

CITY EDITION
Daily average net paid circulation for month ending March 31, 1925.
6719
Average daily distribution 7023.
Member Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Capital Journal

UNSETTLED
With rain tonight and Saturday. Moderate temperature, fresh southerly winds.
Local: Max., 64; min., 42; rain, .64;
Wind, S.W.; clouds, 7/10; south-west.

FORTY-SEVENTH YEAR No. 92

SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1925

PRICE THREE CENTS ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS FIVE CENTS

140 DIE IN CHURCH BOMBING

INSTRUCTION IN HOME HELD LEGAL RIGHT

Attempt To Compel Public School Attendance of Roger Watts, Educated Privately, Resisted.

Has a parent the right to educate his own child or is the child in Oregon the ward of the state? This is the issue raised by the arrest of T. S. Watts, farmer in the Salem Heights district, for not sending his 10-year-old son, Roger, to the public schools. He will fight the case, claiming that he came to Oregon from Canada and became an American citizen expecting to find liberty here. He has retained Rollin K. Page as his counsel.

The boy has been receiving his education at home, under the tutelage of his parents, and also in an enrollment in the Calvert school of Baltimore in a home instruction course by correspondence. Contention is made that the boy is receiving as good instruction or even better than in the public schools, that he writes clear essays, reads Emerson with understanding, is well mannered and in the third year in his correspondence course, under instruction at the hands of his mother, herself a former teacher. V. M. Hillier, headmaster of the Calvert school, certifies that he is in good standing, receiving regular criticisms on his work and high markings.

The complaint was sworn to by Cora Reid, truant officer, after the attorney general's office, by Grace E. Smith, assistant, rendered an opinion to the district attorney that the correspondence course given did not comply with the law which requires a child to either attend the public school, a parochial or private school, or if absent for private instruction, receive a written permit from the county superintendent for such instruction. The attorney general's opinion holds that such instruction does not constitute "attendance" on a private or parochial school, as provided by law.

In commenting on the case, T. S. Watts, father of the boy, said: "When our boy approached the age he should be going to school, we were confronted with the problem of how to get him there on account of the long distance to school and the fact of his suffering from a severe inguinal hernia which would prohibit him being able to walk anything like three miles daily besides recreation in recess time."

"Som before he was of school age."

(Continued on Page Ten)

SCHOOL BOY CAUSES RIOT CALL FOR COPS

Denver, Colo., Apr. 17.—Police answered a riot call in a Denver grade school today to find the offender a curly headed boy of seven years.

His teacher said he had "defied" her, had "jostled other boys at recess time," and "was saucy to the girls."

The juvenile court ordered the boy's parents to place him on strict probation until his behavior improved.

Partners In Timber Concern Flayed In Court By M'Mahan

Excortation of RICH Reimann and his partner, Kroecker, in the Santiam River Timber company, by Circuit Judge McMahan featured the conclusion of the case of John Sneed against that corporation in that court, when McMahan declared that he did not wish to listen to arguments in the case, and that men who would come into court to put up the kind of a claim they did in order to defeat an honest debt were not such kind of men as he cared to believe, and that the court did not consider their testimony of any value whatever. He gave the

Wonder Dog Is Proud Dad of Fifteen Puppies

Salem is growing. Not a doubt of it, now since Bobbie, the "Wonder Dog," and prominent resident of this city, has become the proud father of no less than 15 Bobbies, Jr. News of the addition to the household of this dog that made himself famous by taking his historical trip across the continent last year leaked out yesterday. Bobbie, otherwise known as Colbie C. F. Blazie, formerly of the dog, formerly of the dog, but is now a resident of Salem.

WORTHINGTON CHARGED WITH OTHER FRAUDS

Hollywood, Cal., April 17.—John W. Worthington, who disappeared from the Hollywood hospital a few hours before complaints of embezzlement were issued against him in Los Angeles, was located here by newspapermen in a modest home near the foothills. A woman who replied to a telephone call said that Worthington was there ill with diabetes but in no immediate danger of death.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 17.—John W. Worthington, "wolf of LaSalle street," of Chicago, believed to be dying here in the face of a penitentiary sentence imposed for fraudulent operations in the east today was charged with embezzlement of $50,000 in connection with brokerage house operations in Los Angeles.

The indictment was issued by the Los Angeles district attorney's office where it was alleged that Worthington had backed Samuel F. Balentine & company of Los Angeles with $25,000 worth of stolen bonds, believed to have been part of the loot of a Chicago mail robbery.

It was charged in the complaint, in which Balentine of the brokerage firm also was named, that Worthington and Balentine had engaged in a bond juggling conspiracy here which had resulted in the embezzlement by them of $50,000.

The charge contained eight counts.

FATHER AND SON BOTH EXECUTED

Raleigh, N. C., Apr. 17.—Charles W. Stewart, 51, and Elmer Stewart, 23, his son, paid with their lives in the electric chair today for a double murder perpetrated in Brunswick county last year. The father was led to the chair first and was pronounced dead after three shocks. Two shocks were required to execute the son.

The two men were executed for the murder of Sam Lily, a United States deputy marshal and Deputy Sheriff Long George, while the officers were searching for prohibition violators.

plaintiff judgment for all that was asked for.

Sneed brought an action to collect $248.50 from the corporation for road work alleged to have been performed. The case originally was brought in department No. 1, where it was held that the written agreement covering the work was signed by the timber company and that the individuals were not liable. Complaint was then filed in equity court on the ground of mutual mistake in the signing of the contract.

When Reimann was on the stand he was asked for all that was asked for.

Sneed brought an action to collect $248.50 from the corporation for road work alleged to have been performed. The case originally was brought in department No. 1, where it was held that the written agreement covering the work was signed by the timber company and that the individuals were not liable. Complaint was then filed in equity court on the ground of mutual mistake in the signing of the contract.

When Reimann was on the stand he was asked for all that was asked for.

Sneed brought an action to collect $248.50 from the corporation for road work alleged to have been performed. The case originally was brought in department No. 1, where it was held that the written agreement covering the work was signed by the timber company and that the individuals were not liable. Complaint was then filed in equity court on the ground of mutual mistake in the signing of the contract.

When Reimann was on the stand he was asked for all that was asked for.

Sneed brought an action to collect $248.50 from the corporation for road work alleged to have been performed. The case originally was brought in department No. 1, where it was held that the written agreement covering the work was signed by the timber company and that the individuals were not liable. Complaint was then filed in equity court on the ground of mutual mistake in the signing of the contract.

When Reimann was on the stand he was asked for all that was asked for.

Sneed brought an action to collect $248.50 from the corporation for road work alleged to have been performed. The case originally was brought in department No. 1, where it was held that the written agreement covering the work was signed by the timber company and that the individuals were not liable. Complaint was then filed in equity court on the ground of mutual mistake in the signing of the contract.

When Reimann was on the stand he was asked for all that was asked for.

NEW FRENCH MINISTRY COMPLETED

Painleve Presents Personnel of New Cabinet To President; Organization Task Difficult.

Paris, April 17.—(By Associated Press)—The new premier M. Painleve presented his ministry to President Doumergue in the presence of the Elysee at noon today. The ministry will meet tomorrow morning at ten o'clock to draft the declaration which it will submit to parliament next Tuesday.

Rarely has a French cabinet been so difficult to form as that completed to succeed the fallen Herriot ministry. Several times during the negotiations the task appeared quite impossible but M. Painleve persevered and was able to submit the following list: President of the council and minister of war, M. Painleve. Foreign minister, Aristide Briand. Finance, Joseph Caillaux. Justice and vice-president of the council, Jules Steeg. Public instruction, Anatole De Monzie. Interior, A. Schranz. Commerce, Charles Chaumet. Marine, Emile Borel. Colonies, Andre Hesse. Agriculture, Jean Durand. Public works, Pierre Laval. Labor, Antoine Darafour. Pensions, Louis Antonin.

The main obstacle in forming the ministry was the difference between Caillaux and Briand. The latter wanted Louis Louchour to be a member of the cabinet, but M. Louchour was not in agreement with Caillaux on various questions and hesitated a long time. Then he accepted the portfolio of commerce, only to change his mind at the last moment and abstain.

The two former premiers also (Continued on Page Ten)

SPORTSMEN SAY PIERCE AXE OUT FOR BURGHDUFF

Medford, Or., Apr. 17.—Medford sportsmen are still discussing today the unexpected turn of events at last night's annual banquet of the Jackson County Fish and Game Protective association when Representative R. J. Kirkwood of Portland, president of the Multnomah association, called upon the members of the state fish and game commission present to go on record concerning any proposed changes in the personnel of the state officials, with particular reference to the retention of Captain A. E. Burghduff, state game warden.

Harold Clifford, chairman, R. W. Price and Judge J. W. Maloney, commissioners present, all responded, but the only statement approaching a definite declaration came from Mr. Price who said he was interested in protecting the fish and game of the state and was not interested in the fortunes of any particular individual. A majority of local sportsmen appear to be convinced that this means Burghduff is slated for dismissal in the near future.

Although the recent dismissal of Ben Dorris, from the state committee by Governor Piersie aroused local sportsmen to a high pitch of excitement, the only action taken last night, was the passage of a resolution without debate endorsing Mr. Dorris and regretting his removal. Mr. Clifford in commenting upon Mr. Dorris' removal regretted the action but asked for fair play and consideration for his successor, Mr. Bauer of Corvallis.

The meeting attended by 250 sportsmen from Medford and all parts of the state closed with the presentation of moving pictures showing recent developments in the various lake hatchery and the various game preserves of the state.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

ATTENDANT AT ASYLUM ARRESTED

E. J. Tobin Charged With Aiding Patient To Flee; Admits Theft of Ring From Another.

E. J. Tobin, who for the last two months has been an attendant at the state hospital for the insane, was arrested today in the office of Dr. R. E. Leo Steiner, superintendent of the institution, and is in the county jail charged with aiding and abetting an inmate to escape. The charge recites that last Tuesday night Tobin let Orel Courter, an inmate, out of a ward at the hospital, and later in the night met him with an automobile at 24th street. They drove to Falls City, Polk county, it is alleged, to the home of Courter's father. From his father, Alex Courter, an old man who is blind, Orel Courter was able to get $100 and another automobile, according to the inmate's story. Then he and Tobin were to meet at Vancouver and drive east to Chicago. The $100 was to be given Tobin. The elder Courter refused to let his son have the automobile. Hospital authorities suspected that Courter had gone to Falls City. (Continued on Page Nine)

TWO SALEM HIGH GIRLS CAPTURE ESSAY PRIZES

Two Salem high school girls, Miss Dorothy M. Baker and Miss Keltje E. Tibbitts are among the first prize winners in the state prize essay contest conducted by the American Chemical society, winners in which were announced today by J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools, after having been reported to him by the state committee which selected the prize essays.

Miss Baker is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Baker, 1214 S. Main street, and Miss Tibbitts a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Tibbitts, 190 north 14th street. The subject on which Miss Baker wrote was "The Relation of Chemistry to Health and Disease" and Miss Tibbitts' subject was "The Relation of Chemistry to the Enrichment of Life."

The first prizes for the best essays on each of six subjects are $20 in gold and the second prizes are certificates of honorable mention. But in addition to this the winning essays will be forwarded to the national committee where they will compete for the national prizes, which, in the contest for students in high and secondary schools, are six four year scholarships to Yale university or tuition fees and $500 annually.

Harold Clifford, chairman, R. W. Price and Judge J. W. Maloney, commissioners present, all responded, but the only statement approaching a definite declaration came from Mr. Price who said he was interested in protecting the fish and game of the state and was not interested in the fortunes of any particular individual. A majority of local sportsmen appear to be convinced that this means Burghduff is slated for dismissal in the near future.

Although the recent dismissal of Ben Dorris, from the state committee by Governor Piersie aroused local sportsmen to a high pitch of excitement, the only action taken last night, was the passage of a resolution without debate endorsing Mr. Dorris and regretting his removal. Mr. Clifford in commenting upon Mr. Dorris' removal regretted the action but asked for fair play and consideration for his successor, Mr. Bauer of Corvallis.

The meeting attended by 250 sportsmen from Medford and all parts of the state closed with the presentation of moving pictures showing recent developments in the various lake hatchery and the various game preserves of the state.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

Editors meet in Portland.

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Representatives of state press associations of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia assembled here today for a two day conference on topics to be discussed at the annual meetings of the various bodies. Hal E. Hoax, president of the Oregon association, Oregon City, was chairman.

SHIP SALE TO DOLLAR LINE IS DEFENDED

Authority of Court To Enjoin Sale Authorized By Majority Vote of Board Is Questioned.

Washington, April 17.—A defense of the action of the shipping board in awarding the five president ships of the California-Orient mail line by sale to the Dollar interests was filed today in the District of Columbia supreme court. The answer to injunction proceedings brought by the Pacific Steamship company to halt the sale challenged the jurisdiction of the court and its power to review discretionary acts of the board as determined by majority vote. Presented by general counsel for the board, acting as special assistant attorney general, it asserted the sale was authorized with due consideration of the law, of good business practices and of the interests of the United States.

The answer alleged that at one time ships operated in the Orient trade by the Pacific Mail had been disposed of to enterprises controlled by foreign interests.

Sale Held Authorized. Accompanying the answer were a number of supporting affidavits signed by Chairman O'Connor and Commissioners Llesner, Hill and Haney, who constituted the majority voting for the sale, as well as affidavits from business men and organizations on the Pacific coast testifying to the backing of the Dollar interests.

Commissioners Plummer, Beason and Thompson, who opposed the sale either to the Dollar interests or the Pacific Mail, did not sign such affidavits and it was indicated that Commissioners Plummer and Thompson would file separate answers.

It is the view of government counsel that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that the Pacific Mail, which at present operates the ships for the board out of San Francisco to the Orient, has no property right in the vessels, and that the board had not infringed upon the Pacific Mail's rights.

Government counsel in the answer filed today asserted that in awarding the sale the board gave "prime consideration" to the permanency of the service to be maintained and added that with all other factors considered, the price offered by the Dollar interests was in reality higher than that of the Pacific Mail, the only other bidder.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Government counsel also contended that although the proceedings were brought against the shipping board commissioners, they were used collectively as a board and it was indicated that if any of the dissenting members should seek to answer individually as commissioners, their status before the court will be challenged.

Portland to Help Put Mill Project Across, Is Pledge

The Willamette valley presented a united front to Portland yesterday at a meeting at the Portland chamber of commerce to let the metropolitan know that the new mill proposition is going over and that Portland is expected to help. The result was that the chamber decided on and named a committee to solicit stock subscriptions and put over her share in assisting to establish the proposition. Salem was well represented at the meeting as were other valley towns. Salem took the lead in speaking on the subject, John H. McNary and T. B. Kay repeating their talks. Frank J. Miller of Albany, resident of Salem for many years, presided at the meeting.

D. M. Sanson, head of Dominion Linens, Ltd., and who is to have charge of the proposed mill here declared that a market already existed for the product, that Oregon produced suitable raw material at advantageous cost of production, and that goods could be made in Oregon and sold at a substantial profit.

"We do not have to make a market for our goods," he said. "The market is already made. The expansion is already made." (Continued on Page Ten)

DELEGATES HERE FOR CONFERENCE OF OLDER GIRLS

A special Southern Pacific train with 125 delegates to the older girls' conference, to be held in Salem today, Saturday and Sunday, arrived in Salem at 12:30 today. Delegates were still coming in from all directions on every train this afternoon. It is expected that there will be 500 young women at the conference.

Meetings are to be held in the First Methodist church. Arrangements were made to take a number of parties around Salem and the vicinity this afternoon, showing them the sights of the community.

The conference begins at 7:30 tonight with the director's message and instructions. Tomorrow morning's session will begin at 9:15. Luncheon at 12:30 will be served under the auspices of the Willamette university YWCA. The afternoon session will begin at 2:15. A banquet will be served at 5:30, when gifts and pledges for Geneva will be made. Election of officers for the coming year will be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

A special Southern Pacific train will leave Salem for Portland Sunday afternoon at 4:45, according to C. S. Stinger, assistant general passenger agent. The train will leave from Trade and Church streets, where it discharged its passengers this morning.

The conference begins at 7:30 tonight with the director's message and instructions. Tomorrow morning's session will begin at 9:15. Luncheon at 12:30 will be served under the auspices of the Willamette university YWCA. The afternoon session will begin at 2:15. A banquet will be served at 5:30, when gifts and pledges for Geneva will be made. Election of officers for the coming year will be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

The conference begins at 7:30 tonight with the director's message and instructions. Tomorrow morning's session will begin at 9:15. Luncheon at 12:30 will be served under the auspices of the Willamette university YWCA. The afternoon session will begin at 2:15. A banquet will be served at 5:30, when gifts and pledges for Geneva will be made. Election of officers for the coming year will be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

The conference begins at 7:30 tonight with the director's message and instructions. Tomorrow morning's session will begin at 9:15. Luncheon at 12:30 will be served under the auspices of the Willamette university YWCA. The afternoon session will begin at 2:15. A banquet will be served at 5:30, when gifts and pledges for Geneva will be made. Election of officers for the coming year will be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

The conference begins at 7:30 tonight with the director's message and instructions. Tomorrow morning's session will begin at 9:15. Luncheon at 12:30 will be served under the auspices of the Willamette university YWCA. The afternoon session will begin at 2:15. A banquet will be served at 5:30, when gifts and pledges for Geneva will be made. Election of officers for the coming year will be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

The conference begins at 7:30 tonight with the director's message and instructions. Tomorrow morning's session will begin at 9:15. Luncheon at 12:30 will be served under the auspices of the Willamette university YWCA. The afternoon session will begin at 2:15. A banquet will be served at 5:30, when gifts and pledges for Geneva will be made. Election of officers for the coming year will be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

The conference begins at 7:30 tonight with the director's message and instructions. Tomorrow morning's session will begin at 9:15. Luncheon at 12:30 will be served under the auspices of the Willamette university YWCA. The afternoon session will begin at 2:15. A banquet will be served at 5:30, when gifts and pledges for Geneva will be made. Election of officers for the coming year will be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

The conference begins at 7:30 tonight with the director's message and instructions. Tomorrow morning's session will begin at 9:15. Luncheon at 12:30 will be served under the auspices of the Willamette university YWCA. The afternoon session will begin at 2:15. A banquet will be served at 5:30, when gifts and pledges for Geneva will be made. Election of officers for the coming year will be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

The conference begins at 7:30 tonight with the director's message and instructions. Tomorrow morning's session will begin at 9:15. Luncheon at 12:30 will be served under the auspices of the Willamette university YWCA. The afternoon session will begin at 2:15. A banquet will be served at 5:30, when gifts and pledges for Geneva will be made. Election of officers for the coming year will be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

The conference begins at 7:30 tonight with the director's message and instructions. Tomorrow morning's session will begin at 9:15. Luncheon at 12:30 will be served under the auspices of the Willamette university YWCA. The afternoon session will begin at 2:15. A banquet will be served at 5:30, when gifts and pledges for Geneva will be made. Election of officers for the coming year will be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

The conference begins at 7:30 tonight with the director's message and instructions. Tomorrow morning's session will begin at 9:15. Luncheon at 12:30 will be served under the auspices of the Willamette university YWCA. The afternoon session will begin at 2:15. A banquet will be served at 5:30, when gifts and pledges for Geneva will be made. Election of officers for the coming year will be made at