Mrs. Flegel Honored At Tea

All society was interested today in the attractive tea in the Dan J. Fry, Jr. home with Mrs. Fry, Mrs. E. Lee Steiner and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers entertaining in honor of Mrs. Earl C. Flegel of Honolulu, who is spending several months with relatives and friends.

The rooms of the Fry home were bowered with spring with daffodils and red and yellow tulips effecting the transformation. In the dining room the pastel colors, lavenders, yellows and blues were used in tulips and anemones.

The honor guest and the hostesses formed the receiving line in the living room and assuring about were Mrs. W. Carlson Smith and Mrs. Kitty Graver. Little Miss Marylee Fry also assisted in the living room.

During the first hour Mrs. George Brown and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., dispensed hospitalities at the perfectly appointed table. Mrs. H. H. Glinger and Mrs. R. P. Boise presided during the second hour and Mrs. John H. Carson and Mrs. Fritz Slave during the last.

Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Arthur J. Rubin and Mrs. Keith Powell assisting in the dining room the first part of the afternoon. Later their places were taken by Mrs. Homer Egan, Mrs. Clifford Irwin, Mrs. Hollie Huntington and Mrs. Orris Fry.

The tea today was one of the loveliest in a series of smart affairs that have been given in honor of Mrs. Flegel since her arrival from the islands several weeks ago. Captain Flegel will join her shortly and they will spend the summer on the coast.

One of the thoroughly enjoyable affairs of the past week was the dinner on Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kappahn entertained members of the Tano club in their home. Special guests were Judge and Mrs. Harry Belt, Dr. and Mrs. Wilbert Clements and Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton.

A large bowl of sweet peas centered the dining table and about the rooms were baskets and bowls of wild flowers and shrubs. Five hundred was enjoyed during the evening with C. M. Inman winning high score.

Club members who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kappahn were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Roma C. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Patton and Mr. and Mrs. Leon W. Gleason.

The annual girl scout convention will be held in Boston this year from May 19 to May 23. Five hundred delegates from all parts of the United States and its island possessions will attend the convention, which will be held in the ballroom of the Somerset hotel. The local American Legion auxiliary will send the candy and cigarettes to the veterans on Saturday and they ask all those wishing to contribute either candy or cigarettes to bring them to Mrs. Rottle before Saturday.

Florence M. Rupert, 869 Chemsaketa street, is receiving the congratulations of friends today upon her prowess as a poet. Some weeks ago Miss Rupert's poetic muse was challenged by a prize contest in Liberty magazine. The magazine, as one of its weekly features, prints four lines of a five line nonsense verse, leaving the fifth line blank, and offers a total of five hundred dollars in prizes to the five contestants who submit the five best lines completing each week's verse.

The limerick of four weeks ago inspired Miss Rupert with what she thought was a winning idea. She sent it in, and the forthcoming issue of Liberty contains the proof of her skill as a rhymester. She figures fifth prize winner in the contest of four weeks ago, and under the terms of the contest, will shortly receive the fifth prize of twenty five dollars. Her friends are urging her to complete her record by winning the first prize, amounting to two hundred and fifty dollars, in one of the forthcoming contests.

Face Broke Out With Hard Pimples Cuticura Healed

"My trouble was caused by eating a lot of sweet food, and my face broke out with pimples that were hard and red. They itched and burned causing me to scratch and irritate them, and I lost many nights' sleep on account of the irritation. My face looked so badly that I was ashamed to go out on the street.

"I tried other remedies but met without success. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in two weeks there was a great improvement, and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Anna Goldberg, 1409 Feriala St., Oakland, Calif., Aug. 26, 1924.

Make Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum your every-day toilet preparations. The Soap to cleanse, the Ointment to heal and the Talcum to powder.

WRINKLES

Wrinkles are not always the penalty of advancing years. The muscular strain and fatigue resulting from defective vision are worse offenders in this respect than Father Time.

No amount of cosmetic treatment or massaging will eradicate these wrinkles. The only effective way to erase them is to restore the proper balance of the features by corrective glasses.

And today our best skill and imagination are devoted to the task of making eyeglasses personal ornaments of real beauty.
