Before a car is offered for sale by us it is thoroughly overhauled. Every operation performed rebuilding our used cars is done with the thought in mind, viz: that when the car is sold it must be a credit to the house of POWELL.

You owe it to yourself to see our cars before you decide a purchase. You will find our prices are no higher than you will find elsewhere for the usual AS IS CAR, and our terms are liberal.

NUNN DECLARES HE WILL FIGHT DANCES TO LAST

J. J. Nunn of this city came forward Saturday afternoon and stated positively that he intends to carry his warfare against the character of May dances held on the Willamette campus May 8 to the last ditch and last costume.

"I wish to assume full responsibility for the originating and circulating of this petition," he said, "further, I wish to say that none of my family was aware of my action in this matter."

Mr. Nunn refused to state when and where he had witnessed his last May day festival, but admitted that the dances of this year were the first Willamette May dances he had ever witnessed. When asked whether or not anyone had yet refused to sign his petition, he replied,

"There are always some people who don't align themselves on the side of the best things." He intimated that he will announce a list of signers of the petition at some future date. "But not now," he said. "I want to see some more people first."

Contrary to previous report that had got into circulation last week, the petition itself says nothing about costumes worn by Willamette track men. Mr. Nunn denies that he has ever said anything that could be construed as opposition to the costumes.

The petition reads as follows:

"To the honorable board of trustees and faculty of Willamette university, Salem, Oregon, Sirs:

"We, the undersigned patrons and friends of the Willamette university respectfully protest against the repitition of exercises in such a manner as those recently held on the Willamette university campus during the May day exercises. We find no words adequate to express to you our sense of outrage and indignation when viewing the antics and improper conduct of the participants in that alleged May day exercise.

"What should have been a beautiful spectacle of young men and women, whose ambition to render lives of service led them to Willamette turned out to be a burlesque upon many things that should otherwise have been symbolic of high ideals. We sincerely believe that such activities were not in accordance with the traditions of old Willamette, founded upon the sacrifices and devotion of Christian men and women we must earnestly and insistently voice this protest and pray that in the future no exhibition such as that witnessed last Friday shall again be tolerated under the auspices of that worthy institution, Willamette university."
