

From the Richest and Best Part of the State

News from Nearby Valley Points

By Capital Journal's Special Correspondents

SALEM HI FINDS SILVERTON EASY SCORE IS 18 TO 3

The Salem high school baseball nine swamped the Silvertown team on the Oxford grounds yesterday afternoon and defeated them by a score of 18 to 3 in five innings. Moster, Silvertown twirler was unable to find the plate for more than a couple of balls at a time and walked five men and hit one in the first inning when the red and black scored four runs on one hit by Drager.

In the first inning Ellis got into trouble when the first man up got on base when Louis Girod fell and was unable to get up in time. He passed the ball to his brother but Ellison was safe by a hair. Woods got a double and put Ellison on third with us one out. Odell got a fielder's choice and Ellison went out at the plate. Woods on third. Moster, fanned. Brady went out to Rodgers at first unassisted.

In their half of the first the locals scored four runs when Louis Girod and Paul Girod walked. Drager got a single and Louis Girod scored. Gould hit one down the first base line which Woods gathered in and he was out. Heenan and Kelly walked, filling the bases. Kitchin was hit by a pitched ball and Paul Girod scored. Rodgers walked and Drager scored. Heenan scored when Bloyer let the ball get through him. Ellis went out at first.

The high school made twelve runs in the second when every batter crossed the plate at least one time. L. Girod walked for the second time. Paul Girod walked and both runners advanced on a passed ball. Drager flew out to second base. Gould got a Texas leaguer in the center scoring both Girods. Heenan got a hit and Gould scored. Kelly doubled and Heenan scored. Kitchin walked. Rodgers walked, filling the bases. Ellis walked forcing Kelly. Louis Girod got up for the second time in this inning got a ticket to first for the third time forcing in Kitchin. Drager got a hit and Rodgers and Ellis scored. Gould got a two-bagger and Drager crossed the plate. Heenan got a home run over the right field fence scoring Gould ahead of him. This ended the scoring in this inning for the locals. Twelve runs on five hits.

Buttinton sent in a new team and they still continued to hit the pill. Kitchin got a run in the third inning and Frank Girod, who went in for Heenan scored in the fourth.

The Silvertown nine scored two runs in the third when Woods, first man up was hit. Odell beat out a hit and they were both safe. McCoy got a hit but both crossed the plate. In the fourth inning the visitors tumbled again when Taylor passed two men and Green got a single.

The lineup for yesterday's game follows: L. Girod, ss; P. Girod, 2b; Drager, left field; Gould, center field; Heenan, 3b; Kelly, catcher; Kitchin, left field; Rodgers, first base and Ellis and Taylor pitchers. Silvertown—Edison, pitcher; first; Odell, third; Moster, pitcher; Brady, left field; Bloyer, catcher; Johnson, ss; Martin, center and Green right field.

REIGELMAN-McDONALD PROGRAM APPRECIATED

Perry Prescott Reigelman and Lynnas McDonald of Salem entertained a large audience last night at the West Salem Methodist church. Mr. Reigelman with his dramatic reading and Mr. McDonald with his songs. The two entertainers have long been recognized as artists in their line, but only of late have they effected a team arrangement and are rapidly gaining a reputation that is bringing them calls for entertainments from all parts of the valley.

Mr. Reigelman is particularly strong with dialect selections, either as a vehicle for humor or pathos, though he also put over the more dramatic with impressive effect on his audience.

Mr. McDonald has a pleasing group of songs for every audience and delighted alike the children and the older persons who heard him. He was especially pleasing with rousing sea songs or selections such as "Mandalay" that stir the pulse.

Liberty News

Several from this community attended a dance at Tumble Inn, near Albany, last Wednesday night.

Claud Stevenson and family will soon move to their farm in the Prospect district.

Mr. Haag's mother, who has been confined to her home at Dallas, is still bedfast, being no better.

Friday evenings for an indefinite time there will free Bible lectures on current events given at Liberty hall. They will begin at 7:45 o'clock.

Miss Dorothy Erskine and Miss Velleda Ohmart were guests of Mrs. Erskine at a school entertainment at Middle Grove last Friday evening. They both assisted, giving numbers on the program.

St. Paul Bank Robbed
St. Paul, Minn., April 25.—Three men held an employee and patrons of the City Bank of St. Paul, Friday, and escaped with $15,000 in currency.

R-33 Breaks Loose in Storm

The British Zeppelin, R-33, sister ship of the R-34, first dirigible to make a round trip across the Atlantic, broke loose from her mooring mast at Pulham, Norfolk, Eng., during a terrific gale, and was swept out over the North Sea. The accident was almost identical with that sustained by the American dirigible Shenandoah, which was torn from its mooring mast at the naval air station at Lakehurst, N. J. The R-33, which has been undergoing extensive alterations for a year, was shortly to have been flown to India. She is pictured here moored to the very mast from which she broke loose. There were twenty men on board.

WEST SALEM NEWS

West Salem Or., April 25.—One of the most enjoyable social functions of the season was given by Mrs. Horace Woolley at her home on Front street Wednesday afternoon. The party was given as a farewell to her mother-in-law, Mrs. Woolley, who leaves soon for her home in Alabama after an extended sojourn with relatives and friends in this locality. The dining table was made very attractive by a centerpiece of red tulips, white narcissus and blue flags, while the rest of the room carried out the spring-like atmosphere by beautiful baskets of lilacs and narcissus. The ladies enjoyed a very happy afternoon with their fancy work and in an old-fashioned social way. Miss Ruth Bedford entertained the guests by instrumental music and at an early hour an elaborate luncheon was served. The guests were: Mrs. M. A. White, Mrs. F. M. Moore, Mrs. Edward Brock, Mrs. Huston, Mrs. J. R. Bedford, Mrs. Mary Billings, Mrs. R. A. Hunt, Mrs. Walker Fives, Mrs. Woolley, Mrs. Horace Woolley and daughter, Jennas.

Honoring the birthday of their daughter, Jessie Cannel, Rev. P. L. Cannel and wife entertained a number of her little playmates on Monday evening. The little girls spent a very merry evening with music and games, after which a dainty luncheon was served. The guests were: Della Weathers, Ruth Englehorn, Reba Thurman, Lois and Charlotte Smith, Dorothy Robertson, Emaline Ogden, Eva Arnold, Mary Jane Canfield, Helen Moyer, Alberta and Elsie Hobbie, Gertrude and Jessie Cannel.

The folks of the community gave an old-fashioned pound party on the Methodist minister, P. L. Cannel and wife on Wednesday evening. Quite a few folks turned out and showered them with groceries and canned fruit. The evening was very pleasantly passed away with games and music and at an early hour a basket luncheon was served. Several girls of the Epworth league collected a purse and gave it to Mrs. Cannel to show their appreciation of her.

Mrs. W. D. Phillips, of Seventh street, was agreeably surprised Sunday when her near relatives gathered at her home to celebrate her fifty-fourth milestone. Each family brought well-filled baskets

Deaden Bath-room Noise this Way

Use Celotex in the construction of the walls, as a plaster basis. This material is a very effective sound deadener. Too it has good insulating qualities, when used in the outer walls of a frame house, making it warmer in winter and cooler in summer.

Let us show you further how Celotex can save you money in Home building.

Oregon Gravel Co.
Hood at Front Street

SILVERTON NEWS

Silvertown, Or., April 25.—(Special)—Forty members and their wives of the Silvertown unit of the Lutheran Brotherhood surprised Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Nelson at their new home on East Oak street Thursday night. A coffee percolator was left as a remembrance of the evening. Rev. George Henriksen made the presentation speech to which Mr. Nelson responded. Mr. Nelson is president of the Silvertown Brotherhood.

Mrs. Inez Reynolds is at Silvertown for a visit with her son, Charles Reynolds. Mrs. Reynolds has been making her home in Los Angeles for the past year. She made the trip to Silvertown by boat and reports a rough voyage. Thursday evening Mrs. Reynolds was honor guest at a dinner party at which Mr. and Mrs. William Service were hosts. Guests were Mrs. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Irish and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Latham.

At a recent meeting of the Silvertown chamber of commerce a committee was appointed to arrange for an Oregon products dinner to be held at Silvertown at a later date. Those on the committee are Julius Alm, G. G. Allen, H. B. Kottek, Holo Axely, R. B. Duncan and L. M. Kaufman.

Hugh Latham has accepted a position with the Eastman Brothers to represent the firm in the sale of the "Eastman E-Z-Start fire chutes." Mr. Latham will have the Washington territory.

W. N. Arbuthnot, manager of the J. C. Penney company store at Silvertown, has just returned from the regional buying convention which has been in session for eight days in Portland. Of the spring styles Mr. Arbuthnot has to say: "Fashion experts have declared every color in the rainbow, and some that have never been detected there, to be stylish, but black must be laid aside. This applies to a woman's hosiery and other accessories as well as to her coats, dresses and millinery. Some of the intriguing names given to the new colors are 'tiger's eye,' 'golden blue,' 'desert sand,' 'ashes of roses,' 'wigwam,' 'lilac,' 'golden blue' and 'gingersnap.' Skirts are limited in length only by the willfulness of women to wear them."

Charles Vaughn, of the L. C. Warner company of Seattle, was at Silvertown this week straightening up the business of the company. Mr. Fender of McMinnville, who died suddenly at his home Saturday night, formerly had charge of this territory. It was due to his death that Mr. Vaughn came to Silvertown.

Albert Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Moore, underwent an operation for the grafting of skin on an eyelid. Mr. Moore was injured in an accident last fall when he received an injury to the eyelid. The operation is reported as being successful.

Miss Edna Hartley and Almon Balch were married at Vancouver.

Mrs. Hamer of Eola, Thursday, honoring Mrs. Hamer's anniversary.

Mr. Hunt and Rev. Cannel made a business trip to Lafayette recently.

Mrs. Brannon, who has been ill is better. Others ailing are Mrs. Hobbie, Mrs. Creamy and Mrs. George Chapman.

Mr. Maretz is making an extensive addition to his house on State street.

When Better Automobiles Are Built, Buick Will Build Them

No. 5

Mr. Fredericksen of Canby has rented the Emmitt Dickson house and taken possession.

A. D. Leach is visiting relatives at Dayton, Or.

Jessie and Gertrude Cannel were Sunday dinner guests at Edward Hamer's of Eola.

Mrs. Louella Boatright called at the James Smith home Monday.

Quite a few folks from here are busy training hops at Eola yards.

Mr. and Mrs. William Andrews were guests of the former's brother, Noble Andrews of Fruitland, Sunday.

The foreman of the West Side cannery wants everyone in West Salem to register soon who wish to work when the first season opens up. Work is progressing fast on the repairing of the plant.

Mrs. Crossan and Mrs. King of Salem called on their old friends, Mrs. Hunt, last week.

Mrs. Edward Brock was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and ner on Monday evening. The committee in charge will include Mrs. Ebnor, Mrs. John Diehl, Mrs. Carl Ertelt, Mrs. Henry Craig, Mrs. Jack Eisen, Miss Anna Erwert and Miss Veronica Diehl.

Mrs. J. H. McArthur has returned to her home after visiting for several days in Portland with her son, Lindsay, who is a student at the University of Oregon medical school.

The committee in charge of the affair included Mrs. Geo. Lassus, Mrs. Peter Koppes, Mrs. John Begin, Mrs. R. J. Welton, Mrs. J. A. Kaiser, Miss Frances Sauser and Miss Irene Butsch.

The four-act play, "Poor Father," presented by the firemen at the school auditorium last Sunday evening was given at Stayton on Wednesday evening. A number of local folk motored to Stayton with the actors.

Ed Barth came down from Portland on Sunday to get Mrs. Barth and their children, who had been spending the week with Mrs. Barth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Diehl.

Henry Hutton moved into the home he recently purchased from Oscar Redfield, Friday of this week. Mr. Hutton is captain of company I of the Oregon national guard.

George Hauge and Mrs. Esther Weaver motored to Portland Friday. They brought the small son of Mr. Hauge's home with them to spend the week-end at Silvertown.

Willow Grimm, who has been organist at the Gem theater for the past few months, has accepted a position at Albany. Miss Steele of Portland replaced Mr. Grimm.

Walter Toft, son of L. A. Toft at Silvertown, has accepted a position in a cannery company in Idaho. Mr. Toft was formerly with the Silvertown Foods Product company and his new work is an advancement.

Mt. Angel News

Mt. Angel, Or., April 25.—(Special)—Mrs. Mary Oswald, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, (Louise Oswald) and Mrs. Ed Gaffney, (Anna Oswald) and her two children stopped over night at the Otto Oswald home this week on their way to their homes in Portland after enjoying a two weeks' motor trip through southern California.

Twenty-one tables of five hundred players enjoyed the card party in the school auditorium on Thursday evening sponsored by the local court of the Catholic Daughters of America. First prizes were won by Mrs. Persyn and Matt Beyer. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. William Terhaar and Frank Aman.

Fifteen women, members of the altar society, met at the home of Mrs. Lena Unger on Wednesday to sew on the church lines.

Miss Carrie Sechtem and Miss Elizabeth Keber of Portland spent the last week-end in Mt. Angel.

Edward L. Edland of Tacoma spent several days this week in Mt. Angel and at his ranch above Scotts Mills which is rented by George Helsey.

John Unger and Charles Gilles were Salem visitors on Wednesday.

The Catholic Daughters of America will have a social meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. E-

Are You One?

300 car owners installed Bronseal piston rings this last week, thus cutting down their gas bills. Come in and get a set for your car.

W. E. BURNS—DAN BURNS
(Not Brothers—the Same Man)
High St. at Ferry Salem, Ore

SUMMER Is Just Around the Corner

Don't Wait Until You Need Your Car Every Day

Let us put it in shape for summer driving so that you will not be interrupted during the summer months. We Guarantee All Work.

Salem Automotive Service
271 Chemeketa Phone 361 or 1949-J

Modern

The sedan type funeral car that we place at the disposal of those who call upon us is the modern version of the old-fashioned hearse.

It is less conspicuous, and has far more dignity and beauty. In every way this piece of modern equipment serves better and more satisfactorily.

WEBB'S FUNERAL PARLORS
"Superior Funeral Service"
205 So. Church Street
Phone 120

WE HAVE A PIANO

For That New Home

In our stock of pianos you will find just the size, finish and design to match your interior or your furniture. No home is complete without a piano and nothing will give so much pleasure to all the family.

Our stock consists of over two hundred Pianos of the very latest finishes and designs, from a good medium priced piano at $275 to the Knabe ampico at $3,600. It will not obligate you in anyway to visit our salesrooms and see for yourself what a complete selection of fine pianos we have.

TERMS WHEN DESIRED

GEO. C. WILL

Everything Musical 432 State Street Everything Musical
Your Leading Music Dealer for 44 Years

Question: Why do you hear Buick mentioned favorably in every motor-car conversation?

Answer: Buick's twenty-one years of invariable quality and outstanding reliability are common knowledge. Buick beauty captures the eye on every highway in America. Buick owners are insistent in their praise of this famous motor car.

OTTO J. WILSON
388 N. Commercial Street Phone 229