Clubs Close Activities For Year

"Standing with reluctant feet" where the paths of spring and summer meet might have been written about the attitude of Salem matrons and maids and their activities this month. There is a reluctance to close the doors upon the brilliant events that have brightened the winter months. Each of the larger events—and there have been a number of delightful affairs within the last few weeks—appears to be the final one of the season, when suddenly one hears of another formal tea or bridge party or dance or large dinner which bids fair to equal, if not eclipse, all previous events.

A number of Salem's most prominent clubs closed their seasons this week. The Capital, the Merry-go-round, the Leisure Hour, and the Thursday bridge luncheon club all held their final meetings this week. The Tillamook club danced at the Illahee country club on Tuesday evening for the last time until October. The Salem Woman's club is meeting for the last time today.

Salem is noted for its hospitality and the presence of interesting and charming visitors in ways the spirit for much delightful entertaining. Mrs. Allan Bynon, who is spending several weeks with her parents, Col. and Mrs. E. Hofer, was the inspiration of several affairs during the week. Both Mrs. Donald Young and Mrs. Homer Egan entertained small groups of Mrs. Bynon's friends at luncheon in her honor during the week.

Mrs. Percy Wells and small daughter, Miriam Jean, arrived several days ago from their home in Spokane to spend the summer with Mrs. Wells' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith.

The Albert cabin at Mehama on the Santiam will be the scene of a delightful house party over the week end. In the group who will motor up tomorrow to remain until Monday will be Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brassfield and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brassfield of Berkeley, California; Mrs. T. C. Hawkins, Mrs. E. C. Small, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause of Portland, Mrs. J. C. Griffith, Miss Mary Jane Albert, Miss Josephine Albert, Ael Eoff and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert.

Mrs. R. P. Holsa, Mrs. Frank Saelecor and Mrs. Breyman Holsa motored to Portland on Thursday to spend the day.

Mrs. Estes Saelecor of Portland, will arrive on Monday to be the house guest of Mrs. Frank Saelecor for several days.

Mrs. J. Vincent Meherlin, the house guest of Mrs. Lloyd Farmer for two weeks, left on Wednesday for her home in San Francisco.

Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., and Mrs. Kitty Graver have returned from a week at the Fry summer home at Neokwin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding have as their guests over the week end their granddaughter, Miss Roberta Mills of Portland.

Honoring Mrs. Allan Bynon of Portland, Mrs. Homer Egan entertained informally at luncheon in her country home on Wednesday. A group of Mrs. Bynon's intimate friends were present.

An interesting feature of the program hour at the Woman's club meeting today was the presentation of Leon Jennison, baritone, of one of the most recent compositions of Miss Bruce Putnam, "The End of the Trail." The words were written by Julia Knight who also wrote the words of Miss Putnam's "Boating Song" which was published by Schirmer's last spring. Miss Putnam, a composer of promise, will leave shortly to spend six months or a year abroad.

Salem golf devotees will invade Corvallis tomorrow for the last day of competition playing in the inter-city golf tournament. Among those planning to motor over to the O. A. C. town for the day are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Glinzer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kxy, Mrs. Edward Gilliam, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hixon.

The Macabees will sponsor a cooked food sale in the Southern Pacific offices on north Liberty street tomorrow. Mrs. May E. Shank is in charge of the sale. The proceeds of the sale will go into the fund with which active members will be delegated to the state convention to be held in Portland in June. The honor guest at this convention will be Mrs. Minnie W. Aydelotte of Oakland, California, who was formerly of California, who was formerly state commander of Oregon.

Members of the Community bridge club with the lowest playing scores for the past club year are entertaining those whose scores were higher at dinner at the E. C. Peterson home this evening. Covers will be laid for twelve.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Taylor and Mrs. Elsie Townsend are in Ashland this week where they are attending the sessions of the grand lodge of the Rebekahs.

Mrs. C. E. Lewis and small daughter, Olive, left yesterday by motor for Los Angeles where they will join Mr. Lewis who went south several months ago. The Lewises spent the winter with Mrs. Lewis' mother, Mrs. Lizette Smith. Although they will remain in California indefinitely they will be happy to hear that they plan to return here at some time to make their home.

'The Mikado' To Be Given Here June 5

"The Mikado," ever popular comic opera by Gilbert and Sullivan has been selected as the annual dramatic offering to be given by the advanced chorus of the Salem high school on Friday June 5. Rehearsals have been under way since the inter-state music tournament and indications point towards the most interesting and successful opera ever produced by the young musicians of Salem. The advanced chorus numbers fifty voices all with previous experience in musical performances or other forms of dramatic productions.

The "Mikado" is an opera based upon a Japanese theme which at once gives every opportunity for artistic and effective stage settings and costumes. The lines flow with humor and embarrassing situations. The music contains many of the favorite comic opera numbers, such as "Tit Willow" and "The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring." "The Little Maids from School" and other melodies of popular appeal.

The following cast has been chosen: Mikado of Japan, Paul Lee; Nanki Poo (son of Mikado) Ronald Craven; KoKo, Lord High Executioner, Gerald Mero; Pooch-Bah, Lord High Everything Else, Arlie Anderson; Pish-Tush, a noble lord, Earle Riggs; Yum Yum (ward of KoKo) Esther Burch; Pitti-Sing (ward of KoKo) Thelma Davis; Peep Bo (ward of KoKo) Helen Pemberton; Katisha, an elderly lady, Helen Marcus; chorus of school girls, nobles, guards, etc.

Lena Belle Tartar is directing the opera. Only one public performance will be given June 5, at the high school auditorium. The proceeds go to the support of the music department of the high school.

Mrs. F. W. Selce and Mrs. E. J. Hoffman will represent chapter G and Miss May Rauch and Dr. Mary C. Rowland will be the official chapter AB delegates at the fourteenth annual convention of Oregon state chapter P. E. O. sisterhood which will be held in the First Congregational church at Oregon City on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of the coming week.

In addition to the official delegates the Salem chapters will be ably represented at the convention. Among those planning to attend one or more of the sessions are Mrs. Clara Patterson, Mrs. E. C. Richards and Mrs. Mollie Styles of chapter AB and Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Mrs. O. B. Price, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. E. E. Fleher and Mrs. W. W. Moore of chapter G.

Special honor guests of the convention will be Mrs. Wagon Evans Reeves of Chicago, editor of the P. E. O. Record, and Mrs. Edith Markham Wallace of Seattle, recording secretary supreme chapter.

Mrs. W. J. McTready of Forest Grove, president of the state chapter, will preside. Other state officers are: First vice president, Mrs. D. H. Bodine, Albany; second vice president, Mrs. I. D. Bodine, Portland; organizer, Miss Marthine Grimeby, Portland; recording secretary, Miss Beacie Mieskey, Portland; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. J. Simkins, McMinnville; treasurer, Mrs. E. E. Kelly, Medford.

It is expected that each of the 35 Oregon chapters will be represented. Two delegates are allowed from a chapter, and there probably will be about 85 voting delegates.

Music will be an important feature of the convention and Mrs. Anna H. Gof of Portland will be song leader, with Mrs. Cordelia N. Gill of Newberg, pianist.

Mrs. A. E. Collett and Miss Elaine Collett were guests in Albany during the week.

Chapter AB of the P. E. O. sisterhood will meet at the home of Mrs. T. E. McCrokey on Monday evening.

Bride-Elect Honored At Tea

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gouley was the scene Mrs. Gouley entertained at tea honoring her niece, Miss Mildred Apperson of McMinnville, whose marriage to Charles G. Robertson, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson, will be an event of June 16.

Several hundred prominent Salem matrons and maids called during the afternoon and there were guests also from McMinnville and Portland.

Long talked about his ministry in Salem and his regret at leaving, and what had led him to accept the larger work in Stockton.
