Week Marked By Varied Activities

Standing on the threshold of summer, Salem society hesitates a bit before closing the door upon all the activities that brighten the gloomy winter months. With May upon us and June in the offing comes the assurance of the long warm summer days. Drawing rooms and hearts fire will be forsaken for the open road, the beach, and the mountains.

Although summer is always welcome the change is not unaccompanied by pangs of regret. The winter has been a joyous one with a continual round of luncheons, teas, dinners, bridge parties and dances and the week which closes today is significant of the reluctance with which Salem matrons desire these pleasures for summer diversions.

Elaborate formal dances, several luncheons, number of bridge parties, a host of informal dinners, all events of the past week are sufficient proof that winter functions still retain their fascination in Salem social circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Eiker and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grier were hosts at a formal dance in Derby hall on Monday evening followed by a supper party at the Gray Belle. Last night Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White entertained more than a hundred of the younger set at a formal dance in Derby hall. Mrs. John J. Roberts was hostess at one of the larger luncheons of the week when she entertained at a sixteen cover luncheon in her home on Thursday, and today more than forty Salem matrons are the guests of Mrs. Elmo S. White, Mrs. Mary Lisle and Mrs. L. W. Potter at a luncheon honoring Mrs. Russell Catlin, who has been regent of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution during the past year.

Unmistakable evidences of summer are found, however, in the number of bridge clubs and bridge luncheon clubs that have definitely suspended activities until autumn. Meanwhile summer wardrobes are the all encompassing subjects of discussion and road maps, time tables and summer hotel circulars are receiving an unusual amount of attention.

Pastor Raps Romper Costumes

MINSTREL FROLICS of 1925. When the Rev. Thomas C. Clark, of the exclusive Tacoma Park Presbyterian Church, Washington, witnessed a rehearsal of the "Minstrel Frolics of 1925," which was to be presented in the community hall of the church, he promptly made known his objection to full grown young women returning to "mudpie days," particularly if their costumes were nothing more than oversized rompers, beneath which pink knees bared themselves. His action has caused a split among the members of the church, one faction holding that the girls should wear stockings while the other brands him as too "puritanical." Officer E. H. Burdick is shown inspecting the much-discussed rompers.

Mrs. Catlin Is Honored At Luncheon

Nearly forty members of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, were the guests today at a most attractive May day luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Russell Catlin, chapter regent, by Mrs. L. W. Potter, Mrs. Mary Lisle and Mrs. Elmo S. White.

Two large tables and two smaller ones were laid at Mrs. Lisle's home. Centering each was a tulle, gay May pole with ribbon streamers of lavender, yellow and green leading from the pole to the tiny dolls dressed in fluffy lavender, green and yellow, which marked each place. Lavender and yellow gossamer were attractive about the bases of the poles. Dainty nut cups in combining colors complemented the effect. Candles in wall sconces and in candelabras shed a soft glow over the room.

Seated at Mrs. Catlin's right was Mrs. U. G. Shipley who was chapter regent last year. Another place of honor was occupied by Mrs. Seymour Jones, state regent. During the luncheon hour short toasts were given by prominent chapter members.

A short business meeting was held at Mrs. White's home during the afternoon. Blue iris and red tulips were lovely in the living rooms of the White home.

Fifty members of the classical club of Willamette university met last night at the home of Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Kirk for the first regular meeting. Tulips and iris were lovely in the living rooms of the Kirk home.

A short business meeting preceded the program. Miss Ida C. Comstock, president, presided and the constitution was read and approved and the matter of a club pin was taken up and a committee appointed to look into the matter.

The program consisted of the following numbers: a talk by the president, Miss Comstock.

Greek ideals of life: Beauty, Josephine Zimmerman, Wisdom, Rosa Ricco, Penx ex Jersey, Allyn Moede, Liberty, Robert Witty, Piano solo, Bethel Mayes.

Roman ideals of life: Law, Donald Grant, Government, Willa Foster.

Several numbers were given by the club octet.

During the refreshment hour Mrs. Kirk was assisted by Mrs. Woodworth and Miss Ruth Heinkeck.

The last meeting of the club year of the Linger Longer bridge club was held on Thursday. Mrs. Daisy McIntyre and Mrs. Jack Nash were hostesses to the club members at a one o'clock luncheon at the Colonial Dame tea shoppe and an afternoon of bridge was enjoyed at Mrs. McIntyre's home.

Mrs. Damon Fleenor won high score and low went to Mrs. W. F. Brietake.

In the group were Mrs. J. E. Maddison, Mrs. Fred Drager, Mrs. E. M. Hammer, Mrs. J. H. West, Mrs. Damon Fleenor, Mrs. Homer Ingrey, Mrs. L. W. Simeral, Mrs. William Yarnell, Mrs. W. F. Brietake, Mrs. George Vlesko and the hostesses, Mrs. Nash and Mrs. McIntyre.

Judge and Mrs. Henry J. Bean left this morning for Pendleton to spend a week. They will be the guests at the ranch of their son, Hawley Bean, near Pendleton. They are making the trip by motor.

Mrs. White Hostess at Formal

More than a hundred of the younger set were the guests of Mrs. Ralph White at the May day formal dance given in Derby hall last night. Lovely spring decorations arranged in a Japanese garden effect made a charming background for the dancers. Tulips, iris and spirea arranged in tall baskets added an additional touch.

A clever feature of the evening was the finding of the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow by little Miss Zoe Daniels and little Miss Margery Webb. The pot contained a fortune for all the men present—a coin for each with the name of the girl who was to be his next partner.

Guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Roberts, Mrs. Vera Prunk, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mellogg, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. DeMara, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. C. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Slater, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Purvine, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Goodman, the Misses Valeria Briggs, Molly Schwabauer, Olga M. Gray, Ruth Hoffmann, Marjorie Webb, Mardette Heenan, Marjorie Hollister, Kreta Jackson, Dorothy Swabe, Maxine Glover, Marvell Edwards, Hazel George, Retha Nash, Josephine Jaskoel, Ann Storgard, Melba Davenport, Jane Hillpot, Wanda Jean Heberlein, Frances Laws, Elsie Boynton, Reta Claggett, Vivian Nelson, Audrey Pomeroy, Luella Patton, Rosalie Jones, Kathryn Savage, Pauline Marsch, Dorothy Swabe, Maxine Glover, Maxine Myers, Margaret Pierce, Fay Wassom, Lorena Geer, Aida Nash, Ethel McGary, Marie Briggs, Hattie Brown, Elsie Victor, Florence Cartwright, Vivian Hargrove, Edith Brotherton, Lorena Geer, Dorothy Hines, Leona Geer, Gwendolyn Harris, Hortense Bean, Laura Marr, Irma Rothenberg, Nancy Savage, Gertrude Barkley, Katherine Savage, Fay Weiz, Lucile Anderson, Maxine Myers, Margaret Tucker, Neva Millard, Hazel Martin, Jennie May Hoppes, Nancy Thieleen, Dorothy Bell and Marie Hitchcock.

Larson, Morris McKenney, Frank Durbin, Jr., LeRoy Gard, J. O. Hayes, Jr., and L. H. Nelson.

Miss Elsie Boynton entertained the T. H. D. club members in her home one evening this week. Miss O. Vokel was a special guest. Club members in the group were Mrs. Bertha Miller, Miss Marlow Miller, Miss Edna Warden, Mrs. Emma Siegmund, Miss Rita Claggett, Miss Irene Boje, Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Frances Plov, Miss Doris Bowden and hostess, Miss Elsie Boynton.

Until the refreshment hour the guests enjoyed sewing and conversation.

Mrs. Henry Geisler and her daughters, Ruth and Eleanor, are the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ives at their home in Corvallis.

John Graber's country place two miles south of town was the scene of a May morning breakfast yesterday. The young people's society of the First Baptist church took their breakfast out in the woods; twenty five young people were present.

Mrs. Florence Spencer spent last night in Salem enroute to Portland to visit her sister, Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. Spencer who has been spending two months in southern California, motored up with her nephew.

Beethoven Society Banquets

Covers were laid for thirty-five at the banquet of the Beethoven society at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe last night. Tulips and iris centered the long table and candles shed a soft glow over the diners.

Miss Frances Virginia Melton served as toastmaster and called for responses from the following: Miss Kathryn Kirk and Miss Mildred Tomlinson on "magic medicine," Miss Florence Young on an "utterly obvious," subject; Miss Kathryn Rossmann and Miss Helen Sellig on the subject of "Shocking Symptoms"; Miss Gladys McIntyre on locals of Beethoven and Miss Volena Jenks and Miss Fay Sparks spoke on Challenges.

Seated about the long table were Miss Melton, Mrs. Poindexter, Mrs. Emory Hobson, Miss Ethel Marks, Miss Lena Gilbert, Miss Elizabeth Vinson, Miss Louise Findley, Miss Helen Sellig, Miss Mildred Tomlinson, Miss Gladys Gilbert, Miss Anna Howell, Miss Katherine Kirk, Miss Gladys McIntyre, Miss Fay Sparks, Miss Florence Young, Miss Volena Jenks, Miss Helen Nicholson, Miss Katherine Rossmann, Rosin Chaplin, Joe Neer, Dwight Findley, Jack Phillips, Lloyd Waltz, Connie Eschwig, Herbert Deal, Mervin Stolzhelke, Leland Chapin, Parker Whitaker, Lloyd Thompson, Dee Robertson, and Henry Hartley.

Mrs. Barr Entertains At Bridge

One of the most delightful bridge parties of the month was an event of yesterday when Mrs. Lester Barr entertained four tables in her home with a group of additional guests coming in at the tea hour. The rooms of the Barr home were transformed into a spring garden with innumerable baskets and bowls of tulips, yellow and the American beauty shades, and purple iris, spirea and white narcissus.

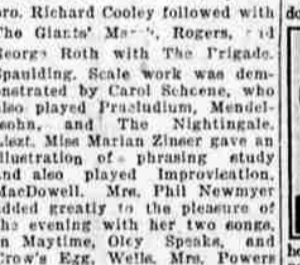

Mrs. E. M. Page and Mrs. Phil Lester were assisted by Mrs. Barr. High bridge score for the afternoon was won by Mrs. Clarence Gray. Consolation award went to Mrs. Walter Page.

Guests of Mrs. Barr for the afternoon were Mrs. Leo Page, Mrs. Clarence Gray, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Marie Rosecrance, Mrs. Claude Stenloff, Mrs. G. E. Chambers, Mrs. P. A. Eiker, Mrs. William Busey, Mrs. Henry V. Compton, Mrs. E. E. Kennell, Mrs. K. M. Graham, Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mrs. Walter Pate, Mrs. E. M. Page and Mrs. Phil Newmyer.

Additional guests at tea hour were Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. Don Young, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. Joe H. Carson, Mrs. Allen Carson and Mrs. Clifton Irwin.

Mrs. Wilhelmy Saved By Friend

St. Paul, Minn. — "I was all run-down from overwork and worry, had no appetite, could not sleep at night, and looked like a corpse. I have six children (five boys and one girl) and did not get any strength after my last baby was born. I was getting worse and thinner every day. The doctor said I had to go to the hospital, but this I could not do on account of my family. So I went to a friend of mine and told her what the doctor had told me and she said, 'Now do as I tell you.' Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as I have done. It helped me." So I started taking the Vegetable Compound and I noticed after the first few bottles that I felt considerably better. After taking 9 or 10 bottles I got over my fainting spells. Everybody who sees me now notices the great improvement in my health. I am gaining in weight and strength and am feeling fine. Eat well and sleep good nights."—Mrs. MARY WILHELMY, 309 Duke Street, St. Paul, Minnesota.
