THOMAS CHILDS NAMED AS HONOR STUDENT AT SHS

Thomas Childs was this morning selected by Principal Nelson of Salem high school as honor student to take part in the graduating exercises of the school at the close of the present school year. Childs has earned a grade of I in every subject taken during the past two years. He is the only member of the present senior class to hold the distinction. A year ago there were 4 students tied for high scholastic honors, all having a clear record of I, which means between 90 and 100 per cent.

George Heseman placed second in scholastic standing, his average being 1.045. Heseman received one mark of II, which signifies a grade between 80 and 90 per cent. Except for the single II, made in typing, which he took on the side, Heseman's record is as good as Childs'.

Lola Bell Sanders, who placed third, made an average of 1.077. Further averages were as follows:

Louvera Horn and Frances Follows, tied for fourth, with an average of 1.083. Frank James, sixth, 1.111. Lucile Davis, seventh, 1.154. Dorothy Baker and Leola Clarke, tied for eighth, 1.214. Sidney Bartlett and Nathan Buell, tied for tenth, 1.231.

Childs has stated that his part in the graduation exercises will probably be an oration. He has his choice of giving practically any type of number he cares to give. Childs has been a member of the debate squad during the present year, debating on the affirmative team. He is 16 years of age, but will be 17 in May, before the graduation takes place. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Childs, 374 North 18th street.

An appropriate trophy will be given for the winner of the first flight. Those in the first flight are as follows:

The trophy offered by G. Percy Sharkey was won by Orris Fry with a net 70. Ercil Kay had the low gross score, shooting a 79 for the course, 18 holes, but his handicap was too low to over come the handicap of others in the first flight.

SHEEP KILLING DOGS CAUSING BOYER TROUBLE

Following receipt of a letter from Arthur Forette, Marion county rancher, stating that he paid Joe Hendricks $7.50 as reimbursement for a lamb killed by Forette's dog, and a question as to whether the county would also add any reimbursement, County Clerk Boyer calls attention to provisions of the law in regard to sheep killing dogs. With claims in for 69 dead sheep for March, great interest is shown among farmers all over the county in the sheep killing dog problem as it seems to become worse almost monthly and complaints are piling up from all sections.

County Clerk Boyer states that the law is specific in sections 9358 and 9359 of the code that dog owners are liable for all damages that may accrue from assaults by dogs on sheep and furthermore that any dog found injuring a domestic animal may be killed and the person finding the dog doing the injury may pursue him to kill him. The law also goes a step further by stating that this may be done in cases where the circumstances are such as to justify the discovering party in believing that the dog has been injuring a domestic animal.

500 KIDDIES TO SEE 'THE THIEF OF BAGDAD', JOURNAL MAT.

entirely except for a few school teachers, two city firemen and others whose presence is necessary for the protection and assistance of the children.

"The Thief of Bagdad," which has been proclaimed by critics of the screen as the greatest production of its kind ever filmed, has a particular appeal for children because of its fantastical nature.

In this picture, a winged horse flies up to and through the clouds, a magic carpet soars over the housetops and into the sky; wonder after wonder, surprise after surprise, are here revealed in amazing abundance. To depict such happenings on the screen has never been considered within the bounds of possibility. This crowning achievement has been accomplished by Douglas Fairbanks. It has received the highest endorsements that any picture has ever received. In this particular, it will be well to repeat what Robert L. Sherwood wrote in his department in "The Silent Drama," in "Life," April 3, 1924. "After seeing 'The Thief of Bagdad,' I am more competent to understand the motives which inspired the sturdy Britons who have been struggling for years to reach the peak of Mt. Everest. I know now what it means to be able to say, 'Well, I've been to the top.' Standing at the point marked by this Arabian Nights' entertainment which Douglas Fairbanks has fashioned, I can look down to the lesser summits of 'Robin Hood,' 'Broken Blossoms,' 'Passion,' and the rest several miles below, and barely discernible from this dizzy altitude, lie 'Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight,' 'Rags to Riches,' and 'The Old Nest.' There may well be higher peaks than that achieved by 'The Thief of Bagdad'; but if there are, they have not as yet been chartered on any of the existent contour maps."

KLUXERS FINED $300 FOR RIOTING

Warren, Ohio, April 1.—Twenty-seven Ku Klux Klansmen, indicted in connection with riots in Niles last November were fined $300 and costs each by Judge James S. Thomas here today. He suspended two hundred and fifty dollars of each fine.

The Klansmen went into court with an agreed statement of fact reciting their belief that they were within their rights in carrying arms in Niles on the day of the tri-state klan klonklave, because they had been sworn in my Mayor Harvey C. Kistler as special officers.

Judge Thomas ruled that Mayor Kistler was beyond his authority when he swore in the special officers at the klan field, which was outside the city limits.

Attorneys for the klansmen indicated they would appeal.

POLITICS BAR TO ENFORCEMENT OF DRY LAWS, CLAIM

Washington, April 1.—Prohibition is not being properly enforced on the Atlantic seaboard because of inadequate cooperation between federal enforcement agencies, political influences, laxity of federal attorneys and failure to give more attention to the big bootleggers, Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general, yesterday told the senate committee investigating the internal revenue bureau.

Political influences are a serious obstacle to enforcement, Mrs. Willebrandt said, mentioning particularly the state of New Jersey and she endorsed as a step that would assist in eliminating this obstacle the placing of prohibition agents under the civil service.

Testifying in regarding to federal attorney appointments, the witness she had protested against the appointment of a "man by the name of Littleton" as special assistant to the attorney general to try prohibition cases in western Pennsylvania. He was appointed, she testified, at the request of Secretary Mellon to prosecute certain "bribery cases, and after one case had been tried and lost he moved that the other be nolle prossed. As reported to her she said the court had refused to do this on the ground that the case had not been properly presented."

HEREDITY CHIEF INSANITY CAUSE SAYS GRIFFITH

There are now 2014 men and 1372 women in the Oregon state hospital in Salem, according to Dr. L. F. Griffith, assistant superintendent of the hospital, who made the chief address before the Salem Rotary club at its weekly luncheon this noon. Griffith has been connected with the state hospital since May, 1890. At that time there were 680 patients in the institution, including insane, idiotic, feeble minded and epileptic, many of which are now kept in separate institutions.

Griffith expressed the belief that the increase of patients in state institutions, which has been considerably more rapid than the increase in population, is not due to an actual increase in the percentage of men and women afflicted, but to a greater willingness on the part of relatives to allow patients to be cared for at the institutions, which has been due to the fact that conditions there have improved. "However, it's bad enough at the best," said Griffith.

The principal cause of insanity is weak heredity, according to the speaker. In 60 per cent of cases at the hospital weakness can be found somewhere in the patient's heredity. Mental stress of some kind, extreme worry or a similar strain, may bring out the weakness he stated, but an individual with a sound heredity can stand any amount of mental or physical strain without becoming insane.

Social diseases were given as an outstanding cause of insanity. From 12 to 15 per cent of the men confined in the Oregon state hospital, and from 3 to 4 per cent of the women, are there as a result of insanity brought on by social diseases.

DODGE BROTHERS PLANT SOLD FOR OVER 100 MILLION

New York, April 1.—News that the Dodge Brothers Automobile company of Detroit has been acquired by a syndicate headed by the banking firm of Dillon, Read and company of New York is prominently published here today as one of the most important financial transactions in the history of the automobile industry. The sale is said to have involved more than $100,000,000, practically in cash.

Representatives of the banking firm declined either to affirm or deny the sale and Clarence Dillon declared, that, while final negotiations had not been completed, some announcement relative to the deal would be made within a day or two.

In financial circles here it was declared that the sale consummated a financial battle between Dillon, Read & Co. and the house of J. P. Morgan & Co., representing the General Motors corporation, to gain control of the Dodge Brothers' property. It was also believed that the sale was preparatory to a $500,000,000 merger of the Dodge property, the Packard Motor company and the Hudson Motor company and the Brigs Body corporation.

Confirmation of this also was lacking.
