Picnics and motor trips will be given by the club members thru out the summer but the next official meeting will be held October 1 with Mrs. Lewis Bechtel and Mrs. Charles Kinzer hostesses.

Social and literary circles are much interested in the dinner to be given in honor of Anne Shannon Monroe, Oregon authoress, on Saturday evening, May 16, at Henry Thiele's at 6:30 o'clock. Miss Monroe has just returned from California to spend the summer in Portland, where she will complete her latest book, and is being warmly welcomed by friends here.

She is the author of "Happy Valley" and other successes, and her latest work, "Behind the Range," is meeting a ready welcome. Among the speakers will be: B. F. Irvine, Mrs. Ruby Page Euser, Miss Anne M. Mulheron, Miss Cornelia Marvin, Miss Blanche L. Lanr and others—Oregon Journal.

Mrs. Frank Gray was a charming hostess yesterday when she entertained members of the Needlecraft club of Albany at bridge and tea in the Rose room of the Spa. Mrs. Gray who has come on recently to make her home in Salem was formerly a member of the Albany club.

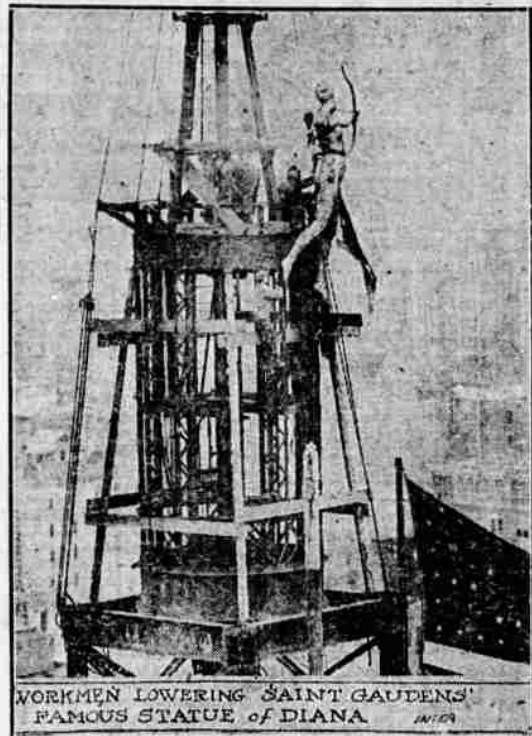

Among those who motored down from Albany to be Mrs. Gray's guests were Mrs. W. M. Cook, Mrs. Lynn Harris, Mrs. A. N. Taylor, Mrs. O. L. Foster, Mrs. Elmer Venable, Mrs. Alvin Ramsey, Mrs. Helen Robbough and Mrs. Beesie Barber.

Baskets of English hawthorn were arranged about the room for the occasion.

Mrs. O. L. McIntyre and Mrs. Ervin F. Smith entertained informally at bridge in the Smith home on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. McIntyre's house guest, Mrs. C. Day of Washington, D. C.

There were three tables of bridge players with a number of additional guests coming in at the tea hour. High score of the afternoon was won by Miss Pauline Schmidt. Red peonies and red roses were attractive about the rooms.

Diana Comes Down to Earth

WORKMEN LOWERING SAINT GAUDENS' FAMOUS STATUE OF DIANA

The lowering of Saint-Gaudens' famous statue of Diana, that has for thirty years stood atop the tower of Stanford White's architectural gem, Madison Square Garden, famous for boxing bouts, conventions and circuses, brought wistful memories to the eyes of a crowd of old-timers who watched the proceedings reverently from Madison Square. Diana will not be lost, however, as New York University will re-erect the famous tower with the statue above it on the campus. Photo shows the statue as it started its descent, with New York's skyline in the background.

D. U. C. bridge club members were the guests on Wednesday afternoon of Mrs. Raymond McDevitt, Iris and sweet peas were lovely about the living rooms of the McDevitt home. High bridge score was won by Mrs. E. H. Hobson with Mrs. A. Brown winning low. Mrs. E. A. Skelley was a special guest of the afternoon.

Members of the club are Mrs. E. H. Hobson, Mrs. E. Eckert, Jr., Mrs. A. Brown, Mrs. Lester Schloesser, Mrs. R. O'Leary, Mrs. V. McKensie, Miss Alta Jones and Mrs. Raymond McDevitt.

Miss Jones will entertain the club in her home in two weeks.

Mrs. W. W. Cooke of Chepek, Wisconsin, is spending the week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Griffith and with Mrs. J. C. Griffith. Mrs. Cooke is Dr. Griffith's sister.

A mitzvah "ingathering" of the W. F. M. S. of the First Methodist church was held at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. G. H. Alden was devotional leader, giving a lesson on "The Mitzvah." Mrs. Geo. Gutekunst and Mrs. H. M. Durkheimer told of the work done by the society in South America. During the business session Mrs. W. M. Pennington was elected as recording secretary to fill the vacancy made by the departure of Mrs. J. L. Brady. Delegates were also elected to the Salem district mid-year meeting to be held at Newberg on May the twenty second.

Officers of the business and professional women's club have called a special meeting to be held tonight in the public library beginning at 7:30. A number of matters of extreme importance to the club will be discussed and voted upon.

The Willing Workers' class of the First Christian church will hold an apron and cooked food sale in the Southern Pacific offices on north Liberty street tomorrow. Mrs. Chester Lee and Mrs. D. B. Simpson will be in charge throughout the day with a number of the class members assisting.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Brunk (Esther Lucas) of Marshfield, are spending a week with relatives in and about Salem. They will visit at the home of Mr. Brunk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Brunk, at Eola, and with Mrs. Brunk's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas. They plan to spend a few days in Portland before returning to their Coos Bay home.

A Mother's day program was enjoyed by members of the Woman's Benefit association of the Maccabees in a meeting on Wednesday evening. Arrangements were discussed and made for the next social meeting of the association, usually held monthly. Mrs. Beesie Boehringer will entertain the members at a social afternoon in her home at 260 West Wilson street on Thursday May 21. Assisting her as hostesses will be Mrs. May Shanks and Mrs. Hazel Newton.

BOOZE KILLED HUBBY; WIDOW GETS $10,000

Seattle, Wash., May 14.—On the contention that liquor killed her husband, Mrs. J. A. Karsten, widow of a Cle Elm jeweler, gained a verdict against three men for $10,000 in Ellensburg today, reported the Seattle Times. She said he drank the liquor for six months. The defendants were Mike Sogura, Frank Carrola and Felix San Peltro.

She suffered terribly with constipation—Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brought prompt relief!

Drive this right-ful disease out of your system.

Here is a Philadelphia woman who lay awake nights suffering from the destructive work of constipation. Read her letter and think what Kellogg's ALL-BRAN means to her.

I am writing this letter to tell you what I think of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, and what it has done for me. I eat it daily and it has cured me of indigestion as well as constipation. I am a well girl again and I owe it all to wonderful Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Use this letter if it will help you and others. I thank you.
