A. A. U. W. To Honor Seniors

Promising to be outstanding among all the meetings of the year of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women is the meeting which will be held in the Salem Woman's clubhouse tomorrow afternoon. In addition to an unusually interesting program the annual tea honoring the Williams university senior girls will be given at that time.

Prof. Fergus Reddie, head of the drama department at the University of Oregon will read Galeworthy's "Loyalties" during the program hour. Professor Reddie is well known throughout the west as the possessor of an unusual dramatic talent. The program will open at 2:30. Mrs. George H. Alden, president of the Salem branch has asked members to meet at the clubhouse at two o'clock for a short business meeting.

During the tea hour Mrs. George H. Alden and Mrs. George Hug will dispense hospitalities at the table. Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson and Mrs. E. C. Richards are the hostess committee in charge of the tea hour. Assisting in the serving will be Miss Dorothy Nicholson, Miss Beryl Holt, Miss Hazel Payden, Miss Merle McKelvey, Miss Vivian Marsters and Miss Lella Johnson.

In a quaint and colorful Japanese garden—creeper-covered El Karoz Grotto and their special guests enjoyed an evening of dancing and special entertainment which opened on Wednesday evening. The lovely, colorful spring gowns worn by the matrons and aids, the conventional black of the men offset by their red fezes, made an extremely attractive picture, as they danced beneath the canopy of spring flowers, pink streamers, and huge Japanese umbrellas that centered the large ballroom. Lights softly shaded with pink fired the whole harmoniously.

Adding greatly to the pleasure of the evening were the special features during the intermissions. Miss Luella Gettyjohn and Miss Faye Waseon gave, in an artistic and thoroughly finished manner, the Spanish tango with all the Venetino flourishes. Mrs. William Frank entertained delightfully "My Hero" and "A Kiss in the Dark." Equally enjoyable was the concert duet by the two Mills brothers.

The president of El Karoz Grotto, Merrill D. Ohling, was host of the evening. More than fifty couples were present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eldridge are spending several days at their summer home at Gearhart. They returned only recently from south California where they passed the winter months.

The Count-on-me class of the First Baptist church will meet next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. T. A. Rafferty on north Fourteenth street.

Miss Bertha Chittick is spending a week in Newport with her sister, Mrs. C. J. Rush. Before returning to Salem she will spend several days with friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Brown (Naomi Whalen) returned from a short trip following their wedding last Saturday evening. They will be at home in the Court apartments after April 20.

Mrs. Carl Engstrom was the honor guest in Portland yesterday at a meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the home of Mrs. Ed H. Fleher in Sellwood. Mrs. Engstrom was Mrs. Fleher's house guest.

Men and Women in News of the Day

Although his ship, the Arcturion, on which he and a party of scientists set out to explore the Sargasso Sea for the New York Zoological Society was equipped with wireless, efforts to get in radio communication with Dr. D. William Beebe proved unavailing. Miss Abby Rockefeller, eldest daughter of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has received a license to marry David Merriweather Milton, her childhood sweetheart. The wedding will take place May 14, in her father's New York town house.

Mrs. Charles A. Fulton, leader of New York society, has entered suit for divorce, charging her millionaire husband with occupying a castle in France with a French divorcee. At the same time, she sued for $300,000 for alleged alienations of affections. Ferdinand Phoenizmayer, for $300,000 for alleged alienations of affections. Fulton changed his name during the World War. The Georgia State Prison Commission has recommended to Governor Walker that the death sentence imposed on Mrs. Ida Hughes, of Atlanta, for the murder of her mother-in-law, be commuted to life imprisonment. She was to have been hanged April 24.

Mrs. Locke Is Hostess To Club

One of the most charming hostesses of the week was Mrs. O. C. Locke who entertained the Thursday bridge luncheon club at a bridge tea in her home on Wednesday. Spring flowers and Scotch broom were used attractively about the living room and in the dining room where tea was served. Mrs. William Walton assisted Mrs. Locke.

Honor guests of the afternoon were Mrs. G. W. DeBeck of Vancouver, B. C., Mrs. W. H. Dancy and Mrs. E. L. Baker.

Members of the club who were guests of Mrs. Locke were Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. J. Shelby Eastman, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. Fredrick Lampert and Mrs. Henry Meyers.

Mrs. Saurman will entertain the club next week.

Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Griffith and Miss Margaret Griffith left yesterday for Newkown where they will spend the remainder of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eldridge are spending several days at their summer home at Gearhart. They returned only recently from south California where they passed the winter months.

The Count-on-me class of the First Baptist church will meet next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. T. A. Rafferty on north Fourteenth street.

Miss Bertha Chittick is spending a week in Newport with her sister, Mrs. C. J. Rush. Before returning to Salem she will spend several days with friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Brown (Naomi Whalen) returned from a short trip following their wedding last Saturday evening. They will be at home in the Court apartments after April 20.

Mrs. Carl Engstrom was the honor guest in Portland yesterday at a meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the home of Mrs. Ed H. Fleher in Sellwood. Mrs. Engstrom was Mrs. Fleher's house guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Hosford Entertain

One of the most delightful affairs of the season, now rapidly drawing to a close, was the event of last night when Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hosford entertained at a six table bridge party in their home on Court street. The living rooms were bright with evidences of spring, lilies and lilacs were used prominently in the baskets and bowls arranged about the rooms.

Among the bridge players the most successful were Mrs. Walter F. Buchner and J. B. Craig. Consolation awards went to Mrs. J. W. Lewis and G. W. Laflair. During the refreshment hour Mrs. H. S. Poisal and Mrs. J. W. Lewis assisted the hostess.

Guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Buchner, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wain, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Poisal, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Purvine, Mr. and Mrs. L. Idleman, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Laflair, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mr. and Mrs. John Maurer, Mr. and Mrs. Willie S. Moore and Miss Rachael Bayne.

Mrs. E. H. Hobson entertained the D. U. C. bridge luncheon club in her home on Wednesday. Tulips centered the luncheon table and blooms of the same variety were placed in baskets about the rooms. Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Mrs. Mort Pilkington and Miss Vivian Nelson were special guests.

At the end of the afternoon of bridge that Mrs. V. McKenzie had won first prize. The consolation award went to Mrs. R. O. Leary. Members of the club are Mrs. L. Schloberg, Mrs. R. McDovitt, Mrs. V. McKenzie, Mrs. R. O'Leary, Mrs. E. Beckerlin, Jr., Mrs. Kenneth Brown and Miss Alta Jones.

Mrs. Kenneth Brown will entertain the club in two weeks. House guests of Mrs. G. L. Newton recently were Mrs. Earl Braden, Mrs. Herbert Pearce, Mrs. A. T. Wheeler and Mrs. Williamson, all prominent Spokane matrons, who are motoring south to spend a month in southern California.

Mrs. W. M. Smith was hostess yesterday at an interesting and delightful meeting of chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood. The program of the afternoon consisted mostly of a paper on Oregon art and literature written by Mrs. W. B. Burt and read by Mrs. C. K. Logan. Mrs. Burt is in Portland at the present time. The living rooms of the Smith home were attractively decked with daisies and lavender lilacs. Members present were Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. Frank Churchill, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. Harwood Hall, Mrs. W. T. Hickey, Mrs. W. M. Hughes, Miss Alyce Hollister, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Mrs. H. J. Miles, Mrs. A. C. Parr, Mrs. E. W. Selig, Mrs. A. T. Woolpert and the hostess, Mrs. Smith.

The country home on the Jefferson road of Mrs. Edwin Hoffnell was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Hoffnell was hostess to members of the Fairmount Hill club and three additional guests.

Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon with Mrs. Lester Laws winning high score. The second prize went to Mrs. J. B. Schur. Mrs. Cradlebaugh assisted Mrs. Hoffnell.

Special guests were Mrs. Follis, Mrs. Greer and Mrs. Elgin. An additional honor guest was Mrs. L. Lunsford who was added to the personnel of the club at Wednesday's meeting.

Members of the club are Mrs. P. M. Gregory, Mrs. E. T. B. Hill, Mrs. E. J. Huffman, Mrs. Lester L. Laws, Mrs. J. B. Schur, Mrs. Lawrence E. Oberer, Mrs. Elmer Leary, Mrs. H. K. Stockwell, Mrs. George G. Grabenhorst, Mrs. E. B. Grabenhorst, Mrs. Curtis Crose, Mrs. L. Lunsford and Mrs. Edwin Hoffnell.

Mrs. Harwood Hall and eight of her Indian girls and four Indian boys, students at the government school at Chemawa, will occupy a prominent part of the program at the three day institute of the department of public welfare of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs which will be held in Portland beginning April 29.

The institute will consider the questions, with special accentuation on the conditions in the state, of public health, anti-narcotics, disabled children's hospitals, national child welfare day, and the question of Indian welfare which will be taken up by Mrs. Hall on the afternoon of April 30.

Accompanying the little group from Chemawa will be Mrs. Rutha Turney, head of the music department at the school, and under her direction the twelve students will give a short musical program before the institute.

Miss Grace Phelps of Portland, is chairman of the public welfare committee and will preside during the sessions. Mrs. Saddle Orr-Dunbar was the honor guest at a luncheon given at the St. Francis hotel last evening at 1:30 o'clock by 17 Albany women, including members and friends of members of the parent teacher association here. The luncheon was purely of a social nature, occasioned by Mrs. Dunbar's visit here for the purpose of discussing with parents, teacher association phases of the school health program in which the P. T. A. of Oregon is interested. These discussions were confined largely to other meetings.

Mrs. W. D. Clarke and son and daughter, and Mrs. C. J. Green and her little daughter returned Wednesday evening from Seaside where they spent a week. Mrs. Clarke left yesterday morning for Portland, where she was called by the death of Mr. Clarke's mother.

Mrs. William E. McCarroll was hostess to an interesting meeting of the Highland study club at her home on Maple avenue recently. The group of eight matrons devoted the afternoon to the study of the second lesson in the "Know your Town" series sent out by the National League of Women

WOMEN INVITED TO CONSULT FAMOUS VISITOR

Elizabeth Arden Sends Personal Representative to Advise Women on Skin Care

Every woman who values her good looks will be interested in the arrival tomorrow of Miss Mary Johnstone, who is here as the personal representative of Elizabeth Arden, the famous skin specialist of New York, Paris and London. Miss Johnstone comes to us from the fashionable Arden Salon on Fifth avenue, New York, where her close association with Miss Arden has made her thoroughly familiar with the scientific methods of skin treatment developed by this specialist.

Miss Johnstone comes to help every woman who is interested in improving her good looks. She issues an invitation to all women to visit her during her stay. She will give private interviews to all who care to consult her. You may bring to her your problems in the care of the skin, hair, hands, figure, etc. She will outline for you a course of home treatment suited to your particular needs, giving every detail of the scientific method to correct wrinkles or other blemishes which trouble you.

Miss Johnstone will have her headquarters here at Central Pharmacy, 410 State street where she will receive visitors on Saturday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday from 10 to 5 in the toilet goods department. Appointments may be made in advance by telephoning the store.—Adv.

Voters. During the short business meeting Mrs. Orville Oglesby was named chairman of the publicity committee. The club will meet next week at the Stapleton home on Hall street. The third lesson in the series will be taken up at this time.

A pleasant affair on the Chemawa campus today was the afternoon tea at which Mrs. Louise Brickell honored Mrs. Arthur P. Wedge. With Dr. Wedge, Mrs. Wedge is spending several weeks (Continued on Page Six)

Soft lovely skin ruined by constipation—let Kellogg's ALL-BRAN bring sure relief

You can permanently rid your system of this harrowing disease.

Constipation leaves its marks upon the face. Its terrible poisons, which lead to over forty serious diseases, cause pimples, hollow cheeks, sallow skin, circles under the eyes and spots before them. Unpleasant breath, too, may be traced to constipation.

Rid your body of this frightful disease. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has brought health to thousands when all else has failed. The reason—it is ALL BRAN and nothing but ALL BRAN. That is why its results are sure. That is why doctors recommend it. It takes ALL BRAN to be wholly effective.

Try it! If eaten regularly, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring permanent relief in the most chronic cases or your grocer returns the purchase price. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. You will like its nut-like flavor. Try the recipe on every package. Sprinkle it over other cereals.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is made in Battle Creek, Michigan, and served by leading hotels and restaurants everywhere. Sold by all grocers. Buy a package today.
