Piety Hill Club Meets At Hartley's

A group of prominent Salem matrons were the guests yesterday at the Edgar Hartley home on north Capital street when Mrs. Hartley, Mrs. S. P. Kimball and Mrs. Russell Catlin were hostesses to the Piety Hill club and a number of special guests.

The living rooms of the Hartley home were very attractive with many bowls and baskets of yellow tulips. A color plan of yellow was also carried out in the dining room where the tea table was laid.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Charles Pearl, Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. J. A. Carson, Mrs. J. H. Lauterman, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., Mrs. F. M. Stenloff and Mrs. W. H. Stenloff.

Club members in the group were Mrs. Helen Boser, Mrs. John H. Albert, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. C. Cross, Mrs. W. P. Fowle, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. E. C. Patton, Mrs. J. H. Scott, Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. B. B. Thieleman, Mrs. J. H. Walker, Mrs. J. T. Whittig, Mrs. C. I. Lewis and the hostesses, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Catlin and Mrs. Hartley.

Next month the club members will be the guests of Mrs. E. T. Barnes and Mrs. W. E. Kirk in the Barnes home.

Mrs. C. M. Walker and her grandsons, William Connell Dyer, Jr., who are spending several months at La Jolla, California, will return to Salem about June 1 according to word received recently by Mrs. W. Connell Dyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., Miss Priscilla Fry and Mrs. Kitie Graver left today for Nekeka to spend the week end at the Fry cottage.

Miss Eva Miles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miles returned yesterday from a visit of nearly a year in England and on the continent. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dann, Mr. and Mrs. Miles' son in law and daughter, are visiting in Canada for several days before returning to Salem, to make their home. They have been in Belfast, Ireland, for the greater part of the last year.

Cards have been issued for the tea at which Mrs. W. H. Stenloff and Mrs. Frederick Stenloff will entertain in the Frederick Stenloff home on north Commercial street, next Wednesday afternoon between the hours of two thirty to five thirty o'clock.

Early and late works of George Moore were studied under the direction of Prof. Horace Williston at a meeting of the literary section of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women at the home of Prof. and Mrs. E. C. Richards Wednesday evening. At the next meeting of the section the works of Joseph Conrad will be discussed.

The juniors of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority entertained at a luncheon at the chapter house today honoring the senior girls. Attractive spring flowers centered the table with covers laid for Miss Volena Jenks, Miss Juanita Henry, Miss Elaine C. Tower, Miss Edna Schreiber, Miss Marion Wyatt and Miss Mary Gilbert, honor guests, and the following hostesses: Miss Ann Silver, Miss Ruth Heinick, Miss Eloise Heinick, Miss Lucille Wylie, Miss Marie Roeten, Miss Hazel Malmsten, Miss Susie Church, Miss Mildred Drake, Miss Alberta Kootz, Miss Mora Pearson and Miss Ila Comstock.

Miss Lucila Card, crowned Queen of the May festival on the Willamette campus today, and Miss Jennelle Vandevort and Miss Elizabeth McClure, her two attendants, were honored at an eight o'clock breakfast at the Delta Phi house this morning with the Delta Phi seniors the hostesses.

A basket of pink snap dragons centered the table and rose candies were placed in crystal holders. Favours of rose candle holders marked each place.

Covers were laid for Miss Card, Miss Vandevort and Miss McClure the honor guests, Mrs. John Reid, Miss Hilda Hagaman, Miss Jennie Conkie, Miss Mary Spaulding, Miss Fay Spaulding, Miss Ruth Rose, Miss Eloise Reed and Miss E. A. Mulkey.

Mrs. E. L. Welch and Mrs. Frank Bath were hostesses on Wednesday at an interesting meeting of the Four M club of Macleay in the Welch home. The living rooms were attractively decorated with tulips, forget me notes and sheaves of Scotch broom. Dinner was served at noon to forty five club members and special guests.

Later in the afternoon Mrs. Harry Martin, club president, directed a program with all of the members participating. Special guests of the day were Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Rickli, Miss Elsie, Miss Anona and Miss Elizabeth Welch, William Farr, T. S. Mackenzie, T. Teckenburg and E. L. Welch.

WILLAMETTE CROWNS MAY QUEEN

Miss Lucia Card, senior at Willamette university and member of Delta Phi, was crowned Queen of the May Court early this afternoon in coronation ceremonies on the Willamette campus. Reading from left to right, Miss Jennelle Vandevort, maid of honor; Queen Lucia I, and Miss Elizabeth McClure, maid of honor.

Music and five hundred were enjoyed by the Saturday night club members recently when they met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jirak. The living rooms of the Jirak home were attractively decorated with spring flowers. High scores of the evening were won by Mrs. R. F. Peters and George Alderin. Consolation awards went to Mrs. Virgil McGahn and Ed Frick.

Special guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Rowe, Mrs. Hannah Dorks and Edwin Butler.

Club members in the group were Mr. and Mrs. George Alderin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McWhorter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frick, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Carper, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McGahn, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dickenson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Miehler, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Cutler and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jirak.

Beginning Monday the Lincoln McKinley parent teacher association will sponsor a week's drive for old papers and magazines to be sold and the proceeds turned into a fund to purchase equipment for the playground. The children of the two schools will commence a canvass of the entire city and the women of the association will wrap and sort the bundles of paper and attend to the details of disposing of the collection. Anyone wishing to contribute is asked to call Mrs. Mark McCallister at 619J and the contribution will be called for.

Last year the association sponsored a similar drive and more than sixty dollars was netted for the purchase of swings and slides and other paraphernalia for the playgrounds. This year it is hoped to raise even more.

Mrs. C. R. Schwartz was hostess recently at a meeting of the Book and Thimble club. During the study hour Mrs. Pattison read a Literary Digest article on "Americanizing the Japanese Cherry." Mrs. Trost read E. W. Howe's "What Life has Taught Me." California poppies were used about the living rooms.

Special guests of the club were Mrs. James Best, Mrs. L. L. Cannon, Mrs. Robert Adams and her little son and daughter. Club members present were Mrs. C. I. Adams, Mrs. F. H. Bentley, Mrs. E. George, Mrs. L. F. Brown, Mrs. George Trost, Mrs. Mary Beaver, Mrs. E. A. Manning and the hostess, Mrs. Schwartz. During the tea hour Mrs. Manning assisted the hostess.

Mrs. C. L. Adams will entertain the club in her home on May 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Hai D. Patton and children left this morning for their summer home at Agate Beach where they will spend the week end.

Mrs. Eunice Walt has been entertaining as her home guest for several weeks her mother, Mrs. John Blanton of Brooks. Mrs. Blanton will remain until after Mother's day.

The many friends of Mrs. W. H. Lytle will be grieved to hear that she underwent a serious operation at a local hospital this morning.

Mrs. George A. White left today for Corvallis to spend Mother's week end on the O. A. C. campus as the guest of her daughter, Miss Henrietta White.

Mrs. E. H. Cowles of Woodburn, is spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Chester M. Cox.

Dr. William B. Knox of Portland, is the house guest of Dr. W. H. Lytle for several days.

The majority of Salem club women will be primarily interested tomorrow in the annual meeting of the Salem Woman's club which will be held in the Woman's clubhouse beginning at two thirty. Reports of officers, reports of standing committees and other final business of the year first part of the meeting with the nomination, election and installation of officers closing the business of the meeting.

Outstanding among all the events of May Festival and Junior week end on the Willamette campus was the coronation of Queen Lucia I on the campus shortly after one o'clock today. Miss Lucia Card, the queen, and her two attendants, Miss Jennelle Vandevort and Miss Elizabeth McClure made an unforgettable picture as they ascended the platform throne preceded by a full cortege.

Prof. J. T. Matthews served as master of ceremonies and David Thompson and Billie Phillips were pages. Jack Osting and Byron Randall served as train bearers and little Joan Newcomb and Elaine Sherman were dainty flower girls. Flavia Downe bore the crown to the throne.

Immediately following the coronation a series of seven dances were given before the queen. In a lovely fantasy the seasons payed homage to their queen. Solo dances were given by Miss Mildred Herwig, Miss Lola Moorhead and school tonight beginning at seven thirty. Short talks on Alaska will be given, by several of the Alaskan students at the school.
