Brilliant 'At Home' to Mark Week

Shopping tours and the thrills of planning spring wardrobes, gardens and the pleasure of superintending personally the planting of bulbs and shrubs and the open road, have interested Salem society women to such a marked degree this week that the drawing rooms have been practically deserted. This is the first week of the entire season which has been completely devoid of a brilliant function. Because of illness in so many families several partly planned affairs were postponed.

With the first whiff of another large tea for the coming week Salem matrons and maids have forgotten their temporary apathy for matters social and are anticipating with the greatest pleasure an event of Tuesday afternoon. On that day the Dan J. Fry, Jr. home will be the scene of a brilliant gathering for Mrs. Fry, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner will entertain at ten honoring Mrs. Earl Flegel of Honolulu, who is spending several months as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Steiner. The affair promises to be one of the most beautiful of the entire season.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr., entertained at a tea cover dinner in their home on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Fritz Slade spent several days in Portland early in the week.

Mrs. W. Al Jones and her two children, Crichton and Rosalie, and Miss Mabel Creighton are spending the week end in Portland.

A delightful and unique affair was given on Thursday evening when Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Bush entertained at a bubble party in their home honoring Miss Alice Moore, of Astoria, Washington, and Emory Dieffenbach, an O. A. C. student in town for the holidays.

When the guests arrived they were given the paraphernalia with which to blow soap bubbles and much merriment resulted from the various bubbling blowing contests. Winners were given prizes of candy chickens. Songs and games furnished further entertainment.

Balloons and daffodils were arranged profusely about the rooms and the dining room where a late lunch was served was festive with Easter novelties. Tiny toy chickens marked covers for Miss Alice Moore, Miss Laura Pemberton, Miss Esther Dieffenbach, Miss Mildred Tomlinson, Miss Olive Tomlinson, Emory Dieffenbach, Paul Pemberton, Lorin Bennett, Paul Poling, Ivan Corner and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Bush.

Mothers and friends of the pupils of Mrs. Frank Churchill were the guests at a delightful recital given in the Churchill home on Thursday afternoon. Among those contributing numbers on the program were Wilamette Blakeley, Doris Kent, Lucy Klein, Max Blodgett, Frances Laws, Kenneth Klein, Irene Ritter, Robert Cannon and Dorothea Cannon.

Miss Helen Linfoot entertained the ten little girls who are members of Mrs. W. H. Hertzog's Sunday school class at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot, this afternoon.

The aid society of the Women's Relief Corps entertained at a social afternoon and a pot luck dinner in their rooms at the fair grounds on Thursday afternoon. Fifty comrades of the G. A. R., guests, and members were included in the group.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. R. Magee entertained the Owl club at a seven o'clock dinner and an evening of cards in the Peters home on Thursday. Peach blossoms were used in carrying out a color scheme of pink and white.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Orin Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pade, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bright, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Will Krueger and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Magee.

Miss Dorothy Livesley, Miss Velandy of Clatsop, Washington, and Miss Helen Adelerberger of Marshfield, all students at St. Helen's hall in Portland, are spending the week end at the T. A. Livesley home on Lincoln Hill. Mrs. Livesley motored to Portland yesterday and the three girls returned with her last night.

Miss Mildred Roberts is entertaining at her home, guest over the week end. Miss Marjorie Holman of Portland, Miss Helen Roberts, a senior at St. Helen's hall, arrived this morning to spend the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith are entertaining at their week end guest in their country home on the Silverton road, their niece, Miss Frances A. Smith, of Portland.

Friends of Mrs. Ralph Moudy will be grieved to hear that she is ill in a Portland hospital. Mrs. Moudy was prominent in Salem social circles until a few months ago when the Moudy family moved to Eugene to make their home.

PIANIST HERE MONDAY

Mme. Germaine Schnitzer, distinguished French pianist who will appear in a concert at the Grand theater, Monday, March 30, under the auspices of the Civic Music club.

Junior Guild To Sponsor Big Dance

For a number of years the annual Harvest dance sponsored by the Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church has been one of the most outstanding dances of the year. Until this year the affair has always been given in the fall, just at the close of the harvest season. This year the precedent will be broken. The thirty prominent women who comprise the personnel of the Junior Guild have planned a post-Lenten dance and have chosen Friday, April 24, as the day on which they will be hostesses to all Salem.

Another change will be made this year for the dance will not be given in the armory or in the Marion hotel, the scenes of former harvest affairs, but will take place in the newer and larger Crystal Gardens.

Mrs. W. Carlton Smith will again be chairman in charge of the entire arrangements and assisting her will be Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. J. R. Luper and Mrs. Clifford Farmer. Mrs. William Walton will take charge of the ticket sale. Mrs. E. H. Kennedy is president of the Guild.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Deckebach are being fettered upon the arrival of a son this morning. Mrs. Deckebach was Miss Helen Robe.

Mr. and Mrs. David Wright and Mrs. Wright's sister, Mrs. Frank Guilwite, who has been her house guest for several weeks will motor to Portland tomorrow. Mrs. Guilwite will return to her home at Hermiston. Returning with Mr. and Mrs. Wright will be their daughter, Elaine, who has been attending a girl reserve conference in Vancouver.

Mrs. David Wright was a charming hostess yesterday when she entertained at luncheon and bridge in the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe. A large cut glass bowl filled with yellow and orange tulips centered the luncheon table. Yellow candles were used and dainty Easter novelties formed attractive favors.

Special guests were Mrs. Frank Guilwite of Hermiston, and Mrs. Paul H. Hauer. High score for the day was won by Mrs. Earl Fleher. The award for the highest collective score for the entire season was made yesterday with Mrs. David Wright the winner.

Club members who were guests of Mrs. Wright were Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mrs. Elmer Dune, Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mrs. Earl Fleher, Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mrs. Leon W. Gleason, Mrs. E. A. Kurtz and Mrs. Harley O. White.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Churchill are entertaining at their home guests over the week end their son in law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Elton, Mrs. George Weller and Miss Marie Churchill, all of Portland.

Week end guests of Judge and Mrs. Henry J. Bean are Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ingram of Portland. They arrived yesterday. On Wednesday Mrs. May McKell of Corvallis, was the guest of Mrs. Bean. Mrs. McKell is house mother at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house at Corvallis.

Mrs. D. H. Craven is the house guest in Eugene of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Allison.

Mrs. Cal Patton spent Thursday and Friday in Portland where she was the house guest of her sister, Mrs. C. C. Simeral.

Faculty Members Return

The week end will see the return of faculty members and students to the Willamette university campus for tomorrow will mark the ending of the spring recess. It is the customary thing for the students to eatier far and near with the arrival of the spring holidays but this year there seems to have been also a general exodus of the faculty.

The beach has lured many faculty families. Others have been attracted to the cities in the states to the north and the south of us. Others again, have derived pleasure from short jaunts thru the valley.

Dean and Mrs. George H. Alden visited the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college campuses early in the week.

Prof. and Mrs. E. C. Richards will return tomorrow from one of the Tillamook beaches. With them is Prof. LeRoy Dettling.

Miss Frances Richards, dean of women, has been in Portland since her return from Astoria where she represented Chemeketa chapter at the state convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Prof. and Mrs. Horace Williamson motored to Seattle early in the week which they have been the guests of Mrs. Williston's parents.

Prof. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin have spent several days in Portland.

Others who were guests in Portland were Miss DeNose, Miss McGill, Prof. Horace Rahskopf, Coach and Mrs. Guy Rathbun, and Mrs. Rathbun's mother and sister, Mrs. Hedeman and Mrs. E. A. Mundt, will return tomorrow from a week end at Neekowin.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Sherman and Miss Frances Virginia Melton have also been guests at Neekowin during the week.

Prof. and Mrs. E. T. Brown have been the guests of relatives in Centralia.

Miss M. E. Harding has spent the vacation time with her family at Baker, Oregon.

Miss Dorothy Clinton Woodward has been visiting in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brophy entertained at their home guests on Friday and Saturday Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Barr of Sheridan, Oregon.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William McCall last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Bush and son, Bobby, Mrs. Willa and Mrs. Webster, who motored down from Portland for the day. Additional guests of the day were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cupper and two daughters.

During the week Mrs. McCall entertained at her house guest Mrs. J. C. Aiken of Roseburg. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. McCall entertained at her house guest Mrs. Aiken. Additional guests were Mrs. George M. Brown, Miss Marjorie Brown, Mrs. F. W. Poorman and Mrs. Jeanie Bulck of Corvallis.

The Baptist choir under the direction of Minnetta Magere, will sing at Easter the beautiful oratorio, "The Holy City" by Gaul. The regular choir will be augmented by some of Salem's best voices. E. D. Barton will sing the baritone solo and the obligato to the ladies choruses, Mary Tinsledge Hendrick and Helen Selig will give the violin orchestral parts. Beatrice Shelton and Mrs. Foster the organ and piano accompaniments. This oratorio is one of the most pleasing, the music of high standard and beautiful, but not long and tedious in duration.

Mrs. Guy Rathbun has been entertaining at her house guest her sister, Mrs. E. A. Mundt, of Marinette, Wisconsin. On her return to her home in the middle west Mrs. Mundt will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. E. A. Redeman of Ironwood, Michigan, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Rathbun.

Members of the drama class will meet at the public library on Monday at two o'clock. Josephine Seabody's "The Piper" will be studied.

Mrs. William Walton has been spending the week at the Walton summer home at Neekowin.

Miss Joy Turner presented a number of her piano and violin students in a musical tea Sunday afternoon, at her residence studio. This was Miss Turner's first presentation of students since her musical study in New York city last summer.

Five Woodburn students, Ferno Tweedie, Verna Wood, Fay Pendleton, Delma Fagan and Margaret Mochel gave enjoyable numbers in addition to the Salem students. Prof. Wm. E. Moore also assisted with the cello.

Those who took part on the program were Maxine Hill, Cecil Wenderoth, Eileen Goodenough, Winfield Needham, Helen Worth, Ralph Savage, Delma Fagan, Margaret Mochel, George Stoner, Donald Slegmund, Delight Heath, Robert Needham, Margaret Patrick, Mrs. Bryan Goodenough, Ferno Tweedie, Sarah Samuels, Donald Goodenough, Harold Rupert, Alice Claxton, Roy Damon, Verna Wood, Fay Pendleton and Wm. Moore.

J. C. Club Formal Last Night

One of the most attractive dances of the season of particular interest to the younger set was an event of last night when members of the J. C. club were hosts at a formal dance in Derby hall. Preceding the dance fifty active and alumni members of the club banqueted at the Gray Belle.

Patrons and patronesses last night were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington and Mr. and Mrs. O. McClellan. Green and white formed the color note carried out in all the decorations.

Hosts last night were Ted Purvine, Frank Patterson, Wallace Carson, Homer Richards, John Caugholl, Chandler Brown, Iola McClellan, Loula West, Roy Okerberg, Edwin Goodenough, Carl Nooker, Albert Blankenship, Otto White, Don Kelly, Frank Deckebach, Coleman Rodgers, Irwin Suffy, Burton Randall, Charles Coffey, Robert Hamelien, Delbert Schwabauer, Hubert Ashby, Colter Gould, Donald Deckebach, Henry Thiesen. Special guests were Grant Pullin, Walter Socolofsky and Garner Harra. Among the guests were Miss Frances Ward Purvine, Miss Ethel McGilchrist, Miss Virginia Medcoe, Miss Margaret Bailey, Miss Erma Bolander, Miss Jean Shipp, Miss Prudence Patterson, Miss Helen Brettenstein, Miss Fay Wascom, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Miss Lena Baumgartner, Miss Pauline Knowland, Miss Florence Powers, Miss Fay Jo Weiz, Miss Lucille Rhoten, Miss Melba Davonport, Miss Alice McKinnon, Miss Josephine Jaskoeki, Miss Gertrude Bartley, Miss Margaret Pierce, Miss Josephine Maulding, Miss Kreta Janz and Miss Harriet Blankenship.
