

JARDINE SEEKS TO WIN HONORS AT CALF ROPING

Washington, May 8.—Secretary Jardine, who recently accepted the dare of a boyhood chum to enter a broncho riding event in North Dakota, is thinking of also taking on Mayor James Dahman of Omaha in a calf roping contest. The mayor's challenge, now under consideration by Mr. Jardine, suggests that the contest be staged at an American Legion rodeo to be held May 12. In his younger days the secretary was a cowboy.

Omaha, May 8.—John Dahman, Omaha's "cowboy mayor," gave a characteristic shrug when informed that Secretary of Agriculture Jardine might engage him in a calf roping contest at the American Legion rodeo here some time between May 10 to 17.

"If he is game, let him come on," said the mayor. "I am willing to take on anybody, whether they come from Washington or from the toughest western ranch in America. I think I still have the same old punch that I learned when I was a kid in Texas." "Jim" Dahman occupies a spectacular position in Nebraska's history, coming from Texas in the eighties, he herded cattle on a Nebraska range and as sheriff of Dawson county, succeeded in cleaning out one of the toughest gangs of horse thieves ever to infect the west. He is a prominent figure at every rodeo and is considered an excellent roper and rider.

There have been 329 additional loans made to those who had not received the full amount of the loan ($5000) and 11 second additional loans.

There are 3784 yet to accept the cash bonus or loan and they have, according to the law, until June 30, 1927, in which to file their final choice.

PARSEE HEALER IS RETURNED TO FACE CHARGES

Portland, Or., May 8.—Dinshah P. Ghariaia, who was arrested in Seattle Tuesday, was brought to this city Thursday by a federal grand jury on a charge that he had violated federal statutes in traveling with his private secretary, Miss Geraldine McCann, a Portland girl.

Ghariaia declined to discuss the charges against him beyond saying that he was the victim of a frame-up.

In an interview he declared he is a full fledged American citizen, having taken out his final papers in Hackensack, N. J., June 15, 1917.

"Please say I am a Parsee," he asked. "Because you might as well call me a negro as a Hindu. I was born of Soroastrian parents in Bombay, India, November 28, 1872. My people are descendants of King Cyrus of Persia."

He said his American wife, a New Jersey girl, is at Malaga, N. J., with their six month old son.

A 20 year old girl, the daughter of his Parsee wife, is also at Malaga, he said. His Parsee wife, he declared, deserted him in 1913 and went away with a Hindu doctor.

Ghariaia claimed to have the rank of colonel in the New York flying police corps. He said he was commissioned a captain in the police reserves by Commissioner Rodman Wanamaker in 1918, and that the next year he was appointed governor of the New York police aviation school. He said he took the first airplane mail from New York to Philadelphia.

He reviewed the activities of his wife, saying he had been an electrical engineer in India, and had been engaged in temperance work. After coming to America he was interested in a variety of enterprises. He said "spectrochrome therapy" on which he has been lecturing is a method for treating disease by color waves.

Cottage Grove, May 8.—R. M. Veatch, former Oregon congressman and father of John C. Veach, member of the state fish commission and attorney of Portland, died at 6:20 o'clock Thursday morning at his home here, aged 83 years.

Gilchrist reported that a flying china pheasant went through his windshield, scattering glass in all directions and landing dead in the rear of the machine. The accident happened two miles north of here on the Pacific highway.
