Voters League To Meet

The second open forum meeting of the Salem league of the National League of Women Voters will be held in the public library tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock with C. E. Ingle of Corvallis, the speaker of the day.

Mr. Ingle, the editor of the Corvallis Gazette-Times as well as postmaster of Corvallis, will speak on "The need of political parties in a democratic form of government." Officers of the local league consider themselves fortunate in securing a speaker of Mr. Ingle's stamp as he is a thorough student of the political problems of the day as well as a talented speaker.

Since the organization of the Salem league in January the society and club women have become directly interested in the study of political and social questions. Small study groups have been organized to study the lessons on local, state and national government which are sent out by the central organization in Washington, D. C., and once each month all of the study groups meet together to hear a discussion by a well known speaker on some pertinent question. Dr. Walter H. Brown, head of the Marion county health demonstration, addressed the first open forum meeting. Mrs. J. A. Churchill is president of the Salem league.

Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Reuben P. Bolan and Miss Stout are en route to Corvallis on Saturday where they were the guests at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. William Knotts.

All members of the Salem Arts League are asked to meet in the library at 7:30 tonight for a business meeting.

Miss Joy Turner left yesterday for Woodburn and Monmouth to take charge of her classes.

Mrs. T. G. Bligh and her brother, James McConnell, are spending the week at the Bligh cottage at Neekowin.

Members of the Sweet Briar club will be the guests on Wednesday afternoon of Mrs. E. O. Moll.

Herbert Farrar of San Diego, California, is the guest this week of his mother, Mrs. A. H. Farrar, and his brother, John Farrar.

Mill City, Mar. 24.—One of the most delightful affairs of the season was given by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baker when they entertained the members of Mrs. Baker's bridge club, their husbands and a few close friends.

Fern, Oregon grape and rosebuds were artistically arranged about the spacious living room.

Assembling about the room were Mrs. Carl Kelly and Mrs. Glen Smith.

The diversions of the evening were cards and dancing, after which a dainty lunch was served. High scores were won by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Holthousen and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kelly.

In the congenial playing group were Dr. and Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Courtmarch, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Holthousen, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Haseman, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Olin, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Singleton, Mrs. Curtis Cline, Mrs. Ed Bertram, Miss Daisy Henderson and Frank D. Harris.

The Sons of Veterans auxiliary will meet at the armory tonight at eight o'clock. Following a short business meeting the auxiliary will meet with the "sons" for a social evening.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kellogg of Portland, their home guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse George entertained informally at bridge on Saturday evening. The Don't Fuss With Mustard Plasters!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no fuss in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole.

Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

Mrs. A. B. WOODSON and her daughter, Mrs. JACK SALDO.

For two years Mrs. A. B. Woodson, wealthy society leader of Washington, D. C., sought her daughter, Mary, who had mysteriously disappeared. When she finally found her daughter, she found she was Mrs. Mary Saldo, wife of John Saldo, bakery wagon driver, living in a modest little flat in Brooklyn, N. Y. Hardly had the society dowager granted paternal forgiveness than Saldo was arrested on a charge of violating a parole in failing to report regularly after his release from the Elmira, N. Y., Reformatory, to which he had been sentenced on a burglary charge.

Kelloggs returned to their home on Sunday evening.

The American Legion auxiliary will sponsor a cooked food sale in the Southern Pacific office on north Liberty street on Saturday.

One of the loveliest of the informal teas of the month was given yesterday when members of the American Legion auxiliary were hostesses from three to five in McCornack hall with those eligible to membership in the auxiliary as their special guests.

Attractive spring flowers were arranged about the rooms and a color scheme of lavender and yellow was carried out at the tea table. Mrs. John A. Carson and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks presided.

During the afternoon Mrs. Herbert Burnett sang a number of charming songs and Miss Dorothy Felker delighted the group with a Spanish dance.

On the hostess committee were Mrs. H. White, Mrs. Edgar Rowland, Mrs. Paul Burris, Mrs. Ipwyn Lewis and Mrs. L. C. Demarest.

Members of the Adolyk club will be the guests tomorrow of Mrs. James Teed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins spent Sunday in Albany at the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor and Mrs. J. M. Hawkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Eckley and son, Bobbie, were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Miehler in Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore and Miss Dorothy and Miss Lucille Moore were Portland visitors on Saturday. Miss Lucille Moore will leave on Friday for Corvallis to

O. A. C. Alumni to Banquet

More than a hundred alumni and former students of Oregon Agricultural college will banquet in the dining room of the First Congregational church tonight at the "kick off" dinner of the Memorial building campaign drive in Marion county. The principal speakers will be B. F. Irvine, member of the O. A. C. board of regents and editor of the Portland Journal, and Captain Richard Alleworth, general captain of the Memorial drive. Frank Neer, county chairman, will act as toastmaster.

During the dinner musical numbers will be given by a Delta Zeta quartet—the same group which was so favorably received at a Lion's club luncheon in the fall. The four singers and entertainers are Miss Faith Burke, Miss Nina McCord, Miss Lois Fendall and Miss Doris Phillips. They will give a group of college songs.

The hostesses in charge of the dinner are Mrs. Mark McCallister, chairman, Mrs. May Sammons, Mrs. Lester Pearmaine, Miss Harriet Peet, Miss Vivian Marsters and Miss Duntie Robinson. A group of the children of O. A. C. graduates will serve including Miss Mildred Weeks, Miss Mary and Miss Billie Cupper, Miss Eloise and Miss Eleanor Wright, Miss Doris McCallister and Truman Cummings.

Friends of Mrs. W. H. Lytle will be happy to hear that she has returned from St. Vincent's hospital in Portland where she has been for the past few weeks.

The Woman's auxiliary of St. Paul's church will have a regular meeting on Friday afternoon beginning at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, on north Summer street.

Further study of early Oregon history interested the members of chapter AB of the P. E. O. sisterhood when they were guests last night at the home of Mrs. H. E. Barrett. The study was led by Mrs. A. M. Reeves. Later in the evening Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith and Mrs. Harry Styles gave several vocal solos.

Guests of Mrs. Barrett last night were Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Miss May Rauch, Dr. Angie McCulloch, Miss Grace Osburn, Mrs. A. M. Reeves, Mrs. Harry Styles and Mrs. T. E. McCrookery.

Mrs. W. E. Kirk will be hostess to chapter AB on April 13.

Mrs. George Coddling was a charming hostess yesterday when she entertained members of the Monday bridge luncheon club and seven additional guests at a one o'clock luncheon at the Colonial Dame tea shop followed by an afternoon of bridge in her home.

Gay spring flowers centered the luncheon table with covers laid for Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. C. E. Stricklin, Mrs. J. Eakin of Dallas, Mrs. L. Henderson, Mrs. Everett McArthur of Portland, Mrs. J. Rhea Luper and Mrs. B. F. Pound, all special guests, and Mrs. Will Moore, Mrs. H. M. Chadwick, Mrs. W. E. Crews, Mrs. W. A. Mullen and Mrs. Coddling, members of the club.

The guest prize was won by Mrs. Rhea Luper with Mrs. Will Moore winning first prize among the members. The club will be entertained next week by Mrs. W. E. Crews.

Book and Thimble club members were the guests of Mrs. Max Gehlhar last Thursday at the Gehlhar home at Kingwood orchard. Lamb tongue and champagne were used with St. Patrick's novelties about the rooms.

Works of popular novelties were reviewed during the study hour. Mrs. E. Manning gave a short life sketch of James Whitcomb Riley followed by the reading of his "Hoosier's Romance." During the social hour several contests interested the group. Mrs. Trott, Mrs. Eyre and Mrs. Schwartz were successful in the contests.

Mrs. E. Pattison assisted Mrs. Gehlhar during the tea hour. Mrs. Eyre, Mrs. Kimbley, Miss Rita Bentley and Mack Gehlhar were special guests.

Members present were Mrs. George Trott, Mrs. Mary Beaver, Mrs. E. Manning, Mrs. E. Pattison, Mrs. L. F. Brown, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Charles Schwartz, Mrs. F. H. Bentley and the hostess, Mrs. Gehlhar.

Mrs. Trott will be next hostess with Mrs. L. Brown assisting in arranging the program.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Miles spent several days of last week in Portland. They were the guests of their son in law, Will Knight, and their granddaughter, Miss Sally Knight. Mrs. Will Knight is touring California at the present time.

Thirteen new members were initiated into Court Capital City, Catholic Daughters of America, in impressive ceremonies which took place in McCornack hall on Sunday afternoon. In addition to the Salem members representatives from the courts at Woodburn, Mt. Angel and Eugene, were present for the occasion. Following the initiation a banquet was served with the new initiates and the grand regents from the visiting chapters as the honor guests.

Graduation exercises for Miss Adelaide F. Post and Miss Claire B. Davie who have completed their nurse training course at the Salem hospital will be held tonight in the Salem Woman's clubhouse on north Cottage street in addition to the conferring of diplomas several attractive musical numbers have been arranged.

Preceding the "S" dance at Crystal Gardens tonight the music department of the Salem high school will present a short program of solo, duet and chorus vocal and instrumental numbers. More than a hundred and fifty voices will take part. Miss Lena Belle Tartar, head of the music department, is in charge.

Honoring a group of younger girls who plan to enter college in the fall alumnae members of Alpha Xi Delta will entertain at tea at the Colonial Dame Tea shop tomorrow afternoon. Cards have been sent to thirty. Hostesses will be Mrs. A. W. Stein, Miss Danta Robinson, Miss Myrtle Peiker and Miss D. Keeney.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles are spending several days this week in Portland where Mr. Miles is attending the Rotarian convention.

Miss Olive Shurtz entertained members of the Junior Music club at her home on Friday evening. Games and stunts interested the guests. Carnations and candles of a blending shade were attractively arranged on the luncheon table.

The guests included Miss Pauline Orey, Miss Mabel Harrison, Miss Helen Ralph, Miss Marie Hunsaker, Miss Vivian Marro, Miss Jane Kuhnke, Miss Vada Wintermute, Miss Helen Johnson, Mrs. Wintermute and Miss Dotson.

Eugene society is welcoming Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McCammon who are moving to this city to make their home from Salem. Mrs. McCammon will be remembered as Esther Carson. She is a former university student and a member of the Oregon chapter of Gamma Phi Beta. Mr. McCammon is district manager of the Associated Oil company here.—Eugene Guard.

Miss Norma Sutherland, a student at the University of Oregon, is spending the spring recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Sutherland.
