Annual Club Meeting On Saturday

The most important meeting of the entire club year of the Salem Women's club will be held in the clubhouse on Saturday afternoon beginning at 2:30. This will be the annual meeting with the reports of officers, reports of standing committees, and the nomination, election and installation of officers for the next year.

Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, president, has issued a special request that all club members attend this meeting.

Mrs. Spaulding will open the official business by giving a brief summary of the activities of the year in which the club has been under her guidance. Other officers who will report are as follows: vice president, Mrs. W. P. Fargo; recording secretary, Mrs. Elmo S. White; financial secretary, Mrs. E. M. Page; treasurer, Mrs. O. E. Price; parliamentarian, Mrs. J. A. Churchill.

Reports of the standing committees will be given by the following chairmen: calendar, Mrs. U. G. Shipley; legislative, Miss Mattie Beatty; visiting, Mrs. F. W. Spencer; institutions, Mrs. R. E. L. Steiner; circles, Mrs. Richard Cartwright; press, Mrs. C. E. Bates; public health, Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger; music, Mrs. P. L. Newmyer; education, Mrs. George H. Alden; scholarship loan, Mrs. F. A. Elliott; and social committee general chairman, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy.

The final meeting of the year will be the May social meeting on the fourth Saturday of the month. The officers chosen next Saturday will take charge of the next meeting.

Of wide interest in Salem is the announcement made in McMinnville on Saturday at a luncheon at the Apperson home when Mrs. E. C. Apperson entertained for her daughter Miss Mildred Apperson. It was announced that Miss Apperson has chosen Tuesday evening, June 16, for her marriage to Charles G. Robertson, the only son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Robertson of Salem.

Miss Apperson is well known in Salem social circles. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon where she was prominent in campus activities. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Mr. Robertson is also a University of Oregon graduate. He is a member of Sigma Nu.

Covers were laid for twenty at the formal luncheon at which the announcement was made on Saturday. Mrs. C. H. Robertson and Mrs. Homer Gouley motored over from Salem for the event. A number of Portland guests were also present.

Miss Apperson will be the inspiration of a number of pre-nuptial affairs in McMinnville, Portland and Salem. On May 23 Mrs. Homer Gouley will entertain at tea for Miss Apperson.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Waters entertained as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Knighton of Portland, and Mrs. Mark Jones of Spokane.

The program at the meeting of Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, in the Masonic Temple tonight will include a presentation of the drill work as it was done fifty years ago. The work will be done by the 1924 matrons of Portland who will be the guests of the local chapter.

The Associated Charities board will meet on Thursday with a luncheon at the Y. W. C. A. at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Barr and two sons motored to Portland on Sunday to spend the day with friends.

Mary Talmadge Hedrick will present a group of her violin pupils in a recital in Derby studio Wednesday evening beginning at eight o'clock. Miss Lena Medler will act as accompanist.

The complete program is as follows:

Morning—A Solo, Davis; The King's Dancer, Davis; Lena Medler.

Melody in F, Rubenstein; Paul Brown.

Minuet in G, Beethoven; Nina Logan.

Trauerie and Romance, Schumann; Lolo Hockett.

Valses, Baccarollo, Offenbach; Paul Jones, James Darby.

Humoresque, Dvorak; Gladys Medler.

Intermezzo—Love's Dream, Calinka; Dorothy Bjork.

Cavatina, Raff; James Darby.

Gavotte, Mozart; Souvenir, Drdla; Frances Shrode.

One of the largest affairs of last week was the reception held at the First Christian church to all the missionary societies of the city. About three hundred women attended. Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mrs. D. B. Simpson and Mrs. John O. Humphreys attired in Chinese costume received the guests at the door. Mrs. F. A. Elliott presided at the meeting and Mrs. Wilson gave the devotional. Mrs. Harry Styles sang "The Publican" in a most beautiful manner, with Mrs. Frank Zinn at the organ. Dean Alva Milan of O. A. C. lectured on China. Miss Milan helped to establish the school of home economics at Shanghai, China. Miss Milan's talk was along entirely different lines from most of the missionaries. She spoke of the betterment of the Chinese home life and the necessary educational work that must be done to accomplish this.

The auditorium of the First Christian church was beautifully decorated in pink, peonies and Chinese curios. In the tea room elaborate bouquets of iris, purple lilacs and spirea supplemented with gay Chinese pennants and lanterns gave the room an Oriental appearance. Tea and imported Chinese rice wafers were served by the women of the First Christian church. Mrs. Taylor S. Jones and Mrs. Josephine Muzey poured and they were assisted in the serving by Mrs. E. C. Case, Mrs. Grant Teter, Mrs. Harley White and Mrs. R. L. Hart.

The Salem Floral society will meet at the chamber of commerce auditorium on Friday evening beginning at eight o'clock. Miss Gladys Rafferty will give several vocal solos during the evening and Miss Edith Hazard will exhibit and discuss the shrubs in bloom at this season of the year. Miss Hazard will exhibit it between fifty and seventy five specimens taken from her garden and from others about town.

At this meeting also will be decided the time and the place of the first "Garden at Home" which will be given during the month. The society will also sponsor an Irish show down town some day next week.

Mrs. A. T. Woolpert will be hostess to a meeting of chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood in her home on Thursday afternoon. All members are asked to bring scissors, thimbles and thread, as part of the afternoon will be devoted to charity sewing. During the program hour Miss Anora Welch will give the final paper on the Oregon Country in brief.

Colonel A. Sirmeyer of San Francisco, was the house guest over the week end of Brigadier General and Mrs. George A. White. Additional guests on Sunday were Mrs. B. M. Fletcher and O. E. Fletcher.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine will do what no other medicine can do—clear your system of Catarrh or Deafness caused by Catarrh.

"The Blind Ploughman," Clark; The Shadow March, Frothero; men's glee club of Willamette university, director, Prof. Emory Hobson, accompanist, Lloyd Waltz.

"Waters Ripple and Flow," Taylor; "Wake Thee Now, Dear-est," Taylor; the MacDowell club chorus, director, W. H. Boyer, accompanist, Mildred Jaeger.

"On the Sea," Dudley Buck; "With You Dear," Scott; Salem Apollo club, director, Dr. John R. Sites, accompanist, Byron D. Arnold.

"Auld Lange Syne," ensemble chorus.

The last social evening of the year of the Lone Star club was an event of Friday when Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson entertained the club members. In their home, five hundred were enjoyed throughout the evening with the first prize going to Richard O'Leary and the consolation award to Roy Woodhill. Special interest was attached to the prizes as they were novelties and curios brought from Texas and Arizona by Mr. and Mrs. Williamson during a recent motor trip through the southwestern states.

May poles entered the tables during the luncheon hour and favors of May baskets marked each place. Tulips and spirea were lovely about the rooms.

Guests of the evening were

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodhill, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Leary, Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Woody, Mr. and Mrs. John Biver, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Seeley, Lyle Biver, Miss Jean Williamson and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson.

An important meeting of the modern writers' section of the Salem Arts league will be held tonight at the home of Mrs. F. S. Barton, corner of Capitol and D streets. At this time a chairman for the year will be chosen. Mrs. Gertrude Robinson Roes was chairman for the past year.

Among the week end visitors at Neokowa were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin, Jr., who were guests at the Frank Bligh summer home.

The executive committee of the local American Legion auxiliary will meet tonight in the chamber of commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Jones, son and daughter in law of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Jones, who came north recently from their former home at Oakland, are now at their new home in Junction City. Mr. Jones is resident engineer for the state highway commission with supervision of the coast roads work.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin, Sr., spent the week end in Portland with their son in law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nadon.

After spending nearly a year abroad Miss Eva Miles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles, will arrive home Thursday. Miss Miles has been studying this winter in Paris, Rome and Berlin. She made the trip from England with her brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dana, who will arrive in Salem on Saturday. They are visiting for several days in Canada with Mr. Dana's brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana (Lyla Miles) have not been in Salem since their marriage four years ago. Until a year ago Mr. Dana was a professor of religious education in Guilford college in North Carolina. During the past year Mr. Dana has been making a study of the linen industry in Ireland. They will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Miles for the time being.

Mrs. Al Krause was hostess yesterday at one of the most delightful afternoons of bridge of the entire month when she entertained three tables in her home. Scotch broom, columbine and spirea were lovely in the living rooms and lavender and white sweet peas formed a most attractive centerpiece on the tea table. Tiny corsage bouquet favors were given to the guests.

High score of the afternoon was won by Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Jr. The consolation award went to Mrs. K. W. Heinlein.

Guests of Mrs. Krause were Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin, Jr., Mrs. Lester Schlosberg, Mrs. Edward Rooten, Mrs. Roy Byrd, Mrs. H. McDevitt, Mrs. V. Mackenzie, Mrs. H. J. Wiedner, Mrs. Fred Brock and Mrs. K. W. Heinlein.

Miss Verance Campbell of Waynesville, North Carolina, is the guest of her Aunt, Mrs. C. E. Miller and her cousin, Hazel Earl. Miss Campbell will remain in the west indefinitely.

The Salem business and professional women will meet at the chamber of commerce auditorium tomorrow evening at six o'clock.

The Rapphetarian club will meet on Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. S. Gile.

The Royal Neighbors sewing club will have an all day meeting tomorrow at the country home on the Pacific highway of Mrs. George M. Campbell. A pot luck lunch will be served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Steuseloff were guests in Portland on Saturday at the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Benton, who have lived in Portland for many years. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Steuseloff motored to Longview. They returned last night.

Mrs. T. S. Roberts has returned to her home after spending four weeks in Los Angeles with her

You can't fight the Devil with cream puffs

BILLY SUNDAY is called sensational. He is. He doesn't believe in fighting the devil with cream puffs. He gets audiences—and converts. TRUE STORY has been called sensational. It is. This magazine believes in fighting the devil with his own weapons—it gets readers and results.

Hundreds of thousands of people jam the biggest auditoriums in the United States to hear Billy Sunday. He doesn't believe the road to heaven is paved with soft words.

Yes, TRUE STORY is sensational—the Matter Himself was sensational—when He turned to those who were about to stene a fallen woman, and said, "He that is without sin among you let him first cast a stone,"—when He advised the rich young man to sell all he possessed and give the proceeds to the poor—when He scourged the money changers and drove them from the Temple.

Perhaps you decry sensationalism and because TRUE STORY is sensational, you think "something ought to be done about it."

Then you have never read TRUE STORY with an unprejudiced mind.

If you read TRUE STORY with the thought of getting something uplifting out of it, something you can pass along to others, who perhaps need the lessons it teaches more than you—then you cannot be disappointed.

TRUE STORY is life's mirror. It will not change—unless truth changes. It will be tomorrow what it is today—the most frank, sincere and helpful magazine in America.

We have not known a single instance of any human being, young or old, that has been harmed by reading TRUE STORY. On the contrary thousands have told us that TRUE STORY has guided them through mazes of evil forces and evil influences, into the light of moral sanity and reason.

A ministerial board passes on every story submitted to this magazine. TRUE STORY is the only magazine that ever adopted this policy to protect the moral and spiritual welfare of its readers.

Indeed, TRUE STORY is such a great moral force that many ministers recommend it to the young people of their congregation and it goes into millions of homes and helps solve the problems of religious workers where the searchlight of truth is needed.

If to fight the devil with real weapons is sensational, then TRUE STORY is sensational—just as Billy Sunday is sensational.

TRUE STORY is truly the Billy Sunday among magazines.

Read These Heart-Stirring Stories in True Story for June
