

LOCALS

HARRY O. MILLS of Los Angeles, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mills of Salem, and a graduate of the high school here, will play a number of pipe organ solos and accompaniments over the radio from station KXN Friday evening, May 22, between 8 and 9 p. m.

Terwilliger undertaker has 724 Special sale Indian robes. Lot 1 $5.75, Lot 2 $7.75, Lot 3 $10. Bishop's. 121*

The local Red and Gun club will meet Friday night at the Salem chamber of commerce rooms. All members of the club are expected to be present to take part in forming plans for the organization.

Love The Jewels, Salem. All the newest in sweaters for men and young men $5 to $10. Bishop's. 121*

A Boy Scout court of honor will be held in the Oregon state supreme court chamber tonight. Thomas Childs will be up for promotion to the grade of life scout at the court. He will be the only life scout in Salem when the promotion is made. The grade ranks second only to that of eagle scout among the scouts. There are three eagle scouts in Salem at present, Frank Grover, Hugh Shattuck and Harold Ware. W. T. Edmondson, a Salem eagle scout, is now attending West Point. Fifteen merit badges will also be awarded at tonight's court. A number of the scouts will be advanced to first and second grade. Harold Ware, local boy scout executive, will have charge of the court.

Big new lot of young men's grey wide bottom trousers $7.50 to $10. See them today. Bishop's. 121*

Garden and lawn seed. Dahlias and gladioli, window box plants, Peary Bros., 3-4 block west of Commercial street, 237 State street. 123*

The Business and Professional Women's club will stage a picnic at Chestnut Farm next Sunday. The women will meet at the Terminal hotel at 2 p. m. and go out to the farm in an automobile. Dinner will be served at 4 o'clock.

Athletic underwear $8 count nainsook material $1 at Bishop's. 121*

Victor Red Seal Records 65 etc. Siff's Furn. Co. 122*

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Christensen of Woodburn were Salem visitors this morning.

Shoe special at Bishop's. Extra value $6. 121*

Box of candy given with every child's haircut. Millers Beauty parlor, phone 1947. 122*

Professor Sigurd H. Peterson, instructor in English and correspondence at Oregon Agricultural college, was in Salem yesterday afternoon.

Dreamland dance Sat. eve 7:30. 123*

Victor Red Seal Records 65 etc. Siff's Furn. Co. 122*

Two boy scouts from Salem will be selected to attend the summer camp at Camp Parsons during the coming season. It was announced this morning. Expenses of the boys will be paid by the local council. Two boys will be chosen who have attended boy scout camps, and who intend to do so again. The purpose is to secure training in high class scouting.

First 10 single free at Dreamland dance Sat. night. Come early. Lot of pep. 123*

Kewitz pest. use the formula as recommended by the authorities. Complete information and supplies at Fry's drug store. 123*

Headgreen school closed today for the season with a picnic and exercises. County Superintendent Fulkerson attended from here.

The Red Goose. 121*

Dreamland dance Sat. eve 7:30. 123*

Rosa Pratt has been named administratrix of the estate of H. W. Pratt.

While they last, salvia plants cheap. Blake's greenhouse, 1545 S. Liberty, phone 1324M. 122*

Big new lot of young men's grey wide bottom trousers $7.50 to $10. See them today. Bishop's. 121*

W. J. Morris has filed an action in circuit court against L. E. Morehead to collect money on a promissory note.

Shoe special at Bishop's. Extra value $6. 121*

Elmer Aling, Joseph Barber, J. P. Ulich, Ray H. Simmons, R. E. Anderson and T. C. Waters were fined $1 each in police court yesterday for overtime parking.

The Red Goose, Terminal lobby pressed $1.50. Terminal lobby phone 696. 121*

Don May reported to the police this morning that a spare tire was stolen from his automobile last night at 245 Bellevue.

Victor Red Seal Records 65 etc. Siff's Furn. Co. 122*

W. D. Goslin of Salem, route 1, underwent a minor operation at a local hospital yesterday.

Choice of house sale for Friday and Saturday, all millinery and wearing apparel 20 percent off. The Smart Shop. 122*

P. E. Gibbons made a short business trip to Salem yesterday. His home is in Woodburn.

Graduation suits $30, $35 at Bishop's. 121*

The state bond commission yesterday sold $121,890 state irrigation district interest bonds at a premium of $2665, making an interest basis of 414 per cent. The Anglo-London-Paris company of San Francisco was the highest bidder of six competitors.

Bishop's Washboard virgin wool suits, new styles, new patterns, $40. Two pairs of pants. 121*

W. W. Dillon, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., stopped in Salem for a brief business visit yesterday.

Hunt brothers cannery will commence on strawberria Tuesday, May 26th, 7 a. m. 124*

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the church building tonight to accept the resignation of the present pastor, Ward Willie Long, who recently accepted a call to the First Presbyterian church of Stockton, California.

Special prices on all plants for Fri. Sat. Geraniums 15c each all colors, marigolds 25c a dozen. Arthur Plant's greenhouse, 1298 south 12th. 123*

In the annual tug 'o' war held yesterday noon between the freshmen and sophomores at Willamette university, the first year men were pulled into the mill stream and, according to established custom at the university, all male members of the class must jump into the millrace or be thrown in. Several were on hand yesterday attired in bathing suits or old clothes, and jumped into the stream as soon as a large number had not gone in as yet, and have not been thrown in.

Special sale Indian robes. Lot 1 $5.75, Lot 2 $7.75, Lot 3 $10. Bishop's. 121*

The Willamette university tennis team defeated the College of Puget Sound team three matches to two in a tournament held on the local courts Wednesday. Although Emmet of Willamette won over Smith of C. P. S. in straight sets the match was the closest played during the day. Walsh, third Willamette man, broke 5 strings in his racket while warming up, and had to use a loan racket in his matches. He lost in both singles and doubles. The summary was as follows: Emmet, Willamette defeated Smith, 6-4, 6-1, Mickey, Willamette, defeated Johnson, 6-4, 6-4, C. P. S., 6-4; Smith and Hozer defeated Emmet and Walsh, 7-5, 6-4; Mickey and Emmet defeated Smith and Johnson, 6-0, 6-2.

Tonight, Miss Elizabeth Levy will present her violin students in recital at the First Christian church 8 p. m. assisted by an orchestra of 35 pieces. Public invited. 121*

Mrs. Henry Schroeder of Pratum was in Salem this morning.

Graduation suits $30, $35 at Bishop's. 121*

Miss Elizabeth Lounney of Jefferson was in Salem this morning.

Bishop's Washboard virgin wool suits, new styles, new patterns, $40. Two pairs of pants. 121*

Mr. and Mrs. Will Golding were guests at a dinner today. They are residents of Corvallis.

Choice of house sale for Friday and Saturday, all millinery and wearing apparel 20 percent off. The Smart Shop. 122*

Claude Trimble and his daughter Genevieve, of Brookings, were in this city this morning.

Shoe special at Bishop's. Extra value $6. 121*

Mrs. J. J. Staiger was in Salem on a short visit today. Her home is in Silverton.

Big new lot of young men's grey wide bottom trousers $7.50 to $10. See them today. Bishop's. 121*

Clark Stovland of Albany was in Salem on private business today.

Graduation suits $30, $35 at Bishop's. 121*

eral invitation to the public to be present at the meeting, which starts at 7:30 o'clock.

All the newest in sweaters for men and young men $5 to $10. Bishop's. 121*

Edwin Busick, of 649 Chemeketa street, sustained a broken forearm when he fell from a tree which he had climbed while on his way home from school yesterday afternoon.

Athletic underwear $8 count nainsook material $1 at Bishop's. 121*

Harry Stovick, a student at O. A. C. and Elizabeth Morris, resident of Corvallis, were in Salem yesterday.

Special sale Indian robes. Lot 1 $5.75, Lot 2 $7.75, Lot 3 $10. Bishop's. 121*

Mrs. Claude Schinner of Independence was a Salem visitor Wednesday.

Victor Red Seal Records 65 etc. Siff's Furn. Co. 122*

D. J. Steiner of Macleay was in this city on private business yesterday.

Choice of house sale for Friday and Saturday, all millinery and wearing apparel 20 percent off. The Smart Shop. 122*

P. E. Gibbons made a short business trip to Salem yesterday. His home is in Woodburn.

Graduation suits $30, $35 at Bishop's. 121*

The state bond commission yesterday sold $121,890 state irrigation district interest bonds at a premium of $2665, making an interest basis of 414 per cent. The Anglo-London-Paris company of San Francisco was the highest bidder of six competitors.

Bishop's Washboard virgin wool suits, new styles, new patterns, $40. Two pairs of pants. 121*

Because of the national Elk convention in Portland the date of the state bar examination has been changed by the state supreme court from July 14 and 15 to July 7 and 8, the week prior to the convention.

Hear the Hamblers at Turner dance Sat. May 23. 122*

Carle Abrams, chairman of the battleship Oregon commission, said today that the commission, accompanied by Adjutant General George A. White, will go to Bremerton tomorrow to make final arrangements for the transfer of the old battleship to Portland harbor.

Admiral Chase, commandant at Bremerton navy yard, has notified the commission that the ship is ready to be moved. Plans are to reach Portland with the ship on June 15. It probably will leave Bremerton with two tugs about June 6 and will lie at Astoria several days before proceeding to Portland. The members of the commission are Colonel Abrams of Salem, Howard Waddell of Roseburg, and Lafe Manning, Colonel Worrill and Mrs. Cora Thompson of Portland.

Dreamland dance Sat. eve 7:30. 123*

Miss Anna Fry of Dallas was a Salem visitor today.

Marcelling 50c. phone 444M. 121*

Eric Butler, manager of the local Western Union office, is in Portland for several days attending a managers' convention. During his absence J. Stocking of the Portland office, is assisting and Miss Edna Shoemaker is in charge of the office.

The Portland Electric Power company baseball nine will clash with the Woodmen on the Oxford park diamond at 6:15 this evening in the second game of the sun-down twilight league series. Not much is known as to the strength of the two teams although they are reported as having strong aggregations with a good batting line.

Miss Lena Ramsayer of Macleay was in Salem yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Cone, residents of Dallas, were in Salem on a short visit Wednesday.

J. B. Burch and C. C. Odenburg, both of Albany, were in Salem for a few hours this morning.

Mrs. Lee Blyden of Lebanon was in Salem today.

Mrs. A. J. Johnson of Corvallis was a visitor in Salem this morning.

Mrs. Vera McNamara of Harbor, Oregon, was in this city this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blyden, whose home is in Jefferson, were Salem visitors this morning.

LEGION WOMEN WILL CAN FRUIT FOR HOSPITAL

Silverton, Or., May 21.—(Special)—Mrs. R. E. Kleinsorge distributed two quart fruit jars and one pint jar to each member of the Auxiliary of the American Legion, at its regular meeting Monday night. The jars were to be filled with fruits and jams and returned to Mrs. Kleinsorge who will turn them over to the Silverton hospital association. Mrs. Kleinsorge is chairman of the Auxiliary hospital committee. A committee composed of Mrs. A. J. Titus, Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. Andrew Hall and Mrs. Fred Luck, made ten poppy wreaths to be used on the soldiers' graves on Memorial Day.

DUELL SEEKING DEFENSE FUND

New York, May 21.—Charles H. Duell, former motion picture producer, who made Lillian Gish rich, according to his counsel, was on his way to Miami, Fla., today to attempt to make enough money in real estate to fight a federal indictment for perjury. There are reports that he has a $7,500 a year job.

BLOOD AILMENT FATAL TO BATES

Alfred Bates, graduate of Kimball college of theology in 1922, and well known in Salem, died at Sellwood, Portland, early yesterday. He had been sick for several years with a blood sickness that baffled his physician. He had had some 20 blood transfusions, each of which seemed to give him good health for a short period, but his system seemed unable to make blood corpuscles of its own.

$305,890 IS SUBSCRIBED FOR PROJECT

(Continued from page one) and elsewhere. It is expected that before all work is finished the total amount raised in Salem will be $315,000 or more. The workers at Salem will also go to various points in the Willamette valley to assist in the campaign there. Announcement was made here this noon that requests have been received from Albany, Independence, Dallas and other places to assist in the linen mill campaign.

TWO WILL HANG HERE TOMORROW

Governor Pierce expects later today to issue a statement announcing whether or not he will allow L. W. Peare and Arthur Covell to be hanged at the state penitentiary tomorrow morning or either of them to life imprisonment. Many pleas are being received by the governor in favor of the two men from the gallows. The latest is a telegram from the State Federation of Labor and the Central Labor Council of Portland.

CLOUDBURST DAMAGE EAST OREGON TOWN NEARLY $40,000

(Continued from page one) recorded in Klamath county in more than a decade, the storm passed late last night and a warm sun greeted residents today. Local forecasts point to continued fair weather.

Medford, May 21.—By a strange weather freak, Medford has thus far escaped the heavy rains of May while the foothills and districts north and south have been heavily flooded. Yesterday there were heavy downpours in Ashland and the Siskiyou, as well as in Grants Pass and Roseburg, but only Showers visited this city.

GOLFERS PLAY AT CORVALLIS NEXT

The last and final match of the year in the Tri-City golf tournament will take place Sunday, May 24th at Corvallis county club, between Salem, Eugene and Corvallis beginning promptly at 10 o'clock. Eugene country club seems to have the cup cinched as they have won both matches so far this year with only one match left to play and they have a convenient margin of points in their favor.

WOMAN OF SIXTY BACK IN CIRCUS

Omaha, Neb., May 21.—(A. P.)—Under the "big top" of a little country circus which is assembling in a pasture south of this city, today sat a little grey haired woman, who, after a retirement of seven years has harkened to the call of the show-bus, ring where she spent more than half a century as a horseback rider and trapeze performer.

STATE TO FIGHT FOR BRIX ESTATE

Whether the state of Oregon shall acquire by escheat the estate of the late Mrs. Asma Brix of Astoria, amounting to $200,000, or whether the estate wholly or in part shall go to the alleged natural but faithless mother of Mrs. Brix, a resident of Germany, is the issue in a case to be fought out in court.

WOODRY Buys Furniture

Phone 511

SEEKS DIVORCE FROM THOMPSON; EOFF CASE LOST

Declaring her husband is serving a sentence in the state penitentiary for misappropriation of state funds Gene Belle Thompson has filed suit for divorce in circuit court against Clarence W. Thompson, former teller in the state treasurer's office. She asks that her maiden name of Gene Belle be restored to her. They were married in Salem, September 2, 1922.

BLAME LAID ON NURSE FOR BABE'S DEATH

(Continued from page one) sters were permitted to take their child home.

FARM BABY ADOPTED TO DECEIVE HUSBAND'S CLAIM

New York, May 21.—(A. P.)—Nat Bass, wealthy clothing manufacturer, who for nine months proudly regarded himself as the father of a baby boy, was today a disillusioned man.

VERY FINE HOME JUST COMPLETED FOR SALE, $3,750—EASY TERMS

Lot 50x245, Ideal Location, Taxes Low. A. J. Paris, 114 or 555 N. Liberty

AT THE THEATRES TODAY

OREGON
May McAvoy, Pauline Frederick, Marie Prevost, in "Three Women."

LIBERTY
MATT MOORE
in
"NO MORE WOMEN"

Very Fine Home Just Completed For Sale, $3,750—Easy Terms

Lot 50x245, Ideal Location, Taxes Low. A. J. Paris, 114 or 555 N. Liberty

Red Seal Victor Records Reduced

Selections by Caruso, John McCormick, Kreisler, Calli-Curci, Schumann-Heink and others.

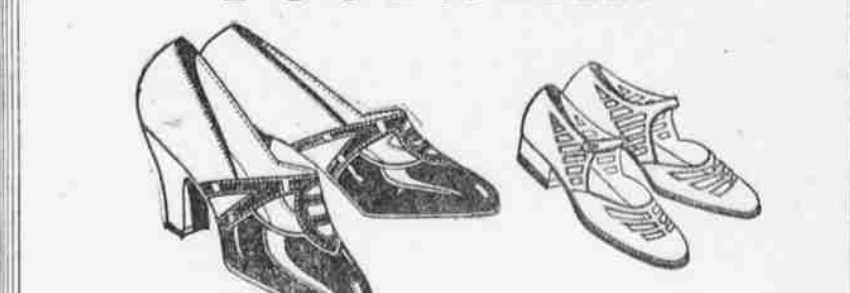

New Victor Red Seal Records are Priced at

Formerly	Now	Formerly	Now
$1.25	.65	$2.00	$1.10
1.50	.80	2.50	1.30
1.75	.90	3.00	1.60
Formerly	Now
$3.50	$1.60

Series 61000 to 96200

Geo. C. Will
432 State Street

The New Summer Styles in FOOTWEAR

Every day of their long life you will appreciate the pleasure and the economy of wearing our Shoes. Their good Style always pleases, their quality always satisfies.

New Arrivals in Men's Oxfords
$5.00 to $8.50

Ladies' Pumps and Oxfords—Main floor
$5.00 to $9.00
Economy Department—Second floor

Buster Brown Shoe Store

Darby's Drug Store
Court and Liberty Streets