Nemo Club Entertained Last Night

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meredith were hosts to members of the Nemo club, one of Salem's oldest and most exclusive card clubs, when they entertained at the Grey Belle last night. Tulips and hyacinths were attractively combined on the tables and about the room for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert and Mrs. Jessie Jones were special guests of Mr. and Mrs. Meredith and the club. Mrs. W. Carlton Smith and Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner won high playing score.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Albert, Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith.

Miss Helen Jordan who has been the house guest of Mrs. Henry Meyers for the past three weeks, left today for her home in Seattle. During her visit in Salem a number of delightful informal affairs have been given for Miss Jordan.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lorena Pratt, 309 south Fourteenth street.

Mrs. Raymond McDevitt entertained the Mid-week bridge club in her home yesterday. Daffodils were combined with Easter novelties about the living rooms to form an attractive setting. High bridge score was won by Mrs. W. A. Shafer, Jr. with consolation award going to Mrs. Victor McKenzie. Mrs. E. Eckorlin, Jr. was a special guest.

Guests of Mrs. McDevitt were Mrs. Eckorlin, Mrs. K. W. Heinlein, Mrs. V. McKenzie, Mrs. Richard O'Leary, Mrs. L. Schloberg, Mrs. Al Krause and Mrs. W. A. Shafer, Jr.

Mrs. O'Leary will be next hostess.

Mrs. Lotta C. Smith, Mrs. Marian Derby and Mrs. Joelle LaFore will be hostesses tomorrow evening at a meeting of the Past Matrons' association of Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at the home of Mrs. Ida Todfrey, 405 north Liberty street.

The definite formation of business girls' luncheon club was effected yesterday when a group of girls met at luncheon at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe for that purpose. It was decided to postpone the election of officers for several weeks or a month until the membership becomes more stable. Meanwhile the leadership has been vested in a committee of three—Miss Vivian Wheeler, Miss Melba Robinson and Miss Inez Wood. The club name will also be announced later.

On Thursday of each week the young women will meet at luncheon with music and program features to be planned for each meeting. In the organizing group are Miss Elva Fisher, Miss Gertrude Capps, Miss Hazel McMorris, Miss Melba Robinson, Miss Frances Floy, Miss Zola Bergwill, Miss Inez Wood, Miss Violet Hase, Miss Jia Volkel, Miss Helen Walcher, Miss Thelma Tollman, Miss Bernice Strand and Miss Vivian Wheeler.

Mrs. Allen Carson is the house guest in Corvallis of her sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clarke. Mrs. Carson will visit in Corvallis for several weeks.

Miss Hulda Hagman and Miss Margaret Meades are guests in Corvallis during the spring holidays at Williamette. Miss Hagman was formerly President Doney's private secretary.

Salem friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kellems (Hazel Dean) will be interested in hearing that they are visiting for several days in Eugene with Mr. Kellems' mother, Mrs. Louise Kellems. Mr. and Mrs. Kellems have been appearing in Puget Sound and coast cities in a vaudeville act featuring Mr. Kellems' whistling solos.

Mrs. H. W. Brown, Miss Josephine Brown, Miss Myrtle Mortenson, Miss Alice Putnam and Miss Eva Roberts will motor to Portland tonight to attend the concert in the auditorium by the Viennese prima Donna, Maria Jeritza.

MOTHERS IMPORTANT

Mothers should see that the whole family take a thorough, purifying system cleansing laxative this spring. NOW IS THE TIME. The family will be healthier, happier, and get along better if the blood is given a thorough purifying, the stomach and bowels cleaned out, and the germs of winter accumulated in the system, driven away. HOLLISTER'S ROCKY MOUNTAIN TEA is one of the very best and surest spring medicine to take. Try it and see the difference in the whole family. Their color will be better, they'll eat better, sleep better, and be well and happy. Perry's Drug store.—Ad.

Accused by Husband in Scandal

MRS. DOROTHY MURIEL DENNISTOUN

Lieutenant-Colonel Ian O. Dennistoun, testifying in the suit of Mrs. Dorothy Muriel Dennistoun, his former wife, in the London Courts, charged that on coming home one night he found his bed had been occupied. He said his wife told him the tenant had been Oscar Senhouse, an American, whom she first said she befriended when he lost the key to his apartment, but later, according to Dennistoun, admitted misconduct with him. Mrs. Dennistoun, who is seeking to regain funds amounting to $6,000 she alleges she advanced to Dennistoun, now the husband of Dowager Lady Carnarvon, charged he had "sold" her to General Sir John Gowan, British Quartermaster General during the war, in order that he might personally benefit by promotion in military and nautical circles.

Mrs. Gus Moser, president of the Coterie club, one of Portland's best known women's clubs, has asked J. M. Clifford to deliver before the next meeting of her club, the address on the simplification of the calendar which he gave before a recent Arts League meeting. Mrs. Moser heard Mr. Clifford's lecture before the Arts League given early in February, and because she was so favorably impressed she is desirous that the Coterie club shall have the same privilege. Arrangements for the lecture are being made through Mrs. F. G. Franklin.

Mrs. William Wenzel and daughter, Miss Freda Stitz, were Portland visitors for several days early in the week. They were the guests of Mrs. F. J. Wolf and Miss Mary and Miss Clara Stitz, daughters of Mrs. Wenzel.

Dean and Mrs. George H. Alden visited on the O. A. C. campus at Corvallis and the University of Oregon campus at Eugene early in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Coe and daughter, Miss Sadie Coe of Eugene were Salem visitors yesterday.

Thirty of the younger girls who plan to enter college in the fall were honored at a lovely tea in the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe yesterday when alumnae members of Alpha Xi Delta were hostesses. Daffodils and jonquils were arranged in profusion about the tea room in bowls and low baskets and the only light was that furnished by tall candles of French yellow.

During the afternoon Miss Vivian Wheeler sang several solos. The guests were greeted at the door by little Miss Joan Newcomb, daughter of Beatrice Crawford Newcomb. In the receiving line were Miss Dante Robbins, Miss Verna Keppinger and Miss Myrtle Pelker. Mrs. V. Keene poured and Mrs. A. W. Stein cut ice.

WOMAN SO ILL WASHED DISHES SITTING DOWN

Mrs. Ashcroft's Remarkable Recovery After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Covington, Ky.—I was so weak and nervous I could hardly do my housework as I could not stand because of the bearing-down pains in my back and abdomen. I sat down most of the time and did what I could do in that way—sawashing dishes, etc. One day a book describing Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine was put in my mail-box. I saw how the Vegetable Compound had helped others so I gave it a trial. I had to take about a dozen bottles before I gained my strength but I certainly praise this medicine. Then I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier for poor blood. I was well all the time. I would be so old I could hardly sit still and in the palms of my hands there would be drops of sweat. I also used the Sensitive Wash and I recommend it also. You may publish this letter and I will gladly answer letters from women and advise my neighbors about these medicines."—Mrs. HARRY ASHCROFT, 632 Boesch Avenue, Covington, Kentucky.

Mrs. Fred Woodcock entertained the Hollywood community club in her home on Wednesday afternoon. Daffodils and pink primroses were arranged about the living rooms and a color scheme of yellow and pink was carried out in all the appointments. During the tea hour Mrs. J. S. Beck assisted Mrs. Woodcock. Guests of Mrs. Woodcock were Mrs. V. M. LaDue, Mrs. Wolfbrandt, Mrs. W. W. Fisher, Mrs. Rowland, Mrs. John Gundeley, Mrs. Walter Davis, Mrs. W. T. Starr, Mrs. Olson, Mrs. J. S. Beck and Miss Eleanor Woodcock.

The quarterly tea of the women's society of the First Baptist church will be held Friday afternoon beginning at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. T. W. Davies, 941 north Cottage street. Assisting Mrs. Davies as hostesses will be Mrs. D. D. Soclofsky, Mrs. Rose Gamble, Mrs. George King, Mrs. E. L. Buchanan and Mrs. James Smithers.

During the business meeting officers will be elected. Mrs. Harry E. White will take charge of the devotion and Dr. E. H. Shankle will give a short talk. Musical numbers will include a piano solo by Mrs. C. V. Huber and vocal numbers by Miss Naomi Phillips. All of the women of the congregation will be welcomed at the tea.

Carnation club members passed an afternoon delightfully very recently when Mrs. Albert C. Gragg and Mrs. Jess Shepard entertained them in the Gragg home. During the afternoon Mrs. Stuart Parke gave an enjoyable program of vocal and instrumental numbers. Out of town club members in the group were Mrs. Charles S. Corder and Mrs. C. Edlan of Portland.

Germane Schmitter, the French pianist, who gives a recital at the Grand theater next Monday, March 30, is one of the most famous pianists before the public today. She is young, beautiful, brimful of personality, while her playing is said to be a pianistic revelation. When but nine years old, she won the first prize in harmony at the Paris Conservatoire. At thirteen, she won the first grand prize of honor in Paris, winning from contestants all much older and from all parts of France. Before long, the young artist was appearing in concert and being received with the greatest enthusiasm through France, Russia, England and Germany. The concert is being sponsored by the Civic Music club.

Miss Maxine Buren spent several days early in the week in Portland as the guest of Miss Marjorie Fiegel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Boyle entertained at their house guests for several days Mrs. Boyle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Smith of Albany.

Flapjacks and sausages—how brisk appetites warm up to them!

Some one has called them the "heavenly breakfast twins"—pancakes and sausages! But here's the important "P. S."—

Provided, of course, the "cakes" are made with Albers Flapjack Flour. For that makes all the flavor-difference in the world. Flapjack's flavor is uncommon—very different from everyday pancake flours. That's why Flapjacks, properly made, are always light—never heavy; always tender—never soggy.

Flapjack has a flavor-story to tell your pancake appetite. Put it to the taste-test and see!

BOTHERED WITH ECZEMA OR RASH

Face Was Disfigured. Healed by Cuticura.

"Some time ago I was bothered with eczema which broke out on my face in a rash. I took no notice of it at first until the trouble began to spread and the irritation caused me to scratch. My face was disfigured and the trouble lasted about three months. "I tried different remedies but none seemed to do any good. I heard about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased some, and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment, I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Gladys Pahl, 353-31st St., N. Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 29, 1924. Use Cuticura to clear your skin. Soap 25c. Ointment 25c. and 50c. Tubes 50c. and 75c. Sold everywhere.
