Mrs. Dorcas Honored At Tea

One of the most attractive teas of the season was an event of yesterday in the Lachmund home on Court street, when Mrs. Louise Lachmund entertained in honor of Mrs. George E. Dorcas, who has come to Salem recently from Sacramento. Nearly two hundred prominent Salem matrons and maids called between three and five o'clock.

Shades of bronze, yellow, apricot, old gold, primrose and ivory were carried out in tulips in bowls and baskets that filled each available nook and corner. Placed about the living room, also were tall yellow tapers in mahogany holders.

Mrs. Lachmund and Mrs. Dorcas received the guests in the main living room. Assisting about were Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. S. W. Thompson, Mrs. Curtis Cross and Miss Louise Thompson. The tea table in the dining room was most attractive with tulips of varying tints of apricot and sprigs of blooming shrubs. Tall tapers of a delicate peach color in crystal holders added the final touch of beauty.

Preceding at the urns during the first hour were Mrs. Frederick Lamport and Mrs. David W. Kras. Their places were taken later by Mrs. John J. Roberts and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr.

Mrs. H. J. Holman who was the house guest of Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman for a week left yesterday for her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush have returned after spending the winter months in southern California.

Rev. and Mrs. H. Duncan Chambers, Mrs. H. B. Thibelen and Mrs. Ada Strong motored to Astoria yesterday. Mr. Chambers will read a paper before the meeting of the northern deanery of the Episcopal church in session there today and Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. Thibelen and Mrs. Strong will attend the quarterly meeting of the woman's auxiliary.

Mrs. Gus Hixson is spending several days in Portland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lounsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clarke entertained at dinner on Monday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Newton. Red carnations and red candles made an attractive centerpiece on the dining table with covers laid for six.

Mrs. Jennie Worley is entertaining as her house guest, an indefinite time her cousin, William Richel of Pennsylvania. This is the first time that Mrs. Worley and Mr. Richel have met in forty nine years.

The missionary society of the First Congregational church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. D. Kibbe, 695 south Commercial street. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Kibbe, Mrs. H. G. Clark, Mrs. Edwin M. Hoffmann, Mrs. W. H. East, Mrs. Kenneth Bayne and Miss Leora Morrill.

Devotional leader of the afternoon will be Mrs. T. S. MacKenzie. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will sing and will tell briefly of the work which is being done by her oldest daughter among the colored people of Cincinnati. Miss Edith Hazard will read a paper on "The Negroes in the United States." A number of letters from a missionary in Africa will be read before the group by Mrs. G. L. Newton. The program has been arranged by Mrs. W. D. Clarke.

Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Fred Zimmerman and Mrs. G. C. Bellinger left yesterday by motor for Wolf Creek Tavern in southern Oregon where they met Mrs. E. A. Colony who is motoring north from her home in California. They will arrive home this evening and Mrs. Colony will spend several days in Salem.

The blind school students will give a concert in the Presbyterian church this evening for the benefit of the church building fund. The program will begin at 8:15.

Mrs. Michael Pohod and small son who have been the house guests for several days of Miss Florence Gilbert, left today for their home at Great Falls, Montana.

May Day at White House

MRS. COOLIDGE GREETING CHILDREN.

A kiss for each was the reward Mrs. Calvin Coolidge bestowed on three youngsters who carried a basket of flowers to the White House out of gratitude for President Coolidge's action in proclaiming May Day as "National Child Health Day."

FRECKLES

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling. Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any drug or department store and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Othine is more than one ounce needed for the worst case. Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove your freckles. We recommend Othine Complexion Soap for use with Othine, also as a shampoo—it's wonderful for bobbed hair—25c a cake at all drug or department stores or by mail. ## Sweet Briar Club Opens Meeting

A group of the Wallace road matrons and a number of Salem guests enjoyed a delightful afternoon yesterday when Mrs. Corydon Blodgett and Mrs. Arthur Utley were hostesses to an open meeting of the Sweet Briar club. During the program hour Mrs. Karl Kugel gave a short talk on her experience in Pompeii visited last year during a trip abroad. Mrs. Kugel told of the work that is being done in rebuilding the ancient city. Mrs. Utley entertained the group with a vocal solo. The rooms of the Blodgett and Utley home were attractively decked with wild flowers of various kinds—wild roses, lupine and camas. The tea table in the dining room was lovely with a large bowl of bachelor buttons. Yellow candles were used in crystal holders. Mrs. William F. McCall and Mrs. Ferd Allen dispensed hospitalities at the tea table. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Lou Grote, Mrs. Ed Pratt, Mrs. Ralph Allen and Mrs. Karl Kugel.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs. Herbert H. Hauser, Mrs. Ernest Peterson, Mrs. Guy Newgent, Mrs. William Gommelin, Mrs. John Schindler, Mrs. Sarah Patrick and Mrs. Kavie.

Club members in the group were Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mrs. James Imlah, Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, Mrs. Karl Kugel, Mrs. Ferd Allen, Mrs. Lou Grote, Mrs. William McCall, Mrs. Ed Pratt, Miss Nellie Taylor, Mrs. E. O. Moll, Mrs. Glenn Adams and the hostesses, Mrs. Blodgett and Mrs. Utley. The next meeting of the club will be held in two weeks when Mrs. Mose Adams will be hostess at the Skyline ranch.

The play presented by St. Joseph's dramatic club last week was so well received that it will be presented again on Wednesday evening, May 13th, in St. Joseph's auditorium at 8:30. The play sparkles with wit and the amusing situations called forth peals of laughter, while the dramatic interest is sustained to the end. A special orchestra will furnish music between acts.

The monthly meeting of the Salem Floral society will be held in the chamber of commerce auditorium tomorrow evening. The program arranged for the occasion includes vocal solos by Miss Gladys Rafferty, a talk and discussion by Miss Edith Hazard on the shrubs in bloom at this time. Miss Hazard will illustrate her talk with more than fifty specimens taken from her garden and other gardens in the city. A number of matters of importance to the society will be taken up at the business meeting.

The annual convention of the Oregon state chapter of P. E. O. sisterhood will be held in Oregon City May 26, 27 and 28, according to announcement by Mrs. W. J. McCready of Forest Grove, state president. An interesting program is being prepared covering the various phases of the educational and cultural works of the organization, interspersed with music by members and social features.

Mrs. Winona Evans Reeve of Chicago, editor of the P. E. O. Record, the official publication of the national organization, will be a guest of honor and principal speaker at the convention. Oregon now has 35 chapters and it is expected that each will be represented at the convention. Two new chapters have been organized the last year, one in Bend and one in Portland. Miss Marthine Grime by is state organizer. — Oregon Journal.

Mrs. A. B. McLeod entertained delightfully on Tuesday evening honoring the birthday anniversary of Mr. McLeod. Games and music interested the guests during the evening. Narcissal and ferns were used effectively about the living rooms.

Guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. K. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Klinger, Mrs. T. A. McLeod, Mrs. F. V. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pettit, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. McLeod.

HAD PIMPLES A WHOLE SUMMER

On Face and Neck. Lost Rest. Cuticura Healed.

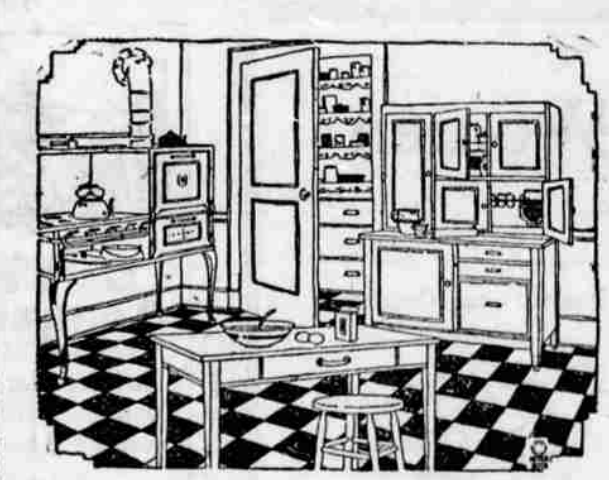

"I had a breaking out of little, red pimples on my face and neck. The pimples festered and scaled over causing disfigurement. They itched and burned causing me to scratch, and the scratching caused eruptions. The irritation caused a lot of discomfort, and I lost my rest at night. I had the trouble a whole summer.

"I was treated without success. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased some, and after using one box of Cuticura Ointment and two cakes of Cuticura Soap I was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. F. West Krich, R. 4, Rockford, Ohio.

STANDARD Electric Ranges

Foods cooked in an electric range taste just as different as foods not cooked at all. The ovens of the standard are aluminum and steam tight, causing roasts and other foods to retain their juice and flavor. Yet these ovens are absolutely rust proof. See the white enameled standard electric range is our window.

NOTE—A great many people have the impression that electric ranges are expensive—but the experimental stages are past and electric ranges are now moderately priced.
