Easter Season Welcomed

Easter and Blossom day—spring and the promise of long summer days to come—little wonder that Salem homes are abuzz today with plans and preparations for the morrow. The Lenten season officially closed at noon today and with it went the last vestiges of the winter spirit. From now on society's attention will be focused on picnics, motor trips, swimming parties, and golf tournaments.

Easter will be observed in a host of ways. In the fortunate homes where there are children the tradition of the Easter bunny with the proverbial egg hunt will furnish the usual amount of joy and joviality. Several elaborate Easter breakfasts have been planned and in many homes there are a whimsical of Easter dinners that will prove as interesting as the family dinners of the Yuletide season.

The beach and the mountains have lured many Salemites and for the past few days numbers of merry week enders have been departing for Seaside, Newport and Neskonwin. Others who have been spending the winter months in the south, or in the Orient, are eagerly embracing the opportunity to observe the holiday with families and friends.

The special musical programs arranged by the various churches for Easter day will insure large attendances at the various services. And from the shopping activities that have been studiously carried on for the past few weeks there can be no doubt but that Salem matrons and maids will look their very best when they rally forth on the morrow.

Miss Hazel Mulkey, formerly of Salem but recently of Eugene, and Fred A. Milne of Portland, were married in that city last Monday. Miss Mulkey is a sister of Mrs. Stephen A. Stone of Salem and daughter of H. F. Mulkey, attorney of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Milne will live in Portland.

The Marion county parent teachers council met at Silverton last Saturday. Splendid reports were given by delegates from the circles at Victor Point, Silver Cliff, McLaughlin, Liberty, Stayton, Salem Heights, Michigan and Silverton.

The following officers were elected for the next year, president, O. V. White, Stayton; secretary, Margaret Schafer, Stayton; vice president, Mrs. Claude Stevenson, Liberty; treasurer, O. H. Dahl, McLaughlin school, Silverton. The next meeting will be held at Stayton November 7, 1925.

Luncheon was served at the Methodist church. Following the luncheon Dr. Walter Brown gave the address of the day. A solo by Mrs. S. E. Richardson and folk dances by the grade pupils and the high school orchestra at Silverton were much enjoyed. A concert solo by Amos Benson closed the program.

Miss Helen Campbell and Miss Irma Bolander are week end guests at the Pi Beta Phi house at Corvallis. They will be guests tonight at the Pi Phi formal dance.

The national anniversary of the founding of the Degree of Honor was celebrated by the local organization last night with a banquet at McCornack hall. Covers were laid for sixty and the banquet hour was enlivened with music and speeches.

Results of a membership contest were announced last night with Mrs. W. D. Albright, captain of the red side, and her team securing the greater number of new members. The losing side, captained by Mrs. William Esch, will entertain the winners at dinner within a few weeks.

On April 24 the local organization will entertain the national president, Mrs. Frances Bull Olson, the regent director, Mrs. Lois Geyer, and the state president, Mrs. Cordelia Eman. Dancing will be the diversion at the next meeting.

Mrs. Lola Bellinger entertained a group of the high school girls who assist her in the high school library at a chamber party in her home on Thursday evening. Following a line party at the Liberty theater the group enjoyed croce word puzzles and ghost stories. In the group were Miss Louvera Horn, Miss Gaynelle Beckett, Miss Ethel Jones, Miss Letha Pelley, Miss Lucile Burton, Miss Orpha Harvey, Miss Virginia Brickell and the hostess, Mrs. Bellinger.

A group of seven hikers enjoyed a twenty mile hike yesterday when they walked to the Barrett Findley ranch west of Derry in Polk county. In the group were Miss Edith Findley, Miss Florence Karst, Miss Dorothy Shafer, Miss Marjorie Gloy, Miss Zeralda Rogers, Miss LaVada Carter and their chaperone, Miss Anna Karst.

The girls packed their lunch and cooked over a camp fire. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Shiesler and their children will motor to Salem from their home in Harrisburg tomorrow to be present at the Easter breakfast at the Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger home.

Mrs. Robert Coshow of Hood River and her son, Fred Coshow, a law student at Willamette, were the luncheon guests of Mrs. James Godfrey yesterday.

TO DANCE IN INDIAN PLAY

Miss Nancy Thielson, talented dancer, who will feature the solo dances in the Indian play, "Kaminakin," which will be given on Wednesday and Friday nights of the coming week in the St. Joseph's auditorium on Chemekeks and North Winter streets. The music which will be used is the original tribal music of the Sioux, Gros, Ventres, Pueblos, Zunis and Apache Indians.

Alpha Chi Breakfast Tomorrow

Promising to be one of the most charming of all the Easter affairs is the Easter breakfast of the alumnae and active members of Alpha Chi Omega national society at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe tomorrow, Easter morning at nine o'clock.

In addition to the Easter novelties and spring flowers which will center the table a bronze lyre on a tiny easel will bring a significance of its own as the lyre is the national emblem of the fraternity. The pastel colors will be used through out and the guests will be given tiny corsages by Miss Virginia Holt who will greet them at the door. Mrs. Martin Fereshtelian and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert will sing.

Among the out of town guests who will be present are Mrs. Neva Anderson of Albany, Miss Gertrude Walling of Portland, and Miss Mildred Crout of Portland.

Special guests also will be three Salem girls who are active members of the Corvallis chapter at the present time—Miss Katherine Hartley, Miss Lucille More and Miss Margaret Pierce. Alumnae members in the group will be Mrs. May Chambers, Mrs. Martin Fereshtelian, Mrs. Claude Steustoff, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, Mrs. Carl T. Pope, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. H. A. Smart, Mrs. A. J. Bates, Miss Grace Holt, Miss Martini Victor, Miss Amelia Babcock and Miss Dorothea Steustoff.

Mrs. Henry Lee is hostess today at a studio tea with a group of her pupils as the guests. After the tea hour Mrs. Lee has planned an egg hunt for younger children.

The guests of the afternoon are Leonidine Aminwall, Laura Gaskill, Marie Herzkorn, Jennie Hutz, Wilma Shelley, Lottie Holcomb, Edna Raymond, Maxine Stout, Neva Hutchison, Doris Gardner, Genevieve Karst, Gwendolyn Hubbard, Deena Hart, Richard Peters, Phillip Mayer, Victor Wolfe, Billy Mullen, Donald Chapell, Harold Perrey, Irma Sawyer, Orla Leath, Margaret Wilson, Margaret Kirsh, Florence Karst, Sophia Koehn, Bernice Strang, Mabel Ruby, Lula and Frances Weidenker.

The formal opening of picture shows in St. Joseph's auditorium will take place on Monday evening with two showings of "The Hoosier Schoolmaster." Performances will begin at seven and nine o'clock with a comedy in addition to the main feature.

A recent event of interest was the dancing and card party at which Mrs. Ed Dickenson was hostess in her attractive home on north Winter street with members of her Saturday night club as guests. The rooms were beautifully decorated in red tulips and cherry blossoms. The addition of Easter novelties added to the attractiveness of the setting.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McGalen, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mashler, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jirak, Mr. and Mrs. George Alderin, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fritch, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McWhorter, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mohr, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carson of Corvallis and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dickenson.

Mrs. J. M. Clifford was the guest in Corvallis for several days this week of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Laurence. Mrs. Clifford attended the showing of "Icebound," a play given by the Corvallis Woman's club in a Corvallis theater.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. Breyman Boloe will return this evening from a three weeks' motor trip to California.

Salem Hi to Enter Music Tournament

The music department of the Salem high school will be well represented in the second annual high school musical tournament at Pacific university in Forest Grove April 17 and 18. Twelve entries have been made this year from Salem including every class except that of solo cellist.

Much interest is being taken by the Salem students inasmuch as this year the schools are segregated into classes according to the enrollment figures; and trophies are to be won thru the highest percentage in the respective classes. First, second and third places in each entry will be awarded a certificate signed by the judges. Twenty schools have enrolled in the tournament.

The following organizations from Salem will compete: Mixed chorus (8-16 voices), mixed chorus (17-32 voices), girls' glee club, boys' glee club (maximum 20 voices each), girls' quartet, boys' quartet, soprano, alto, tenor, baritone vocalists, piano and violin soloists.

Salem students who will take part in the contests are, Josephine Albert, Lucile Anderson, Arlie Anderson, Sidney Bartlett, Esther Burch, Truman Cummings, Ronald Craven, Echo De Sart, Martha Hobson, Helen Marcus, Collas Marston, Gerald Moore, Crystal Mills, Helen Pemberton, Gene Parmentier, John Propp, Earle Riggs, Lillian Scott.

Miss Marie Churchill arrived Thursday from Portland to spend the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Churchill. This morning Miss Churchill left for Eugene where she will be a guest at the Delta Delta Delta house for the week end.

Chapter AB of the P. E. O. sisterhood will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. E. Kirk.

Miss Genevieve Campbell is spending the Easter holidays in Portland with her mother, Mrs. Frances Campbell.

SICK WOMEN SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED

Letters Like This Prove the Reliability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Turtle Lake, Wisconsin. — "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness, backache and nervousness. I have taken these troubles for years and had taken other medicines for them, but I have found no medicine so good as the Vegetable Compound and I recommend it to my friends who have troubles similar to mine. I saw it advertised and thought I would try it and it has helped me in all my troubles. I have had six children and I have taken the Lydia E. Pinkham Vegetable Compound before each one was born, for weakness, vomiting, poor appetite and backache, and again after childbirth because of dizzy headaches. It is a good medicine for it always helps me. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills for the last eight years for constipation." — Mrs. MABEL LA POINT, R.F.D. The eighty-sixth birthday anniversary of Mrs. A. J. Gile, was delightfully observed yesterday when her daughter, Miss Mina Gile, entertained in her honor in the Gile home. A group of a dozen intimate friends of Mrs. Gile spent the afternoon with her and tea was served toward the close of the day. A variety of spring flowers about the rooms were augmented with the many lovely flowers brought to the honor guest.

Musicales Planned By Churches

Easter will be celebrated in practically all of the Salem churches tomorrow with special musical programs. Choirs and choir leaders have prepared attractions that will interest all music lovers. Some of the most beautiful sacred music ever written is Easter music and much of the best will be included in the programs announced for tomorrow.

The choir of the First M. E. church is to present a program of sacred music at their concert on Easter Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The choir is composed of fifty voices under the direction of Prof. E. W. Hobson and is accompanied by Prof. T. S. Roberts. The program is as follows: Prelude, selected; Prof. T. S. Roberts, Prologue from "The Calling of the Apostles," Elgar; choir, Hark, Ten Thousand Voices, Shelley; Miss Aldene Smith and Lloyd Thompson. As it Began to Dawn, Speaks; Miss Gladys McIntyre.
