. and the management at this showing.

Special guests of the management also will be the occupants of the Old People's home and all old soldiers and members of the G. A. R. There will be special music and in every manner the pre-viewing will equal a regular performance.

Those who remember an article in the March, 1924, issue of the American magazine which described the dreams and struggles of the producers of the film, Albert and Ray Rockett, will be specially interested in viewing the results of their three years of efforts to portray the dramatic life of the great Emancipator. It is a film which critics laud as one of the most remarkable of the year.

Live talks, splendid musical numbers, and clever feature dancing made the meeting of the Brush College grange in the school house on Friday evening a very enjoyable one. Mrs. Winnie Braden, secretary of the Dallas chamber of commerce, gave a short address on the Polk county fair. Mr. Harcomb, prominent member of the Dallas chamber, talked to the group on the coming state grange meeting in Dallas. Other speakers were Launer Ralston, member of the state grange committee, and Mr. Reutsch of the O. A. C. faculty.

Mrs. Arthur Utley gave as a vocal solo "A Little Bit of Heaven," and Mrs. William McCall, pianist, a medley of Irish airs. Mrs. Scott also sang. Three pupils of Mrs. Ralph White gave delightful dances—Miss Dorothy Felker in "L'Artiste," a solo dance, and Miss Marjory Webb and Miss Zoe Daniels the Tarantela in duet.

More than two hundred were guests at the 6:30 dinner and the program following. Among the special guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. George Duneford and a group of people who motored over from Dallas for the occasion.

When Riches Lure

The Story of a Wife Who Wanted Only Luxury

GERALDINE WADE wanted luxury. So she married Dudley Graham, whose prospects for quick success seemed excellent. For a time she was happy. But riches failed to come. Then rich Young Ted Keplinger came into her life. Under the insidious influence of his wealth the novelty of her marriage to Dudley quickly died. And when Keplinger offered her the things her heart desired if she would say the word—she said it.

But now from the bitterness of her heart she tells in True Story Magazine for April the story of "The Woman Who Wouldn't be Contented." If every young man and young woman could read the story of misery, shame and poverty she now pours out of her heart, many whose heads are now turned by the luxury and jazz would be saved from certain heartache and ruin. Be sure to read this powerful story in the April issue of True Story Magazine.

Dudley's face was drawn and white. "You can go," he said, "but I am going to keep the baby."

Other Powerful, Heart-Gripping Features in April True Story Magazine

"My Husband Didn't Know"—Ruth was happily married—yet gloried in her power to attract the attentions of other men. "Just little harmless flirtations," she called them. Read for yourself the tragic consequences of this girl's folly. A gripping, dramatic, true-life narrative.

"Heart's Crucifixion"—Virginia and Bruce were not in love. When they went to the dance it was just for a jolly good time. Little they foresaw the sorrow and shame that was to overtake them before morning dawned. Drinks were served—and—But read this bitter confession of a dissillusioned and sorrowing girl.

"Hands Off"—Dave loved his wife and meant no wrong in paying attentions to the fascinating Virginia Hadden. Could he have visioned the black pit of despair he was digging for himself—Don't fail to read Dave's tragic story. It's one you won't forget.

Other Fascinating True Stories In This Issue Are:

"Fine Feathers" "The Miracle of Love" "Rescued From the Brink" "Her Big Sister" "Gold That Glitters" "Fallen By the Wayside" "A Baby's Arms" "Playing With Fire" "A Broken Butterfly"

"FREEDOM" Takes Its Fling

Of late there seems to have been a perilous letting down of our time-honored ideals and restrictions. There has been a great hurrah for spiritual and moral "liberty." Yet this apparent "slipping back"—this easy tolerance of false modern doctrines—are not matters for despair to those who face conditions with courage and confidence. Bernarr Macfadden, editor and publisher of True Story Magazine, is one of these.

He knows that the only power that can destroy Evil is Truth. This power he wields through True Story Magazine.

Thousands have been helped, inspired, and saved from certain tragedy through the vital messages found in its pages. If you are not now a regular reader—start with the April issue—today.
