

OREGON TO HAVE FAST BALL TEAM SAYS REINHART

University of Oregon, Eugene, April 3.—(Special)—Prospect for a winning baseball team at the University of Oregon are bright, Coach Reinhart has few weak spots on the team, and a pitching staff that is superior to last year's twisters.

Besides "Skipper" Brooks, who did most of the twirling last year, Reinhart will have the services of Fred Harrison, Carl Knudsen, Harry Dutton, Ray Williams and Ray Murray. Williams, Knudsen and Brooks are left-handers, Knudsen pitching for the varsity four years ago. Harrison has more speed than any other pitcher on the team and excellent control.

Williams got off to a bad start last year, but seems to have shown much improvement over a year ago.

Behind the bat, Reinhart has Jack Biles and Sam Cook, lettermen; Charles Orr, substitute receiver last year; and George Minnaugh, who has just graduated from the freshman squad. As the receiving should be well taken care of by Biles and Minnaugh, Cook may start either at third or first.

Fred West, last year with the freshman squad, and Frank Troutman are the leading candidates for shortstop. Both are good fielders but are only average hitters.

Besides Cook, Rex Adolph, Jimmy Scriptures, Veri Flynn and Donald Husband are fighting for the first base assignment. Adolph and Flynn are from last year's freshman squad; Scriptures played for the "babes" two years ago. Husband came from another college and was not eligible last year.

In the outfield are Knudsen and Douglas Wright, lettermen; Pete Brooks and Frank Reinhart from last year's freshman team, and Peterson and Toole, 1924 substitutes.
