Portland Tea of Local Importance

Of great interest in Salem is the announcement made at a tea in Portland this afternoon of the engagement of Miss Lucille Elrod to Ralph D. Moore. The formal announcement was made at a large tea at which Mrs. J. O. Elrod, Miss Elrod's mother, and her sister, Miss Maurine Elrod, entertained in their home on Willamette Heights, and to which several hundred of Portland's most prominent matrons and maids had been bidden.

Miss Elrod is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Elrod of Portland. She is a former University of Oregon student and was prominent on the Eugene campus where she was a member of Alpha Phi national sorority. Miss Elrod returned only recently from a trip abroad.

Mr. Moore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moore of Salem, and a member of one of Salem's oldest and most prominent families. He was graduated from the University of Oregon with the class of 1912, and is a member of Kappa Sigma. He is vice president of the Clarke-Kendall company in Portland.

The tea at the Elrod home was one of the most attractive of the season. Presiding over the tea table which was lovely with its spring blossoms and lighted candles were Mrs. E. W. Lazell, Mrs. Daniel H. Madden, Mrs. L. R. Welles, Mrs. W. F. Wiggins, Mrs. L. A. Belcher, Mrs. L. K. Moore, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur and Mrs. E. C. Griffin. Mrs. Wayne Loder, Miss Francis Page, Miss Frances Anne Montgomery and Miss Mary Gill assisted about the rooms.

Mrs. A. N. Moore left yesterday for Portland and was a special guest at the tea this afternoon.

The monthly social meeting of the Salem business and professional women's club will be held this evening in the chamber of commerce auditorium. In addition to some musical numbers the program will include a reading by Mrs. Norma Terwilliger. The play, "The Suffragette Baby," directed by Mrs. Terwilliger and including in the cast a number of the club members has been postponed until a later meeting.

A social hour will follow the program.

It is planned at this time also to receive the report of the committee headed by Miss Julia K. Webster which the club president, Dr. Mary B. Purvine, appointed to investigate the practicability of accepting the gift of the Valley Motor company of the house on north High street formerly occupied by Rigdon's undertaking company.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Krause yesterday were Mr. Krause's mother, Mrs. L. Krause of Portland; Mrs. Krause's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Deilar of Portland, and her brother, I. Deilar of Astoria.

Over the Easter week end Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wertheimer of Portland were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Krause. Mrs. Wertheimer and Mrs. Krause are sisters.

Mrs. W. E. Anderson is spending several days in Portland.

Among those motoring to Portland last night to attend the concert given in the municipal auditorium by the Fionzaley quartet were Prof. T. S. Roberts, Miss Jean DeWitte and O. K. DeWitte.

Miss Bertha Meech of Chicago, is the guest at the home of her cousin, Mrs. H. S. Rosehard for several weeks.

Mrs. George Trott was hostess to a meeting of the Book and Thimble club last week. Mrs. L. F. Brown assisted Mrs. Trott during the afternoon with a series of rousing games arranged for the entertainment of the guests. Music was also enjoyed until the tea hour when Mrs. Brown again assisted the hostess.

In the group were Mrs. Mary Beaver, Mrs. Max Gelhar, Mrs. F. C. Bentley, Mrs. C. I. Adams, Mrs. E. Pattison, Mrs. L. F. Brown, Mrs. E. A. Manning and the hostess, all club members, and Mrs. Eyles and little daughter and Danny Adams who were special guests.

Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Manning will be in charge of the program of the next meeting of the club which will be held at Mrs. Manning's home tomorrow.

The woman's auxiliary of St. Paul's church will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. U. G. Shipley, 975 E. street.

Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger has returned from a trip of several days to a number of valley towns in the interest of the Sons of Veterans' auxiliary. Mrs. Terwilliger is division president of the auxiliary.

Mrs. W. M. Smith will be hostess tomorrow to a meeting of chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood. Mrs. W. B. Burt and Mrs. A. L. Godfrey will be in charge of the program which will be devoted to Oregon Art and Literature.

All members of the Willing Worker's class of the First Christian church will be the guests of their teacher, Mrs. Will May, at her home at 445 south Capitol street, on Friday afternoon beginning at two o'clock. Sewing will be the diversion of the afternoon.

Two Bridge Clubs Meet At Luncheon

The Chinese room of the Gray Belle was the scene of an attractive bridge luncheon yesterday when the Friday bridge club entertained in honor of the Thursday bridge luncheon club members, with Mrs. Fred Ellis and Mrs. Lee Canfield as the special guests.

A color plan of blue and yellow was carried out with blue iris and doricium. About the corners of the room were bowls and baskets of large red tulips. High bridge score of the afternoon was won by Mrs. E. L. Kappahn.

Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. L. P. Aldrich, Mrs. O. L. Fisher, Mrs. H. C. Hunter, Mrs. Clair Inman, Mrs. Clyde Johnson, Mrs. E. L. Kappahn, Mrs. Charles Knowland, Mrs. W. I. Needham, Mrs. Cal Patton and Mrs. John R. Sites.

Hostesses were Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mrs. Elmer Duce, Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mrs. Leon W. Gleason, Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mrs. Clare Vibbert, Mrs. Harley White, Mrs. David Wright and Mrs. Ralph Moudy of Eugene.

The endowment fund of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs is one of the projects to which each club in the federation is pledged, the fund having been launched at a state convention held several years ago in Pendleton, when Mrs. Thomas G. Winter first visited Oregon. The aim of the fund is to collect a minimum of $21,000, the interest from which shall be used to finance the work of the federation.

Clubs throughout the state are being urged to make their annual contributions, through the following letter recently issued by Mrs. Arthur H. Johnston, No. 1075 Cumberland road, Portland:

"The time for the convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, to be held in Marshfield the first week in June, is drawing near, and as chairman of the state endowment fund I wish to urge your club to make your contribution as soon as possible, if you will want to be listed with the contributors, as all of you will derive benefit from the interest of the fund, which is to be used to further the work of the different departments."

The home coming meeting of the Mizpah and Jason Lee Sunday school classes will be held at the Jason Lee church Friday evening beginning at seven thirty.

The regular social meeting of Hal Hibbard auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans will be held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Seymour, 1435 north Winter street.

The committee in charge of the dance included Miss Sylvia Woods, chairman, Mrs. Simon Director, Mrs. J. H. Brewer, Miss Gladys Steele, Miss Mabel Root, Miss Mary Alice Ives and Miss Marie L. Pratt. Assisting also during the evening was Mrs. W. S. Haley.

Miss Josephine Barr will carry the title role of Kamakin tonight in the Indian play staged by the pupils of Sacred Heart academy. Kamakin is a play full of dramatic interest, Indian lore and life.

The musical numbers are the idealization of the original tribal melodies as secured on the reservations throughout the country. The Sioux Indians have music of perfect intervals, their love songs are most melodious of all the tribes. The hunting songs of the cliff dwellers are stirring and appealing. The fire dances are used to conjure up the spirits of their musical effects lead the onlookers to meet extreme heights of frenzy, till their imaginations visualize the departed spirits.

Several dance numbers introduced are exceptional in grace and beauty. Miss Nancy Thielsen, pupil of Miss Lenore Preston, will feature a Huntress dance. Miss Marian Boyle, who impersonates Wallulah, will also give the Dance of Life or Death.

The choral club and orchestra will give the harmonious setting of many exquisite numbers.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gouley on Easter Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Apperson and Miss Mildred Apperson of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Williamson, Miss Josephine Williamson and Walter Williamson of Portland; Dr. and Mrs. Tom Anderson and daughter, Jean, of Portland; Mrs. Lydia Gouley of Salem.

The ladies social circle of the Central Congregational church will sponsor a cooked food sale in Eppley's store on the corner of Nineteenth and State streets on Saturday.

Mrs. C. E. Lewis, Mrs. Lizzie Smith and Mrs. Florence Shipley will entertain the club of the auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans in the Lewis home at 1786 State street tomorrow afternoon.

Dinner guests on Easter Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lebold were Rev. Father Buck, Rev. Father Kernan and Cyril Lebold of St. Benedict.

All members of the Willing Worker's class of the First Christian church will be the guests of their teacher, Mrs. Will May, at her home at 445 south Capitol street, on Friday afternoon beginning at two o'clock. Sewing will be the diversion of the afternoon.
