Another Test of the Dry Law

Photo shows the party given by State Senator Gettleman, of Wisconsin, at his home in Milwaukee as a test of the Eighteenth Amendment. The Senator recently doubted the legality of the dry law and publicly announced he would test it by making for home consumption a quantity of grape wine. He claims to be wholly within his rights and within the law so far as the Eighteenth Amendment is concerned in making wine for home consumption and in inviting guests to take part in the drinking.
