SERVICE CLUBS HAVE ADDITION; FORM GYRO CLUB

Organization of the Gyro club, a new service club for the city of Salem, was perfected last night at a meeting held at the residence of Walter H. Zosel. The new organization has two features distinctive from the other service clubs of the city. Its membership is limited to men under 35 years of age, and not more than 25 men of the city may belong to the Gyro club at one time. Salem's other three service clubs have a considerably larger membership, and make no definite age limitation. The Gyro is an international organization, with international headquarters at Cleveland, Ohio. It was organized in 1916. The name is derived from gyroscopes, a rotating apparatus the principal characteristic of which is to maintain its balance. A monthly publication, called the Gyroscope, is published at national headquarters. There are at present 32 Gyro clubs in the United States and Canada, including the one organized at Salem last night. The total membership is local as follows: elected last night, are as follows: President, John H. Brady, of the Oregon Electric Railway company, first vice-president, Ernest B. Thom, second vice-president, Daryl Proctor, secretary, Charles Elroy, treasurer, R. W. Niles; sergeant-at-arms, Walter H. Zosel; directors, C. Lester Newman, Clarence J. Gray and J. H. Adams. Louis Van Orman, president of the Portland club, was present at the local meeting last night and assisted with the organization. The first regular business meeting of the club will be held Thursday noon at the Marion hotel. Officers of the club will be formally installed, and the organization officially get under way Saturday, April 4, when a banquet will be held. Gyro delegates from Vancouver, B. C., Seattle, Tacoma, Olympia, Portland and possibly other cities in the northwest are expected to be present at the banquet. There are at present 14 members in the local organization.
