Wife Reveals Her Opinion Of Thompson

Just what Mrs. Walter Thompson, wife of Patrolman Walter Thompson, city policeman, thinks of her husband has leaked out.

Last night the officer was away from his home for some unexplained reason. About 9 o'clock the phone rang and his wife answered.

"Is this the home of Patrolman Thompson?" said a voice.

"It is," responded Mrs. Thompson.

"Well tell him we want him tomorrow morning to guard the road where some blasting is to be done. Have him show up early."

"I am sure he would be glad to help if it is part of his duty," said Mrs. Thompson. "Where is this to be done?"

"About six miles out on the Jefferson road," said the voice.

"I don't think he can be there," said Mrs. Thompson. "He is just a city policeman. All he does is to catch dogs, arrest drunks, chase kittens up telephone poles and put chalk marks on automobiles."

"O," said the voice. "I made a mistake. I thought this was the home of Road Patrolman Thompson."

While Walter wasn't out watching them blast stumps this morning, the world now knows what his wife thinks about him.

EDWARDS TO LEAD SALEM SENATORS

"Frisco" Edwards was appointed as field captain to pilot the Salem Senators for the 1925 baseball season, at a meeting of the board of directors last night. Other plans for the coming season were discussed, plans for the securing of the diamond and the fixing of the grandstands and fence were also discussed.

Edwards has several new players lined up for the coming season and the prospects for a winning team are exceptionally bright. "Frisco" was able to get the services of Joe Barr of Portland who will act as utility catcher and play in the outfield at other times. Bill Steers who played with Kalama last year will be with the Senators in the centerfield job. A member of the last year team will be back in uniform, Mike Miller, "Cack" Blanchard, Darrell Proctor, Bill Ashby, Wayne Barham and Frisco will all be back in harness.

SYMINGTON REVEALS THREE CO-RESPONDENTS

New York, Mar. 26.—Three men, all prominent socially were named as co-respondents today by Thomas H. Symington, wealthy manufacturer and club man, in a bill of particulars supporting his divorce suit filed last year. In his divorce papers Symington had accused his wife of misconduct with "unknown persons."

The three co-respondents named today were Horace H. Work, financier, with offices in Fifth avenue and a home at Madison, N. Y.; Thibot W. Chambers, connected with a coal company, which bears his name, and Maurice Fatio an architect, with offices in Manhattan.

Work, who is married, and Fatio now are at Palm Beach, Fla.

When Symington filed his suit, Mrs. Symington asked for payment at the rate of $200,000 annually until the case should be decided. Subsequently she was awarded $1500 a month by Supreme Court Justice Plazek, who directed Symington to pay the rest of her apartment pending the outcome of the case.

BE CAREFUL ACCIDENTS

The front of the fire last night is known to have extended from White River, S. D., to Merriman, Neb., a distance of approximately 50 miles. Extensive precautions are now being taken to keep the sparks away from Valentine, although a lake fortunately is in the path of the flames.

Reports from the burned over area are very meager, but it is known that one large ranch has been completely burned out. The sky to the north was red with the reflection of the flames.

The wind last night attained a velocity of 40 miles an hour and all forenoon today has been blowing a 27-mile an hour gale. Small success has so far been obtained in checking the flames, advices said. Back fires have been started and are proving to be the most effective method in fighting the flames. No moisture has fallen in this region for several weeks, a condition that is aiding the progress of the fire.

THREE FIRES BURNING

Valentine, Neb., Mar. 26.—Three separate prairie fires of huge proportions are devastating the Rosebud Indian reservation in the south central part of South Dakota and have already burned over hundreds of thousands of acres in adjoining Nebraska land.

The fire is now about seven miles from Valentine, a town of about 1500, one hundred miles northwest of Onell.

Urgent calls for help have been received here from ranch men of the threatened districts. One call stated that one woman and two children had already been burned to death in the small inland town of Tuthill, S. D. Tuthill is in Bennett county. This town, advices said, had been completely destroyed.

Reports from the burned over area are very meager, but it is known that one large ranch has been completely burned out. The sky to the north was red with the reflection of the flames.

The wind last night attained a velocity of 40 miles an hour and all forenoon today has been blowing a 27-mile an hour gale. SAYS COOLIDGE TAKES HOBBY HORSE SERIOUSLY

New York, March 26.—Mrs. Frank Stearns, wife of the president's close friend, and adviser believes President Coolidge is as serious in the saddle as he is in the swivel chair.

With her husband Mrs. Stearns has been a frequent guest at the White House during the Coolidge incumbency. Today they sailed for a trip to Italy.

"Yes, I have seen the president on his hobby horse," she said. "It is in his private chamber—an electrical bus, you know that was given to him by New York friend who thought Mr. Coolidge was not getting enough exercise."

"I don't think the hobby horse will make the president any more vigorous," she said, "as seriously as he does his work."
