

A-LOCALS

Dr. G. E. Prime was arrested last night for cutting a corner with his automobile at a street intersection. Lewis Dunn, 715 South 22nd street, and John K. Herry of Covalley were arrested for speeding. The two latter deposited $10 bail each. Charles Pettor of Eugene was arrested for speeding Sunday and deposited $10, and S. P. Kent, 737 Cross street, Salem, was arrested for the same offense. Nestor Tokstad of Silverton was arrested for driving with open cut-out and deposited $5. Frank Myers, 1154 North Commercial, was arrested for reckless driving and put up $5 bail. On Saturday night, Harvey McLoughlin of Salem and Clyde Stinson of Albany were arrested for speeding and put up $10 each as bail. Elton Tracy of 1224 North Winter was nabbed on the same charge, and Saturday afternoon A. P. Hille of Salem was fined $5 for speeding.

Wanted 20 cars for day storage at 25c per day, center of town, 241 State street. 106*

An Indian bicycle was found Saturday night back of the Arg Hotel and was brought to the police station.

The American Hatter, 514 State St. upstairs.

Sleepers at the city jail last night were George Russell and Arthur Powell.

All kinds of salad for your parties. The kind that makes you want more. A trial will convince you. Bake-rite bakery. 1 06*

A building permit was issued Saturday afternoon by City Recorder Paulsen to J. E. Scott for the construction of a one-story dwelling at 1041 South street, to cost $3993.

Wanted 20 cars for day storage at 25c per day, center of town, 241 State street. 106*

A series of "attainment tests" will be given in reading in the first and second grades of Salem public schools this week. The purpose is to determine how well the pupils measure up to standard tests in reading.

Dr. Marshall, osteopath Or. bldg.

The entire week until Friday will be spent in ironing out irregularities in the Willamette university baseball team, preparatory to the game with Pacific Friday, which is the next game on the Beavers' schedule. A track meet with Chemawa Saturday will be the first track meet of the season.

Potted plants, cut flowers, funeral designs, Adams, 453 Court. 106*

The large mowing machine used at the Illinois country club was taken to the machine shop at Salem high school this morning. It will be thoroughly repaired and adjusted at the shop. There has been some criticism that the grounds at the club have not been kept in the best of condition.

Salem Lions baseball team will have their first practice at 6 o'clock on the Willamette field.

Attention was called today to the fact that Myron Butler of Salem won third prize for the best decorated bicycle in the contest held Saturday. He had not been credited with winning the prize in the list published at that time.

Gill Bros. acclimated garden seeds. Bulk or packets. Flower seed. Lawn seed. Peary Bros., 237 State street, 1-2 block west of Commercial. 111*

Dr. O. E. Bates, in charge of the Salem branch of the United Optical company, was introduced as a new member of the Salem chamber of commerce at the chamber of commerce luncheon this noon.

Lawn seed, garden seed. Window box plants. Peary Bros., 237 State street. 111*

Mrs. Minnie Kilmer of Woodburn is visiting relatives in Salem today.

Walnut nut grafting. Peary Bros., 237 State street. 106*

Mrs. J. G. Kaufman of Woodburn was in Salem this morning.

C. C. Presley of Newberg was in Salem on private business today.

New strictly modern house for sale, buyer can select the interior finish, completed in 10 to 15 days. $3500, phone day 199, evenings 1575R or 2195W.

Hotel Bligh Arrivals

Portland, R. S. Lodge, W. A. Pearson, A. B. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Carpenter, J. K. Wood, Al Keyes, H. Keaton; Salem, George Moore, Glenn Roberts; Siuslaw, Frank M. Hooker; Albany, E. P. Anthony, Henry P. Novell; Hood River, Bert Davis; Roy, Walter; Eugene, H. W. Mather, D. M. Davall; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry M. Crowther; Coquille, Cecil V. Redden, Mrs. Jeanette M. Newton; Glendale, R. B. Foster, R. W. Peters, Frank Hatfield; Tillamook, George P. Harrison; Seaside, Mrs. Crist Lattin; Bremerton, Wm. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stokes; Seattle, A. F. Kline, Mr. and Mrs. Alice T. Mulvaney, A. Miller, Chas. C. Hill, A. E. Bieri; Fresno, P. A. Ingraham, W. S. Pope; Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Ingle; Elgin, Minn., Bert Gillingham; Chicago, Miss Alice Fredricks, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thompson, Miss Laura Pullette, Laurence Ford; Philadelphia, Pa., Royal Warren, Scott Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Hayden; New York, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson, Laurence O. Dowd, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. John Dale, Miss Margaret Carson, Miss Lucille Wayne, Geo. Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Armitage, Robert Hilbert.

The birth of a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rasmussen, of Pratum was reported to the Salem city health officer this morning. Mr. Rasmussen is a grain buyer at Pratum. The child has been named Alice Marie. The birth occurred on April 11.

Wanted 20 cars for day storage at 25c per day, center of town, 241 State street. 106*

Love The Jeweler, Salem.

General White of the Oregon national guard returned from an inspection tour of Camp Jackson Saturday afternoon. He stated that the camp will be ready for occupation by June 12 of this year.

Terwilliger undertaker phn 724

The Hayesville community club held its regular meeting Friday evening, May 1. A short business meeting was held, followed by a program. Dr. Walter Brown of the Marion County Child Health Demonstration gave a short address, emphasizing the proper care of the child's health.

Marcel 50c, call 1048W. 106

Miss Gladys Steel, superintendent of the Salem hospital, spent the week-end in Portland.

Miss Louise Williamson, a member of the State House stenographic force, spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland with Miss Elizabeth Braun who was assistant clerk in the senate during the last legislature. Miss Braun is now employed in Portland.

Walter Cline and Warren Jones were Portland visitors over Sunday. They attended the double-header between the Portland Beavers and the Vernon baseball team while there. Mr. Cline is proprietor of the terminal cafes in Salem and Eugene.

Announcement was made this morning of a Salem public school teacher not previously mentioned who has not signed her contract to return here next year. Mrs. Della Keeney has not signed her contract, and apparently does not expect to return.

Mrs. George Richards of Albany was a Salem visitor today.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hill of Jefferson were in Salem this morning.

J. H. Butler returned to Salem Saturday night after having spent nearly a year in and around Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. N. J. Marvel of Sheridan was a Salem visitor today.

Mrs. L. A. Kanoff of Mill City was in Salem today.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Blinston were in the city this morning. They are residents of Jefferson.

A letter has been sent to W. C. Franklin, owner of the tulip farm near Salem by the Salem War Mothers, thanking him for tulips which he furnished the organization during their recent convention in Salem. He sent five dozen flowers to the place of meeting, besides taking a number of women out to the tulip farm and giving each a bunch of flowers.

Uniforms that will be worn by the Salem Elks during the national Elks convention in Portland and that may be worn on other occasions as well as on display at the club rooms and also at the Bishop clothing store. The price of the suits is $13.50, and an effort is being made to have at least 100 members of the Salem lodge turned out in the suits for the parade in Portland during the convention week.

Wanted 20 cars for day storage at 25c per day, center of town, 241 State street. 106*

The following marriage licenses have been issued by the county clerk: Glenn H. Greer, 230 South Twentieth, and Gladys Stevenson, 1659 South High; Cecil C. Boyd, and Effie May Smith, both of route 5; Frederick J. Bradshaw, 1135 Leslie and Olive Margery Cherrington, Salem; J. P. Painter, 565 North Twenty-fourth and Dolie Dutton, 1590 South Cottage; Glen E. Rowland, route 7, and Wilma Alfred, route 5; Albert M. Bernham and Emily Hansen, both of route 2; Thomas R. Sun, 2413 Third street and Elaine Francis Grandstaff, route 9, and Andie R. Ball, of Turner, and Elizabeth Crowler, of Marion.

Objection has been filed in the case of Chris and Mary Fanchale against the Oregon Realty Exchange investment company to the undersigned filed on appeal, it being alleged the surety is insufficient and that Harriett Wygant as a surety has not fulfilled and does not possess sufficient property above just debts to justify.

Deceit of divorce has been granted Nelda R. Buck from Glenn A. Buck on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. She is given back her maiden name of Nelda Rickels.

County Judge Hunt has issued an order permitting the administrator of the estate of Karelle Sparks to use estate funds to fight a contest instituted against the will by Edna Bennett Williams.

A. T. Yeaton has filed complaint in circuit court against the Willamette Real Estate company and others to quiet title to property in North Salem.

The Pacific university vice club will be in Salem Friday and Saturday at Salem high school Friday morning. It was learned today. Prof.

CONVICTS LOSE IN SUNDAY GAME

The Sellwood Athletic club of Portland had little trouble in defeating the Oregon state prison nine yesterday afternoon on the prison grounds to a tune of 19 to 2. The inability of the prisoners to connect with the apple coupled with three errors was the cause of the prisoners' defeat. The timely stick work of the Sellwood nine helped increase the score. Rogers, twirler for the Sellwood nine, twirled fine ball and the prisoners were unable to connect safely. Willis started on the mound for the prison nine but was replaced by Foster, who is also the best second baseman the prisoners have. The two hurlers struck out 15 men, walked five and hit three with a pitched ball. Rogers struck out ten of the prison nine.

R. H. E. Sellwood 19 11 3
Penitentiary 2 4 3
Batteries—Rogers and Buzzell; Willis, Foster and Snyder.

H. S. Tuttle of Pacific will give a speech to the students on the value of a university education.

Chet Ridgway was arrested Saturday night for drunkenness.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, informed the board of control today that he believed petite prunes on the hospital farms would yield 70 or 75 per cent of a normal crop, but that Italian prunes are very hard hit. Blackberries, he believes, will not yield over 10 per cent or a normal crop. Strawberries will produce heavily and cherries fair.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Pressnell, who for many years have been connected with the state training school for boys, have resigned and have been succeeded by Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Colby as farmer and matron respectively. Mr. and Mrs. Pressnell are moving to southern Oregon.

Dr. G. C. Bellinger, superintendent of the state tuberculosis hospital, said at the meeting of the state board of control today that there is at present a waiting list of 60 at the hospital. Ordinarily there are many withdrawals from the waiting list in the spring, but this is not true this year. The congestion of patients is unprecedented. The board of control will this week select a site at the institution for a new pavilion provided for by the 1925 legislature.

R. C. Churchill received a permit from the city recorder today for the repair of a one and one-half story dwelling at 1140 North Fifth street, to cost $1,000. Nash & Smith received a permit for the repair of a two-story building at 219 North Commercial to cost $500.

District Attorney John H. Carson is in Oregon today.

MILLIONS WASTED BY HIGHWAY COMMISSION JUDGE CHARGES

(Continued from page one)

mistakes," he concluded, "but for God's sake look at the highway commission."

Governor Pierce was present at the luncheon.

Judge Hawkins spoke in the place of Oscar Hayer, who was to have addressed the chamber, but was called to Portland.

The entire program was given by representative of the Dallas chamber of commerce. Dr. L. A. Steeves, resident of Dallas and son of Dr. B. L. Steeves of Salem, acted as chairman. President Harcombe of the Dallas chamber spoke briefly. A. J. Kruger made a short speech, backing up the statements made by Judge Hawkins. He stated that he has been a road builder.

At the start of the luncheon several musical numbers were given by Dallas musicians. A complete list of the guests of Dallas who were present, as introduced by President Harcombe, is as follows:

A. J. Muller, L. A. Steeves, A. B. Starbuck, Tracy Staats, Mrs. W. H. Braden, secretary of the Dallas chamber of commerce, Judge George Hawkins, W. L. Scharen, Walter Muller, William Retzen, Ed Plasecki, Neut Gay, John Allgood, Henry Savory, W. Gould, Dr. C. V. Staats and E. J. Page.

CITY IN MOROCCO TO HAVE PUBLIC WATER

Melilla, Morocco.—This city, which has been in the hands of the Spaniards over 400 years, is about to be provided for the first time in its history with a public water supply. Gangs of workers are now engaged in laying cement pipes to bring the water from the Yasinien and it is hoped that within a short time the municipal authorities will be able to furnish the inhabitants with sufficient water for drinking and hygienic purposes.

Died

LOVELL.—At the residence, 643 North Winter street, May 2, Miriam Lovell age 22 years, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Geo. L. Lovell, sister of Mrs. Karl G. Becke and Margaret Lovell also Dow, Clinton and James, brothers. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, May 5th at 2:30 from the Rigdon mortuary, interment Lee Mission cemetery. Friends may view the body at the mortuary prior to the hour of the service when the casket will be closed.

TRACTOR WILL ATTEMPT TO CLEAR PASS OF SNOW

Bend, Or., May 2.—A tractor was started out early this morning to attempt to open the McKenzie pass, according to information received by the local forestry service from Sisters. The work is being done by the bureau of public roads, according to H. L. Plam, supervisor of the Deschutes national forest who talked with forestry officials at Sisters this morning.

MIRIAM LOVELL PASSES SUNDAY

Miss Miriam Lovell, for nearly 16 years a resident of Salem, graduate of Salem high school, former student at Willamette university, and daughter of Rev. G. L. Lovell, predeceased elder for the Salem district of the Evangelical church, died at her home here at 6:30 Sunday morning. She had been in poor health for a number of months, but death followed an illness lasting for the past 3 weeks. She was 22 years of age at the time death occurred.

She moved to Salem with her parents some 16 years ago, and had lived here ever since with the exception of three years, 1909-10-11, spent in Portland and a short time in Eugene.

She graduated from Salem high school in 1921, and was vice president of the senior class while in high school. Entering Willamette, she was elected vice president of her class there. She was a member of the Adeline literary society at the university.

Miss Lovell was prominent in church and Sunday school circles, being assistant superintendent of the Evangelical Sunday school. She belonged to the executive cabinet of the county Christian Endeavor. Her father was pastor of the local church for 8 years, and has been pastor of a number of other churches.

She is survived by her father and mother, Rev. and Mrs. G. L. Lovell, an elder pastor, Mrs. Carl Becke of Salem, three brothers, Dow H., Clinton H. and James, and a younger sister, Margaret Lovell.

Funeral services are to be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Rigdon mortuary. Rev. C. C. Poling, pastor of the local Evangelical church, will have charge and preach the funeral sermon. Interment will be in Lee Mission cemetery.

W. P. Hardy, 1272 Fir street, was arrested Sunday on a charge of unlawful possession of liquor and transportation of liquor, and with him was arrested Harry Walp, who is charged with unlawful possession. Walp lives at 606 South 21st street.

The semi-finals in the tournament for the Al Krause trophy, played for the second time Sunday afternoon, resulted again in a tie between Hickox and McLaughlin. The first match between the two was played two weeks ago. They will play for the third time Wednesday. They winner will meet Rex Sanford in the finals.

Yesterday's Scores.

Portland 12-10; Vercors 7-6, Los Angeles 1-2; Sacramento 3-1.

Seattle 10-2; Oakland 9-3, San Francisco 3-3; Salt Lake 10-0.

BE CAREFUL

Glenn C. Nash reports an automobile collision late Saturday on a hill on Wallace road between his automobile and one driven by Charles Stalnaker and H. L. Dickenson, both of Independence, Dickinson and Stalnaker were later arrested for drunkenness.

Duane Latourell, 350 Hoyt street, reports to the police that the sudden stopping without signal of a car ahead of him seven miles south on the Pacific highway caused him to run into the ditch to avoid a collision. Virginia Neff and Doris Hensley, who were with Latourell, were thrown out and slightly injured. He says a car coming in the other direction made it impossible for him to go around the car ahead of him.

L. A. Scheelar, 1295 North Liberty street, and Clarice Haines of Salem each blame the other for a collision between their automobiles at High and Court streets. Scheelar says the woman was driving too fast and she says he was trying to usurp the right of way.

While the automobile of J. S. Cherrington, 1354 Ferry street, was parked on the right side of the road four miles this side of Silver Creek Falls Sunday, another car came along and ran into its rear, says Cherrington's report to the police. The other car was unidentified. Its radiator was damaged.

Cars driven by Ivan M. Rickman, 545 South 15th street, and Miss Clyde Downing of Stayton collided east of the penitentiary near the Four Corners. The former says she signalled "stop" but that the other ran into her anyway because of poor brakes and too fast driving.

W. B. White, 749 South Liberty street, reports a collision at Summer and Court streets with an unidentified car.

William A. Raab of Salem reports that his automobile was hit by an unidentified car at Court and Commercial. He was driving away from the curb at the time.

MOORE TO TAKE JOB AT EUGENE

R. U. Moore, for the past two years assistant principal of Salem high school, has been elected principal of the University high at Eugene and will be there during the next school year. His salary, which was $1800 here, will be $2250 there. He will also be able to take five hours of graduate work in the University of Oregon toward his master's degree. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon.

Before coming to Salem, Mr. Moore spent six years at McMinnville, being principal of the Junior high school there for two years and high school principal for four years.

He will have on his teaching staff F. C. Weston, who last year taught civics at Washington Junior high school of Salem. Mr. L. Woodchuck has been elected principal of the University high at Eugene and will be given his B. A. degree this spring. He will be head of the social science department of University high school beginning next fall.

WARD PREACHES FIRST SERMON

The First Congregational church of Salem was packed full both morning and evening Sunday when Rev. Charles E. Ward gave his first sermons in this city.

In the forenoon Rev. Mr. Ward spoke on the subject "God's Way with Men," developing his theme by the use of a number of illustrations, and bringing out the thought that "God's way of dealing with men is the way of love, not of force."

In the evening, speaking on the subject, "Are You a Fool?" he developed the parody of the farmer who grew so much grain, and became so prosperous, that he was forced to build new barns to hold all he owned, yet became impoverished in his business to the exclusion of higher things "until the summons came. That's the reason he was a fool, the speaker concluded. "Anyone who forgets the part God plays in his life is a fool, whether he is raising crops or doing anything else."

The church was elaborately decorated with flowers.

Rev. Mr. Ward stated this morning that he has not decided definitely whether or not he will continue the former policy of the church in showing moving pictures every Sunday evening. At least for a few weeks he will give a sermon in the evening, he stated.

Yesterday's Scores.

Portland 12-10; Vercors 7-6, Los Angeles 1-2; Sacramento 3-1.

Seattle 10-2; Oakland 9-3, San Francisco 3-3; Salt Lake 10-0.

EUROPE TOLD YANKEE HELP CONDITIONAL

(Continued from Page One)

Germany are being voted in various parts of Europe, particularly France, because of the election to the presidency of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, who is asserted by some to represent those reactionary forces which are inimical to the peace and interest of at least some of the allies.

Interlocked with this idea, it has been commented, may be the fate of the security pact proposed by Germany and warmly seconded by England as a great step toward the reestablishment of real peace.

Indeed, there has been some speculation as to whether the effective working of the Dawes plan might be impaired by this fanning of the smouldering fire of distrust.

Whether Ambassador Houghton had any of these things in mind was open to conjecture. He referred to none of them but contented himself with making it plain not only that the restoration of peace was essential to the continuation of assistance from the United States, but that the answer to the question whether there was to be peace must come from the peoples of Europe themselves. If there was to be peace than America would help in the reconstruction to the extent of her ability.

Real Peace Necessary

"The full measure of American helpfulness," Ambassador Houghton declared, "can be obtained only when the American people are assured that the time for destructive methods and policies has passed and that the time for peaceful upbuilding has come."

As the guest of honor of the Pilgrims, Mr. Houghton was making his maiden address as ambassador to Great Britain. Among the most prominent gathered to welcome him, in addition to Premier Baldwin, to introduce him, were the Duke of York, former Premier MacDonald, the ambassador from Belgium, Japan, Germany, Portugal and Brazil, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Colonel Secretary Amery, Sir Auckland Geddes, Sir Samuel Hoare, the Earl of Craven and Lord Astor.

Mr. Houghton said in part: "Order has been established, and while to some extent the disorganization of international trade and markets, which came as a natural consequence of the war, still persists, marked improvement has been shown even here."

"Nevertheless, what remains to be done is almost as difficult as what already has been accomplished. It involves considerations which are more or less intangible; it involves, in particular, a changed attitude of mind, for what the war destroyed was not only human lives dreadful as was the toll, nor property, nor the forces of government, it destroyed the moment belief in one another's good faith and good faith is the cement which binds civilization together. Without unity, whether individual or national, simply fall apart."

"If human society is to function again as a whole that good faith must at least be assumed. Peace cannot come from without; it must come from within."

"Now, we in America, as you know, are not wholly without experience in the kind of problems that have been tormenting Europe. We know the meaning of the wreckage and devastation a great war brings in its train; we know what it means to borrow capital under difficult conditions; we know the meaning of depreciated money, for we saw our paper dollar shrink in value until it took almost three of those dollars to buy one gold dollar."

"We know wholly the natural unrest and resentment which these unhappy conditions create and foster. And that knowledge naturally enough has taught us to look upon the aftermath of the war in Europe sympathetically and with an honest desire to help. But—we, too, are a practical people. When we lent our savings to make it possible for the people of central Europe to get to work, it was because we knew that only in this way could Europe as a whole be made to function economically: When we lent our savings to rebuild the markets which had been destroyed, it was because we knew that in no other way could they again be enjoyed. That was necessary in the beginning; that was mere common sense. If we went at the job with a certain moral earnestness let that go to our credit."

"It is natural for us to assume that those who have suffered so much from war should seek a settlement, which so far as is humanly possible, should be free from conditions leading directly to war. To that end and in that spirit, we have helped. But we have never forgotten that there was a limit beyond which we could not go."

"The full measure of American helpfulness can be obtained only when the American people are assured that the time for destructive methods and policies has passed and that the time for peaceful upbuilding has come. They are asking themselves if that time has in fact arrived. And that question they cannot today answer. The answer must be given to them. It must come from the peoples of Europe, who alone can make the decision."

again as a whole that good faith must at least be assumed. Peace cannot come from without; it must come from within.

"Now, we in America, as you know, are not wholly without experience in the kind of problems that have been tormenting Europe. We know the meaning of the wreckage and devastation a great war brings in its train; we know what it means to borrow capital under difficult conditions; we know the meaning of depreciated money, for we saw our paper dollar shrink in value until it took almost three of those dollars to buy one gold dollar."

"We know wholly the natural unrest and resentment which these unhappy conditions create and foster. And that knowledge naturally enough has taught us to look upon the aftermath of the war in Europe sympathetically and with an honest desire to help. But—we, too, are a practical people. When we lent our savings to make it possible for the people of central Europe to get to work, it was because we knew that only in this way could Europe as a whole be made to function economically: When we lent our savings to rebuild the markets which had been destroyed, it was because we knew that in no other way could they again be enjoyed. That was necessary in the beginning; that was mere common sense. If we went at the job with a certain moral earnestness let that go to our credit."

"It is natural for us to assume that those who have suffered so much from war should seek a settlement, which so far as is humanly possible, should be free from conditions leading directly to war. To that end and in that spirit, we have helped. But we have never forgotten that there was a limit beyond which we could not go."

"The full measure of American helpfulness can be obtained only when the American people are assured that the time for destructive methods and policies has passed and that the time for peaceful upbuilding has come. They are asking themselves if that time has in fact arrived. And that question they cannot today answer. The answer must be given to them. It must come from the peoples of Europe, who alone can make the decision."

WOODRY

Buys Furniture

Phone 511

Now Playing

OREGON

"A Thief in Paradise"

LIBERTY

"The Woman On the Jury"

GRAND

"Boy of Mine"

By Booth Tarkington

WINSTON-UNIVERSAL Cross-Word Puzzle DICTIONARY

Based on the Foundation Laid by

NOAH WEBSTER

And Other Lexicographers

Modernized By

W. J. PELO, A. M. (Harv.)

BRING THIS ADVERTISEMENT WITH THIS AMOUNT TO THE CAPITAL JOURNAL OFFICE AND GET THIS NEW DICTIONARY OF 1100 PAGES.

98c

Full Definitions of Words, Synonyms and Antonyms, Mythological and Classical names, Names of Persons and Places, Terms Used in Commerce and Law, Christian Names of Men and Women, Prefixes and Suffixes, Parts of Speech, Abbreviations, etc., etc.

CAPITAL JOURNAL

NOTICE
Read Pages 6 and 7
Next Tuesday Issue Capital Journal
Then get up bright and early
Thursday Morning
IT'S COMING

It's Coming--Something Big--New--Different

WATCHE THE CAPITAL JOURNAL TUESDAY, MAY 5th

2 PAGES
YOU WILL
LONG REM