

SILVERTON AND ALBANY MEET ON DIAMOND TODAY

Silverton, Or., April 10.—The first baseball game of the season to be played by the Silverton high school will be this afternoon when Silverton meets Albany at Albany. The first game to be played at Silverton will be Tuesday afternoon when Oregon City will play Silverton.

The Silverton baseball team is light this year and inexperienced. However, the boys are showing up in good form.

The high school track boys are also turning out in good shape. It is said that some very good track material is out and that the track team will be superior to that of last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Marten Montz, who arrived at Silverton from Benkelman, Neb., Tuesday afternoon purchased the farm belonging to Andrew Storvén. The deal was made Wednesday.

Mrs. A. O. Nelson's troop of Girl Scouts were guests of the auxiliary at the latter's regular semi-monthly meeting this week. The scouts demonstrated their work to the auxiliary. Following the demonstration the auxiliary treated the 18 scouts to ice cream and cake. The auxiliary also voted to make dresser scarfs and towels for the Silverton hospital. Mrs. R. E. Kleinsorge is chairman of the auxiliary hospital committee. Mrs. Charles Johnson, chairman of the poppy committee, reported that the auxiliary now had 1000 poppies for poppy week in May.

H. Leslie Sackett left Thursday morning for St. Paul, Minn., where he will make his home with Mrs. Hugh H. Hughes. Mr. Hughes is assistant commissioner of agriculture in Minnesota. Mr. Sackett has been spending the winter with his son, R. L. Sackett, who is employed at the Olsen

The Blindness of Youth

In Judith's set, a girl was either a "good fellow," or she was "out of luck." For example, "What was wrong with a little drink between friends?" Judith wanted to be popular, but she could not know that in finally yielding to the taunts of her friends and taking her first little drink—just to be a "good fellow"—was to be the beginning of a mad career of folly that would end in the blackest tragedy. Never was the curse of drink brought home with such compelling force as in the story of Judith, appearing under the title, "Tangled Threads," in True Story Magazine for May. And this is only one of many remarkable features in the May issue. Get your copy today.

WONDERS WHAT COURTS ARE FOR

"We begin to wonder just what our court rooms are for, when we see the big criminals get away and only the little ones punished," said James G. Heltzel, Salem attorney, in a speech before the Marion-Polk County Realtors' association Tuesday. Heltzel mentioned no specific names, and made no specific accusation, merely stating that a recent criminal had been allowed to go scot free, while if his crime had been a minor one, such as breaking the prohibition law, he would have been given a substantial fine and imprisonment. Heltzel's speech was on the general subject of civic growth and improvement. He stated that the county court house should be moved to the northeast corner of the block where it now stands, and at least half the block sold for business purposes. Enough money could be derived from the sale to build a substantial office building for county officers he stated. The natural, logical direction for the city of Salem to grow in a

TENNIS COURT GOES TO MAKE WAY FOR SCHOOL
Silverton, Or., April 10.—(Special.)—Work on the new addition to the Eugene Field school building will begin April 15. Much grief is expressed by Silverton tennis players that the old cement court built by the high school class of 1917 will be removed at this time. It is the only public court at Silverton and has furnished a great deal of amusement for tennis fans. During the past week the court has been full at all hours and a line of other players waiting their turn.

Zane Grey's "THE THUNDERING HERD"

Picture the setting—the Western wilderness of 1876. Enormous herds of buffalo running wild across the plains. The rush of pioneers to the new fields of fortune. The wanton slaughter of the buffalo by the hide-hunters, inciting the Indians to new and savage uprisings. Picture Zane Grey's greatest romance against that thrilling background! With a company of 1,000 recreating the amazing scenes and 2,000 maddened buffalo in a REAL stampede. And the stampede is just ONE clap of thunder in this drama of thundering thrills!
