MARION HOTEL IS BEING DONE OVER

With extensive improvements under way in the rooms, halls and furnishings the Marion Hotel is now under the management of James R. Linn, Al N. Pierce, for five years manager, having gone to Corvallis to take charge of the new Hotel Benton, which he will manage there under lease.

At the Marion the same staff generally will remain in charge that has been there for a number of years, with William Kane in general control of the house. C. D. Fowle will be auditor and purchasing agent, Mrs. Baird, housekeeper, Miss Jennie Baker at the head of the dining room and Frank Tanaka as chef.

Every room in the house has been gone over and every flaw noted will be corrected. All the poorer beds and mattresses are being discarded and replaced with new ones. A reading lamp is being added to the furnishings in every room. New carpets are being placed in the halls, the halls have all been refinished and the rooms are being overhauled generally.

Mr. Linn states that special stress will be laid on service and starting today with the first one, monthly conferences will be held of all employees in order to improve the service in every possible way and in every department of the hotel.

Fez, Morocco, May 5.—(A. P.)—The Rifians are preparing to attack the French forces at three principal points, it was reported today by French aviators after General Colombat's column had engaged the invaders near Djebel Bilban to relieve French outposts still surrounded by the tribesmen.

Marshall Lyantey began again inspection of the area along the expected line of attack to satisfy himself of the French preparations for resistance and for counter attack and also to ascertain the state of mind of the local tribesmen whose uprising the invaders are attempting to cause. This possibly uprising is feared by the French authorities more than the actual onslaughts of Abd-el-Krim's forces.

Information of the French intelligence division is that one force of Rifians is assembling in the center of the front to attempt to march in the general direction of Fez. Another native force apparently is assembling to attack the French left, while a third is being formed against the French right.

The result of the first skirmishes, French authorities say, shows that Abd-el-Krim's warriors are little prepared to meet French tactics. They appeared surprised at the deadly character of French fire and although they faced General Colombat's men courageously at the beginning they broke and fled in disorder when they saw the effects of the French fire.

Today's French offensive in the Djebel Bilban region, was intended to keep open the territory around the French advanced post rather than to force a decisive combat. Most of the outposts have now been freed from envelopment by the Rifians.

It is stated that the total French losses so far have been about half a dozen men killed. After receiving reports of their earlier successes, the French authorities expressed the belief that the Rifian troops number about 20,000, although previous estimates had not credited them with more than 8000.

Four games with no defeats. Among the other barriers who have good records are C. H. Moore, Vancouver, Portland, won 2, lost none; Vinel, Sacramento, won 1, lost none; Dumovier, Seattle, won 1, lost none; McCall, Oakland, won 1, lost none; McCabe and Ponder of Salt Lake have each won 4 and lost one game; Plummer, Seattle, won 3, lost 1.
