EUGENE PASSES 5 BOND ISSUES

Eugene, Or., Apr. 16.—Eugene voters yesterday approved bonds of $375,000 for the proposed change of the source of city water supply from the Willamette to the M-Komik river. The vote cast in the city was fairly light and some of the other issues of the ballot were closely contested. The survey for the change in water supply for Eugene has already been completed, and work is expected to start in the near future, according to Carl McClain, superintendent of public utilities. Other bond issues approved at the polls yesterday were $135,000 for two new reservoirs, pumps and connecting pipelines; $50,000 for sewer reconstruction, and two issues, totalling $50,000 for street intersection paving.
