

From the Richest and Best Part of the State

News from Nearby Valley Points

By Capital Journal's Special Correspondents

SILVERTON NEWS

Silverton, April 4.—(Special)—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Silverton Creamery and Ice company at the office of the firm a board of directors were elected to serve for the ensuing year. Those elected were Julius Alm, A. P. Hobart, E. S. Porter, Alton Hurley and D. I. Horley. Officers of the corporation for the coming year will be elected at the first meeting of the new board of directors. This meeting will be held on April 6th.

Following out-of-town weddings and wedding trips two Silverton couples have returned here to make their homes. Mr. and Mrs. Sofus Tolstad who were married at Salem on March 25th and spent their wedding trip at Astoria have taken apartments at the Homer apartment house. The bride is employed at the Silver Falls Timber company mill. Mrs. Tolstad was before her marriage, Miss Marie Moon, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moeen.

Social Shepherd of Silverton and Mrs. Mae Burch of Independence were married at Vancouver, Washington, March 30, and went to Seattle on a wedding trip. Mr. Shepherd is one of the proprietors of the O. K. Barber shop on Oak street.

Harold Madsen, the son of H. C. Madsen of South Water street, has returned from eastern Oregon where he has been spending the past seven weeks. Mr. Madsen says that nearly all of the farmers are re-seeding their fields on account of the winter wheat being frozen out.

On Sunday evening, April 5th, the Methodist choir will give a sacred cantata entitled "The Tenth Crowned King." As this choir has some of Silverton's best musical talent it is expected a large audience will attend. The cantata is made up of a number of solos, duets, trios, quartets and chorus work. Solists are Mrs. S. E. Richardson, Mrs. J. C. Curry, Mrs. J. A. Thompson, A. H. Smith and J. E. Jameson.

The Pacific University Glee club will appear at the Eugene Field auditorium Thursday evening, April 5th. The glee club comes under the auspices of the high school athletic association. The entire proceeds of the concert will be given to the association fund.

The Silverton firemen are making plans for a big benefit dance to be given Saturday evening, April 11, at the armory hall. The dance will be a feature dance and known as "Hard Boiled." Each one attending will be given a hard boiled egg with a number. The three who draw lucky numbers are to be presented with a dozen eggs each. The Fred Lizard orchestra of Portland will furnish the music and the proceeds of the dance will be used to buy new fire fighting equipment for the men.

The Silverton Gun club will hold another of its popular shoots at the club grounds on Sunday, April 5th. This time the shoot will be "Ham, Bacon and Lard." The shoot begins at 8 a. m.

Wednesday and Thursday of next week the Parent-Teachers association will sponsor a motion picture show, "The Bag Man," featuring Jackie Coogan. A special matinee will be held in the afternoons of both days.

The Parent-Teachers' association meeting which was to have been held Thursday afternoon of this week was postponed because of the funeral of Mrs. Clifford Rue, and will now be held on Tuesday afternoon instead. At this time, J. D. Mickle, state food and dairy commissioner, will be present to speak.

On April 19th, the Silverton district Sunday school convention will be held at Central Howell church. A very good program has been prepared with Prof. D. W. Riddle as the speaker of the day.

One of the largest of the coming events will be the Easter cantata to be given by the Silverton Choral society at the auditorium on Easter evening. It is understood that churches will hold no services at Silverton on Easter evening so that all may have an opportunity to attend the cantata. Solists in this will be Mrs. M. G. Gunderson, Gordon McCull and Miss Marie Corhouse.

Silverton, Or., April 3.—Mrs. Alfred O. Nelson gave a party Wednesday afternoon at her home on East Oak street for her mother, Mrs. J. Thorsen, who is visiting at Silverton. Mrs. Thorsen will leave shortly after Easter, going from here to Seattle, where she will visit another daughter before returning to her home in the middle west. Mrs. Thorsen has been spending the winter on the coast.

Invited guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Anna Corhouse, Mrs. Levi Goplerud, Mrs. George Henriksen, Mrs. Axel Larson, Mrs. H. Kleve, Mrs. Gordon McCall, Mrs. O. Steen, Mrs. Hans Steen, Mrs. O. Erager.

The American Legion auxiliary will entertain the Girl Scout troop under the leadership of Mrs. A. O. Nelson, Monday night at the regular auxiliary meeting. The scouts will give the auxiliary a demonstration of the work they are now doing. At present the scouts are working hard on their badge work. They will take their examinations on April 11. The court of rewards will be held in May, the exact date to be set in the near future. Mrs. Nelson entertained her troop at the Nelson home Thursday evening of this week.

Curiosity is not confined to the eat family only. It very nearly proved fatal to Patay, the water spaniel belonging to George Hauge. Patay, while investigating the hen house, discovered poison which had not been placed for her. However, she tasted it and made at once for the water. When Mrs. Esther Weaver, a sister of Mr. Hauge, saw the dog drinking she thought at once of the rat poison. By quick work the dog was saved.

Hans Hansen, who was recently removed to his home from the Silverton hospital following an operation, is now ill with the influenza. His mother, Mrs. J. P. Hansen, is also ill.

Carl Benson and August Elton are among those setting out strawberry plants. The popularity of strawberries has great increased at Silverton since the Silverton Foods Products company is featuring the strawberry. This company is also encouraging everyone to set out as many strawberries as possible.

Helen Lindseth broke her arm while at play. Helen is the little daughter of Rev. and Mrs. S. Lindseth.

Mrs. H. Cole and Mrs. John Fuhr were hostesses to the Trinity Ladies' Aid society Wednesday afternoon of this week. During the business meeting it was decided to hold a supper on May 16. As May 17 is the Norwegian independence day the members of the society decided to feature Norwegian dishes.

Father F. Shierbring is ill at the Silverton hospital.

Brush Creek school enjoyed a treat Wednesday when Carl Benson, one of its patrons, sent candy enough for all the children.

The order of the Eagles gave a program and supper dance on Tuesday evening of this week. The program consisted of the following numbers: Address of welcome, A. W. Kiebb, president; address of the evening, J. E. Hosmer; vocal solo, W. A. Long; readings by Helen Kiebb and Mildred Kiebb; violin solos by Francis Coberly and Bertha Alm; vocal solo by Martin Deortier; tumbling stunts by Harvey Wells; recitation by Mathew Gibson.

John Larson, of the Silverton bakery force, is confined to his home with a severe attack of the la grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bock, owners of the Silvery bakery, are at Silverton on a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Bock are now located at Wenatchee, Wash., where they also own a bakery.

Mrs. M. J. Madsen, Miss Alice Jensen, Miss Thera Jensen, Miss Lillie Madsen and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Riveness were callers at Salem, Thursday.

WEST SALEM NEWS

West Salem, Or., April 4.—One of the most enjoyable social events of the season was given on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamby, when a number of neighbors gathered in to celebrate Mrs. Hamby's birthday. The occasion was a complete surprise to the honored guest and she was the recipient of several gifts as well as ornamental favors. The evening was very pleasantly passed away with music and contests, after which a dainty luncheon was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerth, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew, Mrs. Herman, Mrs. Boatright, Miss McAdams, Miss Van Matre, Miss Chapman, Mr. Cannon and Mr. and Mrs. Hamby and daughter, Doris.

A very charming birthday dinner was given at the home of Mrs. Mary Adams on last Sunday to celebrate the anniversary of Lottie Meadama and William McAdams. The dining table was made attractive by an old rose bowl of spring flowers with candles to harmonize. The guests were: Misses Beth and Ruth Bedford and Miss Mary White.

The ladies' aid met at the home of Mrs. Mary Brannon on Wednesday afternoon. A good attendance was present and the afternoon was spent in a social way and at an early hour a four-course luncheon was served. The ladies will meet again in a fortnight.

Work is still steadily progressing on the new church.

Mrs. John Gosner is in home from the hospital and getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton and Mr. Mayes of Aumsville were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorton have moved from West Salem to Salem, Lillian Boatright of Los Angeles, Cal., is slowly improving after a very serious attack of typhoid fever.

Miss Betty Bedford was accompanist for James Smart and Lynn McDonald, who sang at Portland for the radio KGW, Monday evening.

Mr. Lappin has moved his family from the Dennison property on Front street to Salem.

Mrs. Brock and John Carriek were Sunday dinner guests at the Hamer home of Eola.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews motored to Sandy last week and brought back quite a catch of smelt.

Quite a few folks from town motored to Silverton, Wednesday evening, to hear Evangelist Frederick Betts.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Washington, are occupying the Robertson property in Kingswood. It may be of interest to the friends of Mrs. William Marrow of Dundee to hear that she is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamby and daughter, Doris, accompanied by her brother, Clay Frank, and family of Salem, spent Sunday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank of Vernonia.

TURNER NEWS

Turner, Or., April 3.—Hollis Bones, who was quite ill a few days the past week, was again at school Tuesday.

J. M. Bones sold a six months' old registered Jersey bull to a dairyman near Newberg last week.

Mrs. C. Bones was a Salem visitor Monday.

Mrs. S. H. Baker, who has been ill with the flu for the past week, is reported to be rapidly improving.

Gerald Gower returned to Turner from Newberg, where he has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gower.

Mr. and Mrs. David McVicar, with their son, Ed, and wife, all of Portland, spent the week-end with Mrs. McVicar's brother, E. C. Baker, and their son-in-law, Gibson Alexander, and family.

The last heard from Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bond was that they arrived in New York last Thursday and expected to be back in Portland by next Sunday.

Mrs. Moss, district president of the Rehekah assembly, passed around Turner, Monday night on her way to Mill City.

Major Chase Baker spent Monday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Baker, at the Baker hotel. Major Baker belongs to the staff of the adjutant general.

Work is being rushed on the new church in order to have it ready for dedication on Easter Sunday.

The large number of Turners who have had the flu are nearly all better and are up and around again.

Mrs. L. J. Rowley was in Salem on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chaves

WOODBURN NEWS

Woodburn, April 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wengenroth and little son had a very narrow escape Tuesday when Mr. Wengenroth's truck, loaded with wood against the middle of the St. Louis-Chanapee highway, Mrs. Wengenroth's present of mind in pushing the child off the step to safety when she saw the upset coming undoubtedly saved him serious injury. The parents climbed out thru a small window by the driver's seat unhurt.

The junior class of Woodburn high school is presenting the comedy "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" in the high school auditorium Friday night April 3. The cast has been working faithfully under the direction of Jean Campbell, junior advisor and are doing good work in their first histrionic adventure.

A week of pre-Easter services will be held at the M. E. church beginning Monday, April 6, of daily after-school services will be devoted to the children the 7 to 8 o'clock have to young people and the rest of the evening to the general public. The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered Thursday. Rev. P. M. Jasper of Salem will direct the meetings.

Mrs. H. L. Gill, assisted by Mrs. Eugene Moshberger, Mrs. Coudelin Lehman, Mrs. Winona Todd and Mrs. Dorothy Wohlbeier was hostess to the Woman's club Wednesday afternoon, April 2. The annual election of officers resulted in placing the following corps of officers in administration: president, Mrs. Ida Moshberger; vice-president, Mrs. Dorothy Wohlbeier; recording secretary, Mrs. Ina Mills; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bertha Haller; treasurer, Mrs. Ada Norman. The Misses Claire Cornell, Naomi Moshberger and Marvel Larson of the high school entertained with a pleasing musical program. The club will have $100 to devote to the purchase of new books.

A sunrise Easter service in which the ministers of the city co-operate with the young people's societies will be held at the city park at 6 o'clock, Easter morning.

An interesting display of Indian stone articles is on display at the Bank of Woodburn. The valuable relics were brought from Harney county, eastern Oregon by the Rev. John T. Myers. The collection includes stone knives, tomahawks, pestles and mortars, rubstone plates, arrow heads, punches, spinning flints and needles, besides a variety of crystals and quartzes.

The Woodburn golf club now numbers forty charter members, who have approved the by-laws submitted by the committee. Permanent organization will be soon effected.

Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Courtney, is nursing a fractured shoulder, the result of a bad fall from his bicycle.

G. W. Settemier is away on a business trip to Los Angeles.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Emmett was threatened last Saturday morning when a hot chimney caused a blaze in a room in second story. Miss Clara Cornell discovered the fire and attempted to put it out. An alarm brought the fire department who saved the house from serious damage.

Mrs. G. W. Waterbury is reported to be recovering from a stroke of paralysis.

Mrs. Emma Brannan has purchased the hemstitching shop and needle-art store from Mrs. Williams.

The Misses Ruth and Kathleen Garrison attended the girl reserve conference at Vancouver, Washington last week end.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine is a combination of both local and internal, and has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh or over forty years. Sold by all druggists.

J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

A Body for Every Business

When you buy a Graham Brothers Truck you have your choice of the largest line of standard bodies in the industry. Whatever your requirements may be, Graham Brothers can supply you at minimum cost.

1 Ton Chassis, $1380; 1 1/2 Ton, $1595; delivered

Bonesteel Motor Co.
474 S. Commercial St. Phone 423

GRAHAM BROTHERS TRUCKS
SOLD BY DODGE BROTHERS DEALERS EVERYWHERE

spent last Sunday at Eddyville.

John Chaves and wife left last week for Newport.

When the only passing grade is for Malcolm Miller, who formerly worked for the C. M. Miller Lumber company at Turner, met with an accident in a sawmill in which he had the back of his hand quite badly bruised and is in Salem for treatment.

Bones Bros. are sleeking up around the garage getting ready for Ford display week at which time a feature display of new and used cars will be made. They have graded down the bank and filled in the ditch across from the garage and will use this as a parking space for their used cars.

Quite a little street work is going on at present. A fill has been made near the Turner Flax & Fibre company's plant and the rough approach to the bridge near the J. M. Bones residence is being filled and placed in better shape for travel.

Mr. Fuller, of the state printing plant, was a caller in Turner at the Tribune office Tuesday.

Charles Clark, of the Aumsville Star, was a business visitor at the Tribune office Tuesday.

Miss Hazel Peetz was a week-end visitor at home. Miss Peetz is employed at the Kilham Stationery company of Portland.

Miss Evelyn Delzell returned to the Oregon Agricultural college last Friday to finish her freshman year. She was not one of the unlucky ones requested to stay at home. In fact, as one interested party found upon writing to her instructors, she never had received anything but passing grades to 95 and was classed as a good scholar. For college this is especially good.

high diving in the gymnasium work.

On last Saturday, George F. (Dick) Kelly of Turner and Miss Myrtle Hatfield of Marion were married in Salem by Justice of the Peace Brazier C. Small. Mr. Kelly is a resident of Turner and is well known here. Mrs. Kelly was a former resident of Turner but lately has been residing near Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Robertson spent the week-end in Portland.

Rev. Frank L. Purnell, state evangelist for the Church of Christ, will begin a series of evangelistic meetings Sunday night, April 5.

Mrs. Barbara Snyder of Gervais was a Sunday visitor at the home of her parents, E. C. Baker and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Sanford of Sawtelle, Cal., visited with Mrs. Gerald Gower at the Baker hotel last Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford had been at Sheridan, where Mr. Sanford formerly resided and were on their way back to California by auto.

Levi Webb is going into the dairy business again. He has gathered together a herd of ten cows.

The petitions for the new market road between Turner and the highway are now in the hands of the county court. The decision will probably not be made before the middle of May.

Rev. and Mrs. Fox and family spent Sunday with their daughter in Salem.

LaRue Stevenson of Tacoma is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Sutherland Talbot.

Mr. and Mrs. Garid Gower spent the week-end with Mrs. Gower's brother, Andrew Baker, and family of Mill City.

Mr. Buchanan of Salem was in Turner, Tuesday looking for a place to live. Mr. Buchanan was formerly in the garage business in Salem. He will work for Bones Bros. this summer.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill
OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN
Ladd & Bush Bank Building
Cor. State and Commercial Sts.
Phone 625 Salem Or

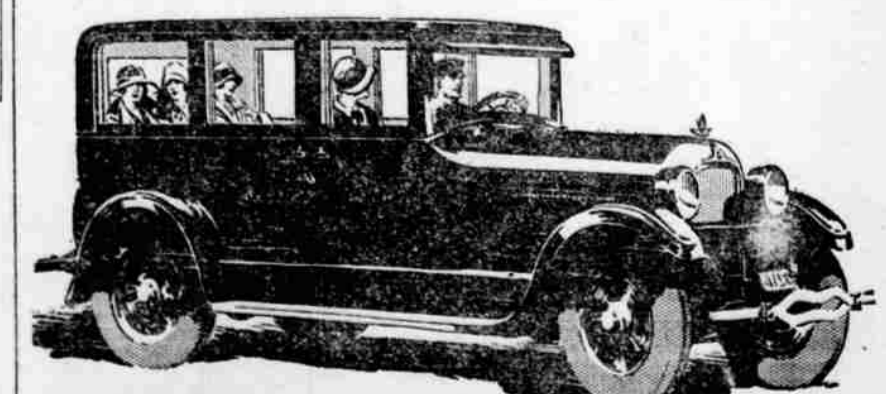

While You're Away
When Spring days invite you to take week-end trips, relieve your mind of worry over the safety of your valuable documents and jewelry by keeping them in a Safety Deposit Box here at the United States National.
They are thus afforded the best possible protection at the very low cost of about a cent a day. Let your better judgment decide.

The United States National Bank
Salem, Oregon

STUDEBAKER
New Big Six Sedan
Now $2950
Salem Delivery

UNLIKE any other fine car, the new Studebaker Big Six Sedan is built complete—body and chassis—in company with other models, in large volume, by one organization. This eliminates middlemen's profits and explains its low price. To pay more is extravagance. By all means let us show you this new Studebaker before you buy.

The price of the new Studebaker Big Six Sedan includes an extra balloon tire, tube and tire cover. Bumpers, front and rear. Morometer. Safety lighting control. Automatic spark control. One-piece windshield, sun visor, automatic windshield cleaner, rear-view mirror. Cowl and dome lights, extension lamp and stop-and-tail light. Clock and gasoline gauge grouped under glass with other instruments. 127 in. wheelbase, 75 h. p. Studebaker motor. Biggest balloon tires used on any automobile.

MARION AUTOMOBILE CO.
Phone 362. Open Day and Night. 235 S. Com'l
THIS IS A STUDEBAKER YEAR

Willard Batteries
—for every make of car
We can fit you out with a brand new battery and have it in your car in five minutes.
Threaded Rubber or Wood Insulation, whichever you prefer. We suggest Threaded Rubber. It makes the battery last longer.
"The boys forgot to tell you that we agree to replace Threaded Rubber Insulation if it wears out before the life of the plates," says Little Angers.
JOE WILLIAMS
"The Battery Man"
531 Court Street Phone 195
Willard STORAGE BATTERIES

WILLARD BATTERIES
"The Battery Man"
531 Court Street Phone 195