LONG COMPLETES 4 YEARS SERVICE

Next Sunday, April 25, will complete four years' service for Rev. Ward Willis Long as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Salem. On Sunday night he will give a review of his four years spent here, speaking on the subject "My Four Years in Salem." During the four years just coming to a close the church has had a steady and healthy growth. Its membership has grown from about 200 to 800; its Sunday school attendance from 100 to nearly 400, the benevolent giving through church agencies from less than $1000 per year to more than $2000 during the past year.

All church indebtedness has been paid off, a new manse has been built and paid for, and $75,000 in cash and subscriptions raised toward the building of a new church.

LINEN MILL FUND GAINS OVER $20,000

ion Linens, Ltd., was in Salem last night and this morning, leaving for the east before the luncheon this noon. He has not conferred with the teams at any of the luncheons since the campaign began, but has been closely in touch with the situation. Before leaving this morning he placed in Colonel Bartram's hands a subscription for $23,500. This amount was not counted in the sum raised in Salem.

The general consensus of opinion at today's luncheon was expressed by John McNary. Indications are that the campaign will go over without serious difficulty, he stated, but continuous work will be required to do it. "The people of Salem naturally act slowly," he said. "They need time to think and proposition over. It will probably take three weeks to put the campaign completely across."

It is generally believed by the workers that once the sum raised passes the $200,000 mark, which it is hoped will occur by Monday, money will come more easily. Once get the people of Salem within striking distance of their quota, they say, and they will begin to realize that there is really a good chance that the mill is actually coming, and will take a more active interest.

Teams Law Plans

Reports made by teams present today showed that teams intend to make an average of 25 calls each before Monday noon.

A linen table cloth, set of napkins and towel were this noon offered as prizes for the team turning in the largest report Monday noon. The winning team will divide the prizes among its members. Most teams consist of three men.

Colonel Bartram announced that after a brief trip to Portland this afternoon he will return to Salem and make his headquarters here until the campaign is finished.

PIONEERS WILL FEAST AND TALK AT NEXT LUNCH

Next Monday will be Champeo day again at the chamber of commerce and once more the old timers who have lived here for 70 years or more will be guests of the chamber. Once more Oregon history will be told by those who have helped make it—the real pioneers who made the greatest trek in the history of civilization and reclaimed an empire for the world.

The leading speaker of the day will be George H. Illines, curator of the Oregon historical museum and secretary of the Oregon Historical society, himself a giddy lad of 81 years who has seen, read and talked as much or more Oregon history as any man. Joseph Stearns president of the Oregon Historical society also will talk.

In addition Judge F. H. D'Arcy, without a doubt no pioneer event is a success, will be on hand.

The old stories will be retold, probably new incidents of interest—old incidents in fact, but now in the telling—will be added to the already rich mine of Oregon historical lore.

This pioneer quest who are invited to attend must have been residents for over 70 years—not merely 70 years of age. Among those coming under the qualification who attended last year were the following:

Mrs. E. M. Vandervort, resident of Salem 73 years.

W. N. Savage, resident here for 75 years.

Mrs. J. W. Harriett, who has lived in and around Salem for 73 years.

Abner Lewis, born near Salem in 1846. He is a son of Reuben Lewis who voted right at Champeo.

Oliver Beers, born at Wheatland in 1845. He is a son of Alanson Beers, prominent in Oregon during Champeo days.

Mrs. Sarah Riley Small, resident of the city for 73 years.

Mrs. Catherine Pugh, here for 72 years. Mrs. Pugh is the oldest member of the chamber of commerce and attends the Monday luncheons.

J. N. Sharp, in Salem for 75 years.

SENATORS PLAY HERE ON SUNDAY

Sunday afternoon the Salem Senators will meet the Vancouver club on the Oxford park diamond, according to Gayle Van Fatten, president of the board of directors of the club. The Senators were scheduled to meet them here last Sunday but the grounds were too wet. Votes were taken this week and it was decided to put the season back one week to make up this game.

The Senators will all be here and they are hoping to take the Vancouver club into camp. The Vancouver club is managed by Rip King, former backstop for the Portland Beavers. Blanchard, who was ill for the opening game, is now up and around and is expected to be at his position at the first sack. If Blanchard is here, Kenne will be shifted to the outfield. The game will start at 3 p. m., if the weather permits.

In the declaration filed by William O. Gallagher, attorney, Sapiro alleges that articles defamatory to his character have appeared in the Dearborn Independent. Dallas, Or., April 23.—The formal dedication of the rebuilt Methodist church will be held on May 17. Bishop Shepard of Portland and a number of other distinguished guests will be present. The new chairs are being installed this week in the church auditorium. They are neatly done with a mahogany finish, noiseless, folding seat with book racks and envelope holders. The choir loft is furnished with the same chairs. The old pews are being made over for the annex and the old folding chairs will be used in the dining room.

The remodeling of the building provides much additional space for church, Sunday school and social gatherings.

DOGS IN BROOKS DISTRICT LISTED

The first deputy county assessor to report in a listing on dogs is the deputy from the Brooks district who reports 237 dogs in that district. He has no attempt to segregate the licensed and unlicensed dogs.

The list has been turned over to County Clerk Boyer. The various lists as compiled will be kept by the county clerk and when the new law becomes effective May 25 a check will have been made as to the licensed and unlicensed dogs. If licenses have not been paid, after May 25 the county will move in on dog owners to collect the penalty prescribed by the new statute.

In the meantime the fund for payment of claims for sheep killed by dogs is in a bad way. The court is behind in its payments, none of the claims filed last month having been paid because of lack of funds.

Such claims are paid from license money collected on dogs. The court is confident, however, that as soon as it can get action under the new law there will be sufficient funds to take care of back claims and keep up with the prosecution of new ones.

BEARCATS OPEN SEASON TODAY

The opening game of the home baseball series at Willamette university will be played against Monmouth normal school at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Coach Rathbun announced at noon today.

This game had been scheduled tentatively for some time, but the uncertainty of the weather made it impossible to state definitely whether the game would be played.

The tilt with the Oregon Agricul- tural college nine at Corvallis yesterday was called off because of rain.

Robertson will probably start the game in the pitcher's box, it was stated by Rathbun. It is thought that he will save Ellis and Kalahan for tomorrow's game against Linfield, which is to be played if weather permits. The Linfield game will be played on the Willamette diamond.

Dr. R. T. Roala of Tillamook yesterday declared after an autopsy that death had been due to a beating. He reported more than 100 welts were found on the child's body, and that the skin had been laid open on the back. Death, he said, was due to shock and congestion of the kidneys.

Dr. J. E. Shearer and H. L. Babb a chiropractor, yesterday made X-ray examinations of the head and spine of Mrs. Paton, preliminary to investigation of her sanity. Dr. Shearer would give no definite opinion.
