Elaborate Dance Given Last Night

Derby hall was never more beautiful than it was last night when Mrs. Will Hamilton, Mrs. W. T. Greer and Mrs. P. A. Elker entertained at a formal spring dance. The Japanese garden setting was enhanced by the dozens and dozens of wicker baskets, ferns and huge jardiniere filled with purple iris, pink tulips and bright wreaths of every nook and cranny. The orchestra was literally banked with iris and tulips. The soft lights filtering through the ceiling of pink streamers and huge Japanese umbrellas spread to their full width only seemed to accentuate the beauty of the frocks and gowns worn by the dancers.

The room adjoining the main ball room was attractively and comfortably transformed into a large living room. Floor lamps, large chairs and divans, Oriental rugs, secured an effect that was most attractive.

Following the dance the guests were taken to the Gray Belle where Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Greer and Mrs. Elker were hostesses at a charming supper party. Here the pastel color plan was carried out with blue iris, dainty colored tulips and bright wreaths placed in crystal holders. Blue and yellow and pink candles were used in crystal holders.

A hundred prominent Salem people were the guests at the affair which was one of the loveliest of the entire year.

Mrs. Marian Derby was elected president of the Past Matrons' association at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. James Godfrey on Friday evening. Mrs. Ance Vasa was chosen vice president and Mrs. Cordelia Cupper was re-elected secretary. Mrs. Derby succeeds Mrs. W. Carlton Smith as president of the association.

Mrs. E. T. Barnes is the guest in Seattle of her daughter, Mrs. Willard Seton Kaufman. Mrs. Barnes will be with Mrs. Kaufman until she recovers from a recent injury to her knee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford spent the week end at Neekowin. As their guests they entertained Prof. and Mrs. J. A. Batchelor and their four children of Corvallis.

In a program which will be given in the high school auditorium tonight at eight o'clock, Salem people will have the opportunity to hear the musical numbers which won four first prizes, a number of second and third for the Salem high school when they entered the state high school music contest at Forest Grove recently. All of the numbers which were entered at the contest will be given in the program tonight. Miss Lena Belle Tartar is director of music in the high school.

Mrs. Thomas B. Kay has entered the Portland Medical hospital for treatment. Her many friends will be happy to hear that the trip to Portland was taken without any ill effects to Mrs. Kay.

Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Young and children, Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Forster, Kenneth Richardson, Mrs. L. Garretson and little granddaughter, Geraldene Sumner, all of Portland, were the Sunday guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Goffrier. Mrs. Young, Mrs. Forster and Mrs. Garretson are sisters of Mrs. Goffrier.

Mrs. M. E. Gunnell, Miss Kathryn Gunnell, Mr. Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. Trover, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cronise, J. O. Brown and J. A. Brockman motored to McMinnville on Saturday to attend the monthly meeting of the Willamette valley photographers' association. Following a banquet at the Yamhill hotel the meeting was called to order at the Trullinger studio by the association president, Miss Kathryn Gunnell. It was reported that ninety percent of the valley photographers are now members of the association. The president of the Pacific international association, D. Perry Evans of Portland, made a brief talk on the plans for the San Francisco convention. What the association is doing in Portland was outlined by Jacob Ganzler, president of the Portland commercial photographers. The next meeting will be held in Tillamook on May 23.

BABY USED TO CRY ALL NIGHT
Pimples on Face and Limbs. Cuticura Heals.

"Pimples broke out on the side of my baby girl's face and later on her limbs. They hebed something terrible and she used to scratch them causing the trouble to spread, and also irritate it. Her itching aggravated the breaking out on her limbs and she used to cry about all night."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more, and after using one and a half boxes of Ointment and one cake of Soap she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Bennie Shuburn, 4039 W. 115th St., West Park, Ohio, Aug. 27, 1924.

Mrs. Hofer Entertains Bridge Club

A group of prominent Salem women were the guests of Mrs. R. M. Hofer yesterday when she entertained the Monday bridge club at bridge and tea in her home. Lovely yellow tulips were used in baskets and bowls about the living rooms of the Hofer home.

Special guests of Mrs. Hofer and the club were Mrs. David Eyre, Mrs. Hal D. Patton, Mrs. William Bell and Mrs. Hollister E. McGuire of Oakland, California. The guest prize was won by Mrs. Eyre.

Club members in the group, some of whom came in only at the tea hour, were Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Frits Slade, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. Frank Speare, Mrs. Keith Powell, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., and the hostess, Mrs. Hofer.

Mrs. Speare will be hostess to the club next Monday.

The home concert of the Willamette university women's glee club will be given tomorrow night in Waller hall. The concert is the last of an active season for the club, and will be featured by a number of new ideas introduced into the program and setting. Several weeks ago the organization took an extended tour up the Columbia river and into Washington, taking two weeks for the trip and being pronounced a decided attraction wherever the club appeared.

Tomorrow evening's program will consist, aside from ensemble numbers, of instrumental and vocal solos, and a stunt entitled "Dutch Love," by Miss Trieta Wenger and Miss Aldeane Smith. Miss Sadie Jo Read will give an entertaining reading. Miss Helen Selig, well known locally for her violin playing, will play several attractive numbers on her instrument. Miss Fay Sparks and Miss Gladys McIntyre, both of whom graduated from the Willamette school of music this year, will sing solos. Solos will also be sung by Miss Trieta Wenger, Miss Fay Spaulding and Miss Aldeane Smith. Miss Mildred Grant is accompanist for the club.

The concert will begin at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Alice Reeves was hostess to a most interesting meeting of chapter AB of the P. E. O. sisterhood last night when she entertained in her home. Attractive spring flowers were arranged about the living rooms for the occasion.

Hostesses of the afternoon will be Mrs. J. N. Robertson, Mrs. A. M. Reed, Mrs. Coates, Mrs. Elbert Powell and Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger.

From Paris comes the word that Mr. and Mrs. Arline Goye of Salem, are guests at the Hotel Claridge there.

The West Salem home of Mrs. Ernest Peterson was the scene of a delightful affair yesterday when Mrs. Peterson entertained the Community bridge club. Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. William Marshall, Mrs. Corydon Blodgett and Mrs. Arthur Utley.

Fleur de lis and Scotch broom were attractively arranged about the rooms. High bridge score of the afternoon was won by Mrs. Corydon Blodgett. Club members who were guests of Mrs. Peterson were Mrs. James Imiah, Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, Miss Nellie Taylor, Mrs. Lou Grote, Mrs. C. C. Page, Mrs. M. C. Pettys and Mrs. N. P. Adams.

Yesterday was the last regular meeting of the year. The final at club meeting will be held a week from Saturday in the evening when the six club members having lowest scores will entertain the six high score winners and their husbands. Hostesses at the evening affair will be Mrs. Moe Adams, Mrs. Ed Pratt, Mrs. M. C. Pettys, Miss Nellie Taylor, Mrs. James Imiah and Mrs. Ernest Peterson.

Miss Bertha Babcock was the honor guest at a pleasant surprise party given for her at her home on Saturday, her fifteenth birthday anniversary. Games and dancing occupied the guests until a late hour when a supper was served.

In the group were Miss Bertha Babcock, the honor guest, and Miss Dorothy Besehardt, Miss Loretta Mathis, Miss Margaret Morehouse, Miss Katherine Elgin, Miss Henrietta Bishop, Miss Doris Hicks, Mrs. Gertrud Oehler, Kenneth Webb, Samuel Barry, Reubin Hilfiker, Kehne Wain, Orson Cummins, Delbert Vlesko, Anetia Walker, Ray Nadon and Gould Morehouse.

Miss Miriam Swartz of Portland spent the week end with Salem relatives and friends.

Always A Successful Dessert Because it Jells Well

SCORES of tempting dishes—every one a delight—are made with Jell-well. Six delicious fruit flavors for your choice.

And Red-Box Jell-well is always successful, because it always jells well. No failures, never a doubt about this dessert.

We use only the purest gelatine it is possible to obtain. Note its flavor fragrance when the hot water is added.

Try Jell-well and see.

You'll serve it often then. Pure, certified colors make this dessert as good to look at as it is to eat. And it's dainty and healthful after a hearty meal.

Make any of the six flavors plain at first. See how delicious and clear Jell-well is. Then add fruits for variety. You can serve many combinations that will make Jell-well for dessert a favorite in your home.

Your grocer has Red-Box Jell-well. Choose any of the six flavors—to see how good we make this dessert.

... when city lungs drink deep of country air... when work-worn appetites wake up... some folks say M-J-B never tastes quite so good as then!

M-J-B

meets every taste in coffee

Your appetite may vary with the work or pleasure of your day—but your coffee-taste is always the same. Because your coffee-taste is you.

It is because people differ so in their coffee-tastes that M-J-B has worked for years to produce a coffee blend of constant flavor.

M-J-B is a top-crop coffee from first bean to final blend. Yet it is really many-coffees-in-one. Each coffee is used for a special quality-reason. Some contribute aroma. Some bring "body." But the final flavor is the same each time.

And it is this never-fail-to-be-the-same flavor that has made M-J-B stand for coffee contentment. Drink it as you will—strong, mild or in-between—with cream or without—the same rich, full-bodied flavor will always be there to greet you. But the strength per cup is up to you—to your taste in coffee.

Vacuum packed by a special process invented and owned by M-J-B. This keeps the coffee full strength and flavor fresh always!

And don't forget TRAE Tea Orange Pekoe [Black] or Japan [Green] meets every taste in tea
