COURT ORDER DISMISSES INJUNCTION

Pacific Mail Loses In Attempt To Secure Modification of Decree Supporting Ship Sale.

Washington, April 23.—The final order dismissing the plea of the Pacific Mail Steamship company for an injunction against the shipping board was signed today by Justice Hitz in the supreme court of the District of Columbia.

Counsel for the Pacific Mail said they would advise the court later as to their decision on a further effort to restrain the board from consummating its sale of the five president type ships now operated by that company to the Dollar interests.

Before the order was entered Justice Hitz denied a motion which would have added the phrase "without prejudice" to the dismissal decre.

Appeal Is Denied

The court decided several ago to dismiss the Pacific Mail's plea, but withheld signing the order to allow that company to enter an appeal to the court of appeals. This appeal was not forthcoming today.

In asking for inclusion of the words "without prejudice" to the order of dismissal, the Pacific Mail attorneys asked an opportunity to consult further as to any possible legal claim they might have against the shipping board which was not covered in their bill of complaint.

Assistant District Attorney West opposed the additions of the words claiming that the bill had been considered on its merits and had been found to have no merit.

Fight Not Over.

Former Senator Stanley of Kentucky representing the Dollar interests also opposed the adding "without prejudice" to the order, holding that his client, R. Stanley Dollar, should not be required to make another trip from San Francisco in the event counsel of the Pacific Mail should think they had another grievance and should bring another suit.

Justice Hitz in declining to make the required addition, said: "I think it is about time that the Pacific Mail should fly or alight."

B. J. Lawe, who with former Senator Chamberlain of Oregon represents the Pacific Mail then anounced a conference would be held as to an appeal and notification would be given the court within the time specified by the law.

LEWIS AND MUNN TO VIE FOR BELT

Chicago, April 23—Prolongation of the dispute as to who is the world's heavyweight wrestling champion, was seen today in plans to match Ed "Strangler" Lewis and Wayne "Big" Munn for a go in the open air arena at Michigan City, Ind., May 30, with the diamond studded belt emblematic of the title, and still held by Lewis, at stake.

Although the veteran Stanislaus Zbyszko carries the title as the result of his defeat of Munn at Philadelphia, Lewis, however, has refused to turn the belt over to Munn when the giant Nebraskan took his measure at Kansas City, in January on the ground that Munn should have been disqualified for foul tactics in tossing him from the ring.

Billy Sandow, representing Lewis, is authority for the statement that the diamond championship belt will be at stake.

The veteran Pole, in meeting his opponents in eastern cities, is believed in some quarters to have aligned himself with what is known as the eastern "wrestling trust," with Lewis and Munn holding allegiance to the western trust. If such is the case, the easterners have the title and the westerners the belt, with the outcome of the dispute a matter for the future to decide.

NEW NEWSPAPER UNION FORMED

New York, April 23.—Organization of the American inter-regional newspaper council, to serve as a clearing house of problems of 800 smaller newspapers of the United States and Canada, was announced today. The organization work has gone forward this week in conjunction with the annual meeting of the American Newspaper Publishers association, which began its second day's session today.

The regional associations represented in the council are:

The International and Daily Press association, Southern Newspaper Publishers association, Northwestern Daily News association, New England News association, Pacific Northwest Newspaper association and the Canadian Daily Newspaper association.

The council will hold annual meetings concurrently with the American Newspaper Publishers association. The question of increased postal rates will be one of the first problems considered.

DEPEW BUSY ON 91ST BIRTHDAY

New York, Apr. 23.—Chauncey M. Depew, chairman of the board of directors of the New York Central railroad and former United States senator from New York, planned to celebrate his 91st birthday today, he announced, "by plugging away at his job" entertaining "a few old cronies at dinner tonight" and leaving "providence to worry about the number of years he will live above 100."

"e used to smoke thirty cigars a day, he told reporters, drank a quart of champagne daily and ate heartily of red meat but has broken all of these habits. Ten minutes spent on "daily dozens" constitutes his only exercise. He never played golf, tennis nor base ball in his life.

Mr. Depew professed great admiration for President Coolidge and Vice President Dawes and said he believed absolutely in an orthodox God, as well as in evolution and thought the prohibition amendment to the constitution would never be repealed, though he said it might become a dead letter.

LOWDEN SAYS FARMERS MUST BE GIVEN HELP

New York, April 23.—A disastrous increase in the cost of living was predicted here by Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois, unless aid is given the farmers in organizing for the cooperative marketing of their products.

The former governor, speaking last night at the annual dinner of the bureau of advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers' association, said that American agriculture was decaying, that farm bankruptcies had increased 600 per cent in recent years and that farms are being abandoned in increasing number all over the country
