Mrs. White Is Hostess At Dance

One of the loveliest of the winter dances was an event of Wednesday evening when Mrs. Ralph White entertained in Derby Hall bringing the girls of her senior ballet class. A number of the college folk in town during the spring holidays were included among the guests.

The large dancing room was attractive with green and white streamers, and striking little green hats covered the wall lights. Large baskets of pussy willows and daffodils hung from the ceiling and the drop lights were softly shaded in green. A delightful feature was the singing of Mrs. William Frunk accompanied by the orchestra.

Guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Fenwick, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Paulsen, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Shoemaker, Dr. and Mrs. Armin Berger, Mrs. William Frunk, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McKillop, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Townsend, Miss Pauline Marnach, Miss Marie Brizge, Miss Dorothy Bell, Miss Hazel George, Miss Jennie May Hoppe, Miss Maxine Glover, Miss Mary West, Miss Macyle Hunter, Miss Helen Ramsden, Miss Margaret Tucker, Miss Marie Killop, Miss Irene Larsen, Miss Edith Victor, Miss Myrtle Roehrer, Miss Wilma Giese, Miss Josephine Jaekowski, Miss Rosalie Jones, Miss Margaret McMahon, Miss Kathryn Savage, Miss Mary Gilbert, Miss Cleo Walker, Miss Luella Patton, Miss Valerie Briggs, Miss Molly Schwaubauer, Miss Lorena Geer, Miss Dorothy Hines, Miss Vivian Hargrove, Miss Edith Brotherton, Miss Marjorie Melinger, Miss Grace Nader, Raymond Bonesteel, Louis Gilrod, Chester Noland, Stuart Kibbe, Joe Davis, James Campbell, Frank Patterson, Bert Ford, LeRoy Gard, Irving Dubbey, Kenneth C. Perry, Roy Oberberg, Frederick Arpke, Marvin Hendrick, Merrill Ash, William Gwynne, Vernon Hendrick, Thomas Allen, Garlen Simpson, Harold Mero, Fred Duncan, Robert Kitchen, Edwin Goodenough, Carl Walker, Robert Ashby, Ronald Fritzell, Clarence Phillips, Emery Dittenbach, Bobby Humphries, Deryl Myers, Virgil Genser, Carl Charlton, Russell Bonesteel, Johnny Schel, Jerome Hansen, Raleigh Hendricks, J. Orville Hayes, Wilson Wilb, Jack Luckner, Bob Ramsden, Harold Larsen, Byrd Tucker, Kenneth Bentson, John Currie, Kent Walker, Ned Strahorn and Cecil Edwards.

Word of the safe arrival in Paris of Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr., was received by cable yesterday by Mr. Burghardt. Several weeks ago Mrs. Burghardt left Salem for New York. From New York she sailed on the Ansonia for Cherbourg. She will spend a number of months in Paris, other cities of the Continent, and in England.

A three months' trip abroad is being planned by Dr. and Mrs. L. O. Clement. Dr. Clement will attend a number of clinics in Vienna and their itinerary will include famous spots in England, Holland and France.

Past Matrons' association will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. Ida Godfrey, 405 north Liberty street.

French and Italian period furniture will be studied tonight when the interior decorating section of the Salem Arts League meet at the public library. The meeting will be called to order at 7:30.

Miss Rovena Eyro and Miss Vivian Eiker will attend the luncheon to be given at the University club in Portland tomorrow by Alpha Sigma of Alpha Omicron Pi.

According to a wire received in Salem this morning the girls glee club of Willamette university taking the annual spring tour at this time will broadcast their concert from Walla Walla tonight beginning at eight o'clock. The girls have given concerts at Athena, Arlington, and two in Portland. From Walla Walla they will swing through eastern Washington and back into Oregon.

Mrs. G. Ed Ross and small son Robert, have returned from a visit of four weeks with Mrs. Ross' mother at Eau Claire, Wisconsin. Mrs. Ross was called east by her mother's illness and she remained until her recovery was practically assured.

Members of the Salem Woman's club will have the opportunity to hear one of the foremost students of English literature on the coast when Barry Cerf, head of the literature department at Reed college in Portland, will address the club women in the clubhouse on north Cottage street tomorrow afternoon at two thirty. The subject of Mr. Cerf's address is "The Study of Literature."

An additional attraction will be the musical numbers arranged by Mrs. Phil Newmyer, head of the music committee of the club. Miss Helen Poling of Albany, a talented singer who has studied extensively both on the coast and in the east, will give several numbers.

Following the program will be a tea and social hour. Hostesses of the afternoon will be Mrs. G. G. Brown, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. John Coughlin, Mrs. F. W. Durbin, Mrs. Leigh McIntire, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. S. M. Eudicott, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. S. P. Kimball and Miss Margaret Cooper.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Hoffman of Silverton, to Jalmar Fosholm was quietly solemnized at noon yesterday in the Presbyterian church. There were no attendants. After a trip to the Puget Sound country and a visit of two weeks in Victoria, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. Fosholm will return to Silverton to make their home.

Kensington club members enjoyed a pleasant afternoon yesterday when Mrs. F. S. Anunee entertained in her home. Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mrs. A. I. Eoff, Mrs. T. J. Harris, Mrs. Guy Rathbun, and Mrs. E. A. Munt of Marinetta, Wisconsin.

Assisting Mrs. Anunee during the tea hour were her two daughters, Miss Jean and Miss Ruth Anunee.

A business meeting, program and social hour was enjoyed by the members of the Sons of Veterans auxiliary who met at the armory on Tuesday evening. Under the direction of the division president, Mrs. Norma Terwilliger, a drill team is preparing for drill work to be given at the state convention which will be held in Oregon City in June.

During the program hour Mrs. Terwilliger gave several splendid readings. Mrs. Agnes Conenburgh sang "When You and I Were Young Maggie." The "Sons" male quartet also gave several numbers.

Merry-Go-Round Club Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Boise were hosts on Tuesday evening to members of the Merry-Go-Round club, one of Salem's oldest and most exclusive social clubs. Special guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson and Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd.

The rooms of the Boise home on Court street were decked with baskets and bowls of beautiful daffodils and jonquille brought by Mr. and Mrs. Rollin K. Page from their bulb farm in Folk county.

Five hundred was enjoyed during the evening with Mrs. J. N. Smith and W. G. Allen winning high scores.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Boise were Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Dr. and Mrs. Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. John McNary, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Thibelen, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin K. St. Paul's guild will sponsor the last of a series of cooked food sales tomorrow in Nelmeyer's drug store on north Commercial street.

300 DOKKIES TO VISIT DALLAS

Dallas, Mar. 27.—Some 300 Dokkies from Portland, Salem, Silverton, McMinnville, Gaston, Falls City and Independence are expected in Dallas next Saturday night for a big meeting with the local members of the Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan.

Among business matters to be considered is the setting of a date for a ceremonial to be held in Dallas later in the year.

The Dokkies will bring a band, drill team, drum corps and a male quartet and other entertainment features that will liven up the meeting and the town. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock in Woodman hall and will be followed by a feed.

Local members are working overtime preparing to handle the meeting and entertainment.

Mrs. J. H. Rhoten visited in Salem a few days last week. Wayne Earber is ill with tonsillitis at his home. He has been at Halsey.

Elks will enter a team although there is nothing definite yet. The Elks have a great bunch of baseball fans but several players depended on by the Elks might be with other clubs which would make it hard to present a strong nine.

W. E. Anderson is giving a new $7 Babe Ruth fielder's glove to the player getting the most home runs this year. The glove will be on exhibition in the store window.

President Barrick and Bob Boardman of the Y. M. C. A. expect this to be the biggest and best year in the Twilight League. Anyone wishing to enter a team in the league may call Dr. Barrick or Bob Boardman.

CIVIC CLUB AT MARION ELECTS

Marion, Or., March 27.—A good time was had by those attending the community club Friday evening. The principal speaker of the evening was Horace Addis of Portland, who gave an interesting talk on his trip to Crater lake. The Turner orchestra gave several pleasing selections. Other interesting talks were given by local people. Officers were elected as follows: President, S. E. Roland; vice-president, Fred Thomas; secretary, Mrs. C. M. Smith; chairman of refreshments committee, Mrs. Houghton; chairman of improvement committee, A. J. Larfy; chairman of membership committee, Mrs. Ethel Golvins.

The W. O. W. lodge is practicing on a play entitled "Poor Father." They expect to give it at the hall April 3.

Work has commenced at the rock quarry. They expect to put in a new crusher and will operate for a year or more.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hensel visited at the Hensel home Sunday. George Gentry's have moved into one of J. C. Christopher's houses. Grover Stephens expects to move into his house this week.

J. E. Wilson has moved to Lake Labish. Frank Sherwood has moved onto his place near here. Three of his children have started to school.
